Mr. and Mrs. Albert Minton leave the first of the week for Albany, where they will make their home. Mr. Minton becoming a member of a well-known law firm of that place.

Both will be greatly missed by a host of friends in Salem. Mrs. Minton was Miss Lucile Staley before her marriage.

Miss Pauline Bohmsen, of Portland, is the house guest of the Albert Minton, stopping off on her way home from Eugene, where she has been entertained by friends.

Mrs. George E. Waters is the guest of friends in Portland for the week.

Mrs. Fred Palmer, of Seattle, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper, at their home on the Garden road. Her husband will join her shortly, and together they will leave on a business and pleasure trip to Santa Barbara and other southern California points.

Mr. Palmer is connected with the Klav and Erlanger theatrical productions.

A party of young people were entertained recently by Ray and Beanie Cooper at a lawn party at their home, Mrs. Palmer being honor guest.

It was with much regret that friends of Mrs. George Bennett bade her farewell, Wednesday, upon her departure for San Francisco, where she will join her husband, Captain Bennett, and where they expect to make their future home.

Captain Bennett has been stationed in the Philippines for the past twelve years, but is now on the retired list. Mrs. Bennett has spent much time with her husband in the Philippines but has resided with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Dopp, of Denver, Colorado, in Salem, the past two years, where she has endeavored to all with whom she has associated.

Mrs. Dopp will leave shortly for her home in Denver.

Probably the most noteworthy collection of pictures that has ever been in Salem is that now on exhibition at the Frame Shop.

There are sixty original paintings in the group, of both oils and water colors. Mr. A. E. Schneider, of Seattle, has the pictures on display, and will leave for Seattle.

George Nelson Forbes, the famous American artist, of Pittsburgh, Pa., with studios in Rome, is the only American represented. His work is done in water color and is remarkable for its coloring and skillful handling.

The names of Italian, English, German, French and Dutch artists of international reputation also are among the list.

Mrs. Irwin Griffith secured two of the most notable pictures, both being by English artists, "Loch Eck, Scottish Highlands," by Krause, and "English Garden Scene," by Florence Mackay.

Miss Nina Parrish and Miss Asta Schure left last night, Miss Parrish going to Washington, D. C., and Miss Schure returning to her home in Denmark.

turn to Washington, where she will be entertained by Mrs. Carolyn Shelton, formerly of Salem, who is secretary to Senator Chamberlain. On her return trip she will visit in Pittsburg, other eastern cities and Salt Lake. She expects to be gone six weeks.

Miss Schure has resided in Salem less than a year, and is returning to her home owing to her mother's failing health. She has made many friends here, who sincerely wish that she may sometime return to Salem.

Members of the "Da Kum" club entertained Wednesday evening at the beautiful home of Mrs. Edith Kollogg Bartlett for the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Butler (Miss Iris Hanns).

Elaborate decorations were carried out with hundreds of choicest roses. One room was decked as a "bride's bower," and was completely transformed with masses of pink roses. The large living room was entirely in yellow, and in another room quantities of red roses were arranged.

The guests were entertained with instrumental and vocal music and a classical game, the Virginia reel culminating a delightful evening.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Butler, Miss Evelyn Riegelman, Miss Lorilla Rolter, Miss Mabel Welborn, Miss Anna Bartlett, Miss Laura Yantis, Miss Ethel McDonald, Miss Clara Maxwell, Miss Bertha Broyles, Miss Emma Albers, Miss Agnes Driscoll, Miss Georgia Broyles, Miss Elzanore Tapon, of Oregon City, and Misses Violet, Grace and Vera Welborn.

Ironton, Ohio, May 15.—Mrs. Matilda Massie, aged 75; her son Robert, 45, and daughter Mary, 42, were found murdered today at the Massie home at Greasy Ridge, 25 miles north of here. W. E. Massie, a prominent democratic politician, is Mrs. Massie's son.

Harley Beard, 21 years old, a farm hand, is being sought.

Mrs. Massie's body was found in the front yard with the skull crushed, the throat cut and her hands tied behind her back. The daughter lay on the kitchen floor with her throat cut, and hands tied. Robert Massie was found dead in the barn with his skull crushed.

It was believed the three were murdered Wednesday. No motive for the crime was known.

Chicago, May 15.—A youth giving the name of Harley Beard was arrested here today in connection with the murders of Mrs. Matilda Massie, her son and daughter near Ironton, Ohio. The police say Beard confessed.

Hunstanton, England, May 15.—Miss Gladys Ravenscroft, woman golf champion of the United States, was defeated here today for the British women's championship by Miss Cecile Leitch, 2 up and one to play. Miss Ravenscroft and Miss Leitch were all square at the 18th hole.

STEALS HORSES TO AID HIS SWEETHEART

Los Angeles, May 15.—Abe Wilson, a jockey, who once was known on the track as Abe Williams, is in the city jail here today, charged with the theft of two valuable race horses. He took the animals, according to the confession the police say he made, to raise money to send his sweetheart to her home in New Orleans. He intended to follow on the brakelinks.

