HARRY A. VAN
Presents the Bijou Stock Co.

In a sensational comedy drama

COURT MARTIALED

At the Klinger Grand tonight.

Harry A. Van's Bijou Stock Co.

An enjoyable program was presented last evening at the Klinger Grand by the Bijou Stock company. While this company is making its third annual tour, it is its first appearance here and will remain with us indefinitely. Space forbids us mentioning each and every actor singly, but a more evenly balanced company would be hard to get. Special mention has been made of Mr. Harry Cornell as Rev. Van Dyke Brown. Mr. Clarence M. Love as Captain Warner, who by the way, was with Mme. Modjeska for ten years, has earned laurels in all parts of the world, as well as Mr. Geo. T. Shaw, the comedian of some 28 years experience. They tell a good joke on him when he was with Mr. Vans company in British Columbia in a small town called Kluchone, near an Indian reservation.

The company had played an engagement of three nights and each and every night there was a full delegation of Indians. The chief waited upon Mr. Van and insisted that the company should remain at least a month. This, of course, was impossible. They were so impressed with the mirth of Mr. Shaw that to the company's dismay when going to the station next day found that the Redskins had torn up a half mile of track each side of the station and consequently were obliged to remain and perform until the track was put in order.

Let us hope we will not be obliged to go to such harsh methods to keep them here, for if each and every citizen likes to see a good moral clean show and gain ten good people in our midst it is up to us to patronize them.

Gorton's Minstrels.

Gorton's Minstrels, with an excellent company of comedians, singers, dancers and vaudeville artists, will appear at the Grand opera house Tuesday. Bearing the stamp of popular approval for nearly a half century, this favorite organization, enlarged to almost double its former size, is fully sustaining its best reputation, by providing its patrons with only the very best features of minstrelsy.

The high standard of excellence which has always characterized their performances in the past, will again prevail the present season.

The management guarantees a program positively free from stale, time-worn acts, everything being new, original and up-to-date, while every attention has been given to the many details necessary to a high-class, entertaining, bright and merry minstrel performance.

An attractive parade will be given by the entire company.
Seats on sale at box office Tuesday at 9 a. m.

Boosters Will Not Meet.
The Boosters' club of the Capital City will not meet tonight, for the reason that the last meeting was held one week earlier than the regular time. Hence an interval of three weeks will elapse between the last meeting held and the next one scheduled.
It Does the Business.
Mr. E. Chamberlain of Clinton, Maine, says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Used it for chapped hands and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed without leaving a scar behind." 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

Final Account Heard.
E. P. McCormack, guardian of the estate of Evan Reese, an insane person, has filed his final account in probate court. The court has heard the account, the guardian has been discharged from his trust and the estate settled up.
A Higher Health Level.
"I have reached a higher health level since I began using Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Jacob Springer, of West Franklin, Maine. "They keep my stomach, liver and bowels working just right." If these pills disappoint you on trial, money will be refunded at J. C. Perry's drug store; 25c.

WHY SO WEAK? Kidney Troubles May Be Sapping Your Life Away—Salem People Have Learned this Fact.

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes weak, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, look to the kidneys for the cause of it all. Keep the kidneys well. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and keep them well. Here is Salem testimony to prove it:
E. E. Gilliam, proprietor of livery and feed stable at 62 Ferry street, and living at 332 Water street, Salem, Ore., says: "Years of almost constant driving and a fall I got several years ago which wrenched my back badly had tended to hurt my kidneys. I suffered from backache and lameness so that at times I could hardly straighten up. Sharp pains caught me when I arose after sitting. None of the remedies I tried did me any good until a short time ago I was induced to get Doan's Kidney Pills, at Dr. Stone's drug store. In a short time I obtained more relief from the backache and the disordered condition of the kidneys than I had for years. I know of neighbors who have used your remedy, and they all speak of it as the best medicine there is, and I believe this to be so."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Asks Divorce.

A new divorce proceeding has been begun in department No. 1 by Lillian A. Oberer vs. Fred J. Oberer. The parties were married at Corvallis about ten years ago and have three children, all sons, ranging in age from five to nine years. The usual statutory grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and personal indignities rendering life burdensome are alleged in the complaint. Both parties are residents of Oregon and the plaintiff of Marion county.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Benefits a City Councilman at Kingston, Jamaica.

Mr. W. O'Reilly Forgarty, who is a member of the city council at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies, writes as follows: "One bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had good effect on a cough that was giving me trouble and I think I should have been more quickly relieved if I had continued the remedy. That it was beneficial and quick in relieving me there is no doubt and it is my intention to obtain another bottle." For sale by Dr. Stone's drug store.
M. M. Taylor, a prominent grocery man, of Jacksonville, after attending the grocers' convention in Portland, and visiting R. D. Allen, of this city, left this morning for his home.
