and was summarily bupled into the storage warehouse. The fact that it attracted a long succession of crowded audiences is a striking testimony to the personal charm of the actress who bore the title role.

Then came "The Stubbornness of Geraldine" and "Harriet's Honey-moon."

Last season she appeared with her husband, James K. Hackett, as co-star in "The Walls of Jericho," the play written by Alfred Sutro, which was one of the leading successes in New York last season.

When Mr. Hackett decided to become a manager, and to act only at convenient intervals, Miss Manning, therefore, returns to the lone star state in "Glorious Betsy."

Miss Manning has a tall, willowy figure, a distinguished bearing—the head of Faed's "Evangeline," a face of great sensibility, and the rare strange charm of grey eyes and dark hair; and all her motions are elastic and graceful; best of all, she has a voice which under the stress of natural emotion, in a situation of real pathos and not of trumpery excitement and artificial flurry, would go straight to the heart.

Spasms St. Vitus' Dance

Many persons who suffered untold agonies from epilepsy, fits, spasms, and St. Vitus' Dance are today well. The strengthening influence of Dr. Miles' Nervine upon the shattered nerves having restored them to perfect health.

"I endured agony that words cannot express from St. Vitus' dance, which followed a very severe spell of rheumatism. I doctored with a physician; but the more I took of his medicine the worse I got. My mother's devotion saved me. After she had become almost heart-broken, as well as physically exhausted from constant care, by the advice of a neighbor she procured a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine. From the first dose to the last a continual change for the better was noticeable, and when I had taken eleven bottles I was well and in robust health."
EDWARD D. REAM,
North Manchester, Indiana.

"Our little boy Harry had spasms for three years, and although we doctored with many physicians, he continued to grow worse until he had ten spasms in one week. About that time our attention was called to Dr. Miles' Nervine. We began giving it to him. His improvement seemed slow, but when he had finished the fourth bottle the spasms had disappeared, and have not been seen now for years. We shall always recommend Dr. Miles' Nervine."
MRS. BELL M. TRIDALL,
Hastings, Neb.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.