Zero, a trotting mare worth $1,000, and a less valuable horse, both belonging to A. F. Leblitt of South Pasadena, were the horses that disappeared. Both were recovered.

DR. OLINGER HEARS FROM FRIEND IN MEXICO

Dr. W. W. Conriss, who is practicing dentistry in Mexico City, writes the following letter to his old friend, Dr. H. H. Olinger, of the dental firm of H. H. Olinger, of Salem:

"We suppose that you are worrying about us, but up to the present time we have suffered no inconvenience except the uncertainty of what may come. We are in charge of the British legation in the next block and feel safe for the time being. The train for Americans since the trouble began leaves this afternoon and there will be another tomorrow. Americans who tried to leave before were stopped on the way out and sent back until Admiral Fletcher allowed Mexicans to leave Vera Cruz or here. Do not think we are the only ones who are staying. For a number of our friends and their families are here and expect to stay. I have my instruments and work at home and am doing what work comes. Will write again when there is an opportunity. Our next door neighbor leaves this afternoon and takes this letter to mail from Vera Cruz. With best wishes to all."

LAUNDRY WORKERS AND EMPLOYERS REACH NO DECISION

Seattle, Wash., May 15.—The conference of laundry workers and employers on the minimum wage at Olympia seem to be deadlocked today. A majority of the conference seems to favor fixing the wage at a lower rate than that for factory workers—$3.90.

It is intimated by the members of the industrial welfare commission that if that is done the commission will refuse to accept the recommendation and call for a new conference.

All the morning was spent in discussing the cost of board and room with a wide difference in figures. At noon a committee composed of Commissioner Olson, Mrs. McCredie, Mrs. O'Conner and W. J. Doust, representatives, respectively, of public employes and employers, was in session trying to reach some compromise. None seems probable.

Old hens are not absent-minded, yet their eggs are often mislaid.

All things seem sticky to those who are stuck.

CHURCH OFFICIALS EXPRESS CONFIDENCE IN REV. MARSHALL

Rev. H. E. Marshall, pastor of the Baptist church, has brought an action for divorce in the circuit court for Marion county, the grounds being "cruel and inhuman treatment and personal indignities." Mrs. Marshall went to California some weeks ago and is with her mother. Whether she will contest the action is not known. Owing to there having been considerable discussion of the matter, some quite unfavorable to Mr. Marshall, the officials of his church have prepared and made public the following expression of their confidence, and esteem for his pastor:

"We the Deacons of the First Baptist church, after investigating certain current slanderous talk concerning our pastor and his home relations, have fully satisfied ourselves that all has originated from one and the same source, that it was illegitimately spread with wicked design, and that similar effort has been made not only to interfere with the efficiency of the pastor's pulpit work but also to stain his character, and break up the sanctity of his home.

"We have also satisfied ourselves that under most exasperating conditions he has faithfully performed his duties towards his family and the church.

"His ministrations to the church have been such as to win the love of the membership and the highest esteem of the public generally and we wish herewith to emphasize and unanimously give our endorsement of his conduct through this severe testing, and also to heartily and unanimously express our condemnation of those who have been instrumental in attempting his undoing.

"Signed—H. P. Durban, W. F. Foster, F. H. Reasoner, E. A. Miller, "Committee of Deacon Board."

Nominees for county offices are also being chosen.

The socialists and prohibitionists are not participating in the primaries, their candidates having been named at state and county conventions.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

The Fairies Play In The Sand.

Beautiful Castles Can Be Built of Sand.

DADDY knew that he could not let much more time go by without a fairy story, so he thought he would tell one to Jack and Evelyn at once.

"I am going to tell you this evening the story of the fairies' latest party, for they had one the other day," said he.

"Goody!" cried Evelyn. "It is ages since you have told us about the fairies."

"Well, I thought so, too," laughed daddy. And then they all laughed, and daddy commenced his story.

"The fairies found just the nicest sort of a place where it was very, very sandy. They hadn't had a party in the sand for so long that they were very much excited about it. The fairies adore being together and never, never grow tired of playing with one another. That would be quite impossible.

"They all marched in file to the sandy place. They thought that would be a very amusing way to go, and they had a little band to head the procession.

"The crickets were taken along to furnish the music, and they were very proud of being called the band. Also they were very proud of being invited to go to the fairies' party.

"And the fairies, marching behind the crickets, sang—

"Here we go to play in the sand,
Headed by a little band.

"And, of course, the crickets sang and beat their wings together with greater vim than ever when they heard the fairies singing about their band.

"When they got to the sandy place they all commenced to play without a moment's waiting."

"While they were playing the crickets kept up their music, for they had heard that big, real people liked music at all sorts of funny times, such as when they ate and when they were at afternoon teas, so the crickets wanted to keep up with the times and do their best.

"But the game that they really had the most fun over was 'Here we go round the mulberry bush.'

"They played that a great deal. They put a funny stick up on the top of a sand pile which they made, and then they would march around it in a ring. They fell down so often in the soft sand that it amused the others much. They laughed so hard over the funny way they fell that the crickets said:

"This is enough to keep us cheerful for the rest of our lives."
