LITTLE POLITICAL SIDE REFLECTIONS

Statement No. 1 is getting a tidal wave movement on at Portland. The Clackamas Republican candidates are all getting off their qualified statements and getting onto Statement No. 1.

The Marion county Statement No. 1 candidates met at Woodburn Saturday and have organized their campaign of the county.

Failing to persuade Sam Hughes to pull off the legislative ticket of the anti-Statement No. 1 candidates, the managers have now decided that Wilton Simeral, the farmer at the reform school must get off. They figure that Hughes could hold some of the organized labor vote, while Simeral has a position at the reform school and has no strength among the farmers with whom he is nominally classed. Simeral has not yet withdrawn but it is expected that he will.
