

CORVALLIS' CARNIVAL

Twenty-fifth Anniversary of Oregon Agricultural College.

GRAND HISTORIC OBSERVANCE

Splendid Progress of a Great Educational Institution to Be Fittingly Celebrated—Nation and State Will Be Represented by High Officials—Military Drills, Pageants, Athletic Contests and Musical Entertainments Will Enliven the Occasion.

The Oregon Agricultural college will celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of its establishment as a state institution on June 14. For this event there will assemble in the city of Corvallis men distinguished in every walk of American life, together with many hundreds of Oregon college alumni and former students.

The function will be both formal and festive. Besides the conferring of degrees and the more formal exercises, there will be pageants, military drills and parades, athletic contests, student dramatic and musical concerts. Some of the most prominent men in contemporary public life will deliver addresses, and the best musical talent available will be secured for the various programs.

For this occasion Corvallis will take on a carnival air, and there is no spot in Oregon better fitted to be the scene of a great historic observance. The beauty which nature has bestowed upon the great sweep of campus and its surroundings will be augmented by the efforts of the best landscape gardeners and special decorators. The cause it marks an era of development and progress in the educational work of the institution which is not surpassed if it is equaled in the history of land grant colleges.

In the twenty-five years which have intervened since the state assumed control of Corvallis college, then a sectarian school, a marvelous change has taken place. The little local school which served as grammar school, high school and college for a very limited district has developed into a great and broad institution whose influence is felt in every corner of the state and which attracts to its portals young men and young women not only from every part of Oregon, but from sev-

BUILDINGS AND CAMPUS.

Beauty and Utility Combined at the College at Corvallis.

The Oregon Agricultural college, which will celebrate its quarter centennial June 14, is located at Corvallis, on the Willamette river and in the heart of the beautiful Willamette valley. The nearly foothills, with their green fields, wooded glens and mountain streams, afford splendid opportunities for recreation and contribute to the beauty of the scenery which the distant snow clad Cascades complete. This splendid environment, together with the weather conditions which usually prevail at this time of the year, will afford an ideal location and atmosphere for the jubilee.

The college grounds, consisting of 250 acres, are located within the western limits of the city. The campus proper, covering about forty acres, is beautifully decorated with magnificent specimen trees, flower beds and groups of shrubbery. Broad drives and walks traverse the grounds in every direction and add to the attractiveness of the place.

In place of the single brick building which housed the college in 1885 and which now serves as the administration building there are twenty structures, many of which eclipse in every way the original college home. On each side of it is a beautiful gray stone building, one of which is now called the chemistry building and the other mechanical hall. The next row of buildings includes the splendid home of the mechanic arts, the pharmacy building, the gymnasium and the mammoth concrete armory. Flanking these buildings are Waldo hall, the women's beautiful dormitory, the new agricultural hall, the central part of which is just being completed, and Shepard hall, the student building.

IN THE VAN OF PROGRESS.

Oregon College Champions New Ideas in Education.

Very few people of the state who have not visited the Oregon Agricultural college during the past year realize what a great institution has been established at Corvallis or in any way appreciate the interest which it affords the visitor by reason of its beautiful campus, splendid buildings, elaborate equipment and broad scope of activities. It was in order that the people of the state might have an opportunity to visit the institution and at the same time enjoy the privilege of hearing addresses by some of the

Then there are the mining buildings, the poultry buildings and the farm buildings, forming a splendid group. All these buildings and this great stretch of campus will be decked out in carnival air. Great flower beds will be prepared and planted with the flowers arranged in unique designs. The college colors will be much in evidence, and the buildings will be outlined with thousands of electric lights.

most prominent men of the day, listening to splendid music, viewing the elaborate pageants and enjoying the spirit of the occasion, that the quarter centennial celebration was planned. Another reason for celebrating at this time is the significance which attaches to the struggle which the college has successfully passed through during the past twenty-five years. As he champion and instrument of a new idea in education it has met with strong opposition and coped with every form of obstacle that it is possible to imagine. But a better appreciation of the value of technical education seems now to prevail in this country, and a clearer understanding of the scope of the work of this college and its close relation to the industrial development of this commonwealth seems to be well established in the state. With the establishment of these two conditions a distinct period in the history of the institution is closed.

