ATE DEFENDING AND PROSECUTING ITSELF

Attorney-General Points Out Absurd Position in Action Brought Regarding Compensation Act.

In the matter of the State of Oregon vs. Gale S. Hill, district attorney, plaintiff vs. Ben W. Olcott, secretary of state, defendant, Attorney-General Crawford today filed an answer. This is the suit over the Day bill brought to prevent the workmen's compensation act from being placed on the ballot, and alleging fraud in obtaining signatures. Attorney-General Crawford takes the case and that Wilfred S. Farrel, appearing for and on behalf of the petitioners, should be made a party defendant, and that he be given a chance to defend the petition. He holds that the suit puts the state in the position of plaintiff and also as defendant, which is absurd. He holds that the secretary performed his full duty in examining and certifying the petitions, and that the state has no business to demand a charge of fraud, and at the same time prosecute it.

MULHALL CONTINUES TESTIMONY AT HEARING

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, July 28.—The alleged political activities of the National Association of Manufacturers in 1911 were reported to the senate lobby committee here today by Martin M. Mulhall, Baltimore, who, apparently, had recovered from his break down of last Friday. He was expected to complete his direct examination into this afternoon, and attorneys for the N. A. are expected to start his cross-examination tomorrow through written questions.

Where Can We Get Office Furniture and Stove Fixtures?

That is a question that will be asked now that Salem is growing so rapidly, every day, by Capital Journal readers. Have you anything to say on the subject? Are you a dealer? Do you want to sell anything in that line? Then consider the array of business men and prospective business men who read The Capital Journal. A large majority of them take no other paper published in Salem. If you are a dealer, run an ad every day in the week. If your supply is limited a small ad in the classified will be sufficient. Part of the profits from a single sale will pay the cost. And this advertising will have its cumulative effect. It will build you—establish—develop your concern into an even more substantial, moneymaking enterprise than it is. You don't need an advertising manager. The Capital Journal Copy Service Bureau will prepare your ad for you. All you have to do is to ask for help. Service costs you—not a cent. Simple matter, isn't it? Just ring up

HOP PRICES TAKE ANOTHER BIG JUMP

Twenty Cents Is Reached, Which Is Three Cents Higher Than at Previous Time This Year.

Supporting the characteristics of the Twentieth Century King Crab in his altitude-climbing machine and evidently determined to create a stir in the midst of those who are wont to mingle with the class of human beings who devote their entire time to one of the greatest, if not the greatest industries in this state, the hop market yesterday and Saturday "came out of it," as it were, and today the highest price paid for hops so far this season is 20 cents, or three cents higher than any former contract price agreed upon for 1913 hops.

This elevation of price has been looked for, but the suddenness with which it came, rather surprised several local and Portland buyers, and the fact that an early rise is at hand leads many to believe that the price will continue to soar in the next few months.

Besides three thousand bales being contracted last Saturday at 20 cents the T. A. Livesley Hop company, of this city, contracted for 50,000 pounds from M. Matomato, a Japanese grower at Independence, 20,000 pounds from Henry S. Brophy, of Salem, 1000 pounds from a Jefferson grower.

Catlin & Linn have contracted for a 500 bale lot and Joseph Harris has secured the Neible crop at Ballston this year.

Growers Holding On. With these conditions existing, growers in Marion, Polk and Linn counties are holding fast according to rumors being circulated here today, and it is possible that the price will remain steady for the time being at least. Fifteen and seventeen cents have been the record prices up until last Saturday and contracts were fairly numerous, but today the growers are inclined to sit back and wait and listen.

SECRETARY OF NAVY HAS EXCITING TRIP

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Portland, Ore., July 28.—After an adventurous night, circling a burned bridge and riding by two special trains to avoid a 24-hour delay in reaching Portland, Josephus Daniels, accompanied by Mrs. Daniels, Governor West and others, arrived in Portland this morning entirely happy.

"It was adventurous and exciting," he admitted in speaking of the party's trip through the Isadora gulch, near Roseburg, which was accomplished by the light of torches.

"Yes, but we didn't mind it very much," commented Mrs. Daniels, smilingly. "You should have seen Mrs. Daniels descending the canyon wall," interjected Governor West. "There were torches to show how far she must leap. She descended the sheer face of the rock several places where it was higher than a man's head, and never lost her courage once."

Wants to Learn Problems.

"I am on a student's trip," said Secretary Daniels today. "I am here to learn what the problems of the Pacific coast are, and how they may be best solved."

He stated that upon the completion of the Panama canal, the Pacific coast will share with the Atlantic seaboard in being known as the "home of the fleet," and that both coasts will be treated impartially.

INDIANA AUTO DRIVERS ARRIVE IN OAKLAND

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Oakland, Cal., July 28.—Following an automobile tour of the Highlands Drive the Indiana to the Pacific Coast automobile tourists who have just completed a jaunt across the continent, were tendered a luncheon here today by 100 prominent citizens.

Mayor Frank K. Mott, of Oakland, presided. Addresses were made by Mayors Mott, Hayward of Berkeley, and Otis, of Alameda; Managing Director Caine of the commercial club, and by former Mayor Charles Bookwalter of Indianapolis.

The party of tourists will leave Oakland this afternoon for San Francisco. The luncheon served today was to have been tendered Saturday night, together with that to Secretary of the Navy Daniels, but owing to delays the auto-ists were unable to reach here until yesterday.

Japan should not be blamed for Mexicans' effusive friendship, but it cannot be expected to be any favor to her.

Let some people run the weather, and the crops would never ripen.

DAVIS CUP

In the final singles matches to J. C. Parke, McLoughlin came back undaunted on Saturday, and, coupled with Harold Hackett, of Boston, took the doubles from the English team, after a hard contest. The play of McLoughlin Saturday and today was a revelation to English tennis enthusiasts and he is given full credit for American's victory.

Dixon gave McLoughlin a struggle in the first set, but the San Franciscan was victorious, 8-6. The next two sets were easy for the American, who won 6-3, 5-2.

JAPANESE OUTLOOK HOPEFUL

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Washington, July 28.—An optimistic view of the negotiations with Japan, arising from her protest against the California anti-alien land law was taken here today by administration officials. Each declared a complete understanding is in sight. Another interchange of notes is expected, but it is said the diplomatic correspondence had clearly established the friendliness of the United States government for Japan, and that the Mikado is cognizant of this fact.

MILLINERY STORE BURNS.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Grants Pass, Or., July 28.—Fire last night destroyed a two-story frame building on Front street, and with it the Waughlall millinery store, the pioneer establishment of the kind in the district. The millinery store had occupied the same room for 24 years. The building was also occupied by a cleaning and pressing concern and by a rooming house on the upper floor. Loss on the millinery store is $3000, without insurance. The building belonged to the Weidman estate.
