POLITICAL POT BOILS IN MARION COUNTY

Horse Show Week Brings the Grand County Roundup Before the People--Big Fight Will Be Over Commissioner and Clerk--Legislative Ticket Is Already Being Considered.

The horse editor of The Capital Journal has been spending the past week leading up to the horse show trying to get into the approximate vicinity of the Marion county political situation. In a campaign year the horse show week always opens the county political campaign. The draft horses, equine and human, are in town that week. The prize winners and the people are looking over the and the people are looking over the whole aggregation.

The County Ticket.

It goes without saying that Sheriff Minto and Treasurer Joe Moore will be given second terms without opposition. Both are making good with the people in their respective offices, and can have the places if they want them. They will probably be up for a second term. They are men especially fitted for their positions, and the people can be trusted to keep such men in places where they give satisfaction.

The big fight will be over the office of county clerk. That is a very important position, as there are not only several jobs devolving on the clerk, but he is purchasing agent for all county supplies, except school supplies, and expends many thousands of dollars, and a careful, systematic, economical business administration of that office is very important. Al. Jones, of Lahish; E. E. McKinney, of Sublimity; Max Gehler, of Salem, and possibly Dana Allen, of Silverton, will be in the race.

There will be a hot fight over coun commissioner. Wm. H. Goulet, of Woodburn, is being pressed for a second term by his friends, and has strong backing. The name of John Murray, of Butteville, is being mentioned as a possible candidate. The idea seems to be that the place will go to the north end of the county. There is a strong feeling in favor of a hayseed county court to run the county on conservative business lines, and keep out of debt.

For recorder the people may take a notion to keep the present incumbent. David Drager was nominated the first direct primary over Will Jones, of Jefferson, the present Recorder, who is understood to be a candidate for the place.

The Legislative Ticket.

There are many aspirants for this honors in both houses in Marion county. For representatives C. H. Libbey, of Jefferson; H. L. Bents, of Aurora; Byron J. Gilm, of Hubbard; John Steelhammer, of Woodburn; H. C. Eppley, of Salem; O. L. Hattberg, of Silverton; B. B. Gesner, of East Salem, and many others are being talked of, and the indications are that five good men and true will be picked out. For state senator Hal D. Patton, Tom Kay and George Rodgers, all of Salem, are considered available material by careful observers of the trend of public sentiment.

For constable of Salem precinct Ira Hamilton has the call if he wants another term.
