SAVED SOULS AND HE ALSO MENDED THEM

REV. JAMES OGICH GOT $24 FOR 18 MONTHS' SERVICES AS PASTOR, BUT REPAIRED THE SOLES OF HIS PARISHERS TO EKE OUT A LIVING.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 2.—Rev. James Ogich, pastor of the Holy Trinity Servian church of St. Louis, has worked out a partial solution of the problem of meeting the high cost of living with a poor paying congregation.

According to a suit on file here today in the circuit court he says that the total salary paid him in 18 months was $24.

His attorney, Jesse Barrett, when asked how the clergyman lived on this sum, replied:

"He got a job in a shoe factory."

Rev. Ogich is suing the church and trustees for $1575 back salary he alleges is due him.

BAKER CITY WANTS COMMODITY RATES

In answer to the complaint of the Baker City Commercial club and petition to the railroad commission for the establishment of a special commodity rate upon certain necessary and substantial household commodities, enumerated in the complaint upon the main line of the O. R. & N. system, the railroad company today filed its formal protest against such action on the part of the commission and sets forth the contention, in defense of the rates in force at the present time, that such rates to and from Baker City on the main line of the O. R. & N. are prescribed and published under the western classification of rates and are legal, fair and not excessive or discriminatory in comparison with the rates in effect to and from other points along its line of railroad.

The Baker City Commercial club recites, as a cause of action against the rates in question, that Baker City is the distributing point for a large territory of Eastern Oregon for the commodities enumerated in the long list embodied in its complaint and that, while there is a special commodity rate published in ther O. R. & N. tariff upon other commodities to and from that point, the commodities enumerated should be taken out of the western classification of rates and placed in the special commodity list as published.

RACING GAME WILL MOVE TO CANADA

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 2.—The death of the racing game in New York is expected to boost the sport in Canada, and backers of the Fall meeting here believe that the card offered will be one of the best ever seen in the Dominion. Many horses from Saratoga will be sent to Canada for this meet and it is expected they will attract many followers of the sport from New York.

The race course has been improved since the Summer meeting. The betting ring has been enlarged and a new enclosure for the cashiers has been erected.

The convicts of Norway are made to till the soil.

X-RAYS AND SMILES.

For fear you overlooked it the horse editor calls attention to the fact that yesterday, September 1, was ornithorhynchus day.

Banks Must Show Up.

Washington, Sept. 2.—The comptroller of the currency today issued a call for the condition of National banks at the close of business, September 1st.

"Can be depended upon" is an expression we all like to hear, and when it is used in connection with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy it means that it never fails to cure diarrhoea, dysentery or bowel complaints. It is pleasant to take and equally valuable for children and adults. Sold by all dealers.