During the next quarter century it is safe to predict that the institution will do a more wonderful work than in the past twenty-five years and that it will become a powerful factor in every phase of the state's development. Freed from the opposition which often frustrated its efforts in the past it will take its place in the van of the progressive movement in Oregon.

Evidence of this fact is not wanting. Thousands of acres of waste land are being converted into grain and hay fields; great orchards are springing up everywhere; better roads are in the making; great stock farms, breeding splendid animals, are established in large numbers; the poultry and the dairy industries have increased and improved, and in all the influence of the college is a powerful factor.

Honesty speaks for itself.

FATHER MOTHER AND BABY

ALL ARE FOUND DEAD, THEIR HEADS BEATEN TO A PULP WITH A PIECE OF LEAD PIPE—RAYMOND HARDY, A SON, IS ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.

Marshalltown, Iowa, June 6.—Following the finding of the bodies of James Hardy, Mrs. Hardy, and their little son at their home at Laurel, their heads beaten in by a piece of lead pipe, Raymond Hardy, 21, another son, was arrested on suspicion today. He is being held pending an explanation.

Roy Hardy declared that he knew nothing of the triple murder. He said that he had been at the home of a neighbor and did not return until early today. He found the bodies, he said, and got help as quickly as he could after finding them.

Raymond Hardy said he found his mother's body in the dining room, his brother's body in the kitchen and that of his father in the barn. He said all had evidently been dead several hours when he discovered them.

Young Hardy planned to marry Mabel Stearns, daughter of a neighbor Wednesday. The sheriff is endeavoring to show that Hardy's parents opposed the marriage. Raymond said he visited Miss Stearns last night, and upon returning home found the bodies of his parents and his brother.

DILWORTHS HAVE LEAD IN CONTEST

The Dilworth Derbies of Portland yesterday afternoon defeated the Salem Senators at the league grounds by a score of 6 to 2. This places the Derbies in the lead in the Tri-City League race, the team having won seven games and lost two, which gives it a percentage of .778. Salem and Sellwood, both even, stand next on the list. Each have won six games and lost three, and have a percentage of .667.

Bowen twirled the first part of the game for Salem, but was relieved in the third by Johnson. Townsend occupied the box for the Derbies.

Huddleston, the left fielder for Salem, won much applause from the fans when he starred for the team, both at the bat and in the field. Townsend did pretty work for the Derbies. He came up three times and succeeded in getting a three-bagger and also a two-bagger. Hargrave and Irwin also did much towards the winning of the game. Salem's shortstop, Joe Fay, was spiked in the fourth inning, and was compelled to leave the game. The score is as follows:

Dilworths 6 9 2
Salem 2 7 3
Batteries—Townsend and Bauer; Bowen, Johnson and White, Umpire—Rankin and Jamison.

MODERN HAIR DRESSING

has played havoc with the tresses of the fair sex, and druggists everywhere comment on the fact that they are selling large quantities of sage for making the old-fashioned "sage tea," such as was used by our grandmothers for promoting the growth of their hair and restoring its natural color. The demand for this well-known herb for this purpose has been so great that one manufacturer has taken advantage of the fact, and has placed on the market an ideal "sage tea," containing sulphur, a valuable remedy for dandruff and scalp rashes and irritations. This preparation, which is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, is sold by all leading druggists for 50 cents and $1 a bottle, or will be sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

EMPLOYER DRIVEN TO HARD WORK

SAMUEL HERMANN, MILLIONAIRE HEAD OF THE OREGON TRANSFER COMPANY, DONS LEATHER APRON AND DRIVES ONE OF HIS OWN TEAMS.

Portland, Ore., June 6.—That the draymen's association is in desperate straits for men to break the transfer drivers' strike for higher wages, was indicated today when Samuel Hermann, millionaire head of the Oregon Transfer Company and president of the Draymen's association, donned a leather apron and acted as teamster.

Accompanied by his brother, Edward, Hermann drove to the docks, loaded up a wagon with goods from a warehouse, then drove up town and the two men delivered various boxes.

The union pickets did not molest Hermann, who declares he will continue driving until some system of relief for the congested condition of freight is devised.

The four hundred striking teamsters are confident that they will win the strike. No trouble is looked for unless the draymen's association imports strikebreakers from the East. Arrangements have been made to secure non-union teamsters from San Francisco.

ROOSEVELT'S TALK COST MAN HIS JOB

(By a Staff Correspondent of the United Press.)

London, June 6.—It is reported that Sir Eldon Gorst, British agent and consul-general of Egypt, will be recalled following Colonel Roosevelt's speech at Guild hall, in which he criticized the British administration in Egypt. It is intimated that Sir Francis Wingate, Sidar of the Egyptian army and governor of Egypt, will succeed Gorst.

Wingate and Roosevelt are on intimate terms and the colonel while in Egypt was a guest at the Sidar's palace at Khartoum. Since coming to England, the colonel has lost no opportunities to "boost Sir Francis. This strengthens the belief that the colonel is planning to achieve a part in the contemplated changes in Egypt.

If Gorst be "fired," Roosevelt probably will be charged with interfering in England's private affairs. Colonel Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt were guests of King George and Queen Mary at luncheon at Marlborough house today.

PROVEN ECZEMA CURE.

Many eczema sufferers have failed so utterly with salves and other "discoveries" that even the assurance of the best physician or druggist cannot induce them to invest another dollar in any remedy.

It is to these discouraged sufferers in particular that we now offer, at only 25 cents, a trial bottle of the accepted standard eczema remedy, a simple wash of oil of wintergreen, thymol and glycerine, as com-ounded in D. D. D. Prescription.

Hundreds of cures have convinced us and we know you can prove instantly with the first application that it takes away the itch at once. J. C. Perry.

Salem Boys Make Good at O. A. C. At the Student Body election held yesterday Mr. Larry Keene was elected president of the student body of O. A. C. and was elected president of his society, the same day, and is college pitcher.

Mr. L. C. Rullison was elected manager of the student engineer for next year, being the successor to Mr. A. E. Finlay, who has managed the magazine this year, and under whose direction the First Annual Electrical Show was held at O. A. C. proving a success both financially and entertainingly. Finlay, who is a senior in the course of Civil Engineering this year, is Captain of Company L, and president of his literary society and chief engineer of the Civil Engineering association. All three are Salem boys.

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Black Duck, Minn.—"About a year ago I wrote you that I was sick and could not do any of my housework. My sickness was called Retroflexion. When I would sit down I felt as if I could not get up. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and did just as you told me and now I am perfectly cured, and have a big baby boy."—Mrs. ANNA ANDERSON, Box 19, Black Duck, Minn.

Consider This Advice.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial.

This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills, and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

splendid new buildings will be completed, and everything will be in such state as to best entertain and please the returning graduates and visitors.

The railroads have agreed to offer excursion rates and to put on special trains from various points in the state. This will offer a splendid opportunity to the people of the state to visit the college at this opportune time.

The ex-governors of the state, former presidents of the college and former members of the board of regents will be among the official visitors.

Both the state and the nation will be represented by men prominent in the service of each. Governor Benson and his staff will be present as the representatives of the state of Oregon. Men high in the official circles of the United States will be present to represent the federal government.

The universities and colleges of the United States will also be invited to send delegates to the celebration. This will guarantee a very wide representation in educational work and will bring to the college many of the most prominent educators of the age.

Representatives of the commercial, industrial and agricultural interests of the state will also be present at the celebration. The experimental work which the college has been carrying on for many years has put it in close touch with these activities and with the people of the state who are engaged in conducting them.

This quarter century celebration is significant not because it marks the close of a long period of time during which the college has existed, but be-

BROWNELL DISLIKES PLAN

Clackamas Politician Opposes Assembly in Milwaukee Speech.

Milwaukee special: George C. Brownell, Clackamas county politician, in a long address Friday night in the city hall, endorsed the initiative and referendum and condemned the assembly plan. Brownell said in his address that he was one of the fathers of the initiative and referendum law, having introduced the first resolution in the state legislature looking to its enactment. He reviewed the political conditions of the state prior to the adoption of the "people's rule," as compared with the present condition. Mr. Brownell did not say openly that he was a candidate for state senator, but it is supposed that his speech was the opening of his campaign for the nomination.
