By Mollie Runcorn

Mrs. Ambrose Middleton, Dramatic Mezzo-Soprano, Who Will Assist June Reed in Concert Friday Night.

MARRIAGE of much interest will be celebrated tonight at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Phillips on North Cottage street...

Mrs. Alma Nye Ulrich, president of the Omega Sunday school class of Leslie M. E. church, entertained the class in a most delightful manner Monday night at the home of her parents...

The house was beautifully decorated with dahlias. After an interesting business meeting, the hostess served a charming dinner...

Next month the class will meet for its regular business meeting at the home of Mrs. J. C. Spencer.

The following members were present: Mrs. J. C. Spencer, teacher of the class; Misses Florence Miller, Clara Miller, Helen Ingre, Olive Alford, Mrs. Fred Ellis, Frieda Schneider.

Miss Lolo DeLong will be married to Earl McEachern, of North Yakima, at a pretty home wedding tonight at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter DeLong.

Another noteworthy wedding this evening will be that of Miss Nellie Pearl Hargrove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hargrove, to John Franklin White, for which Rev. Richard Avison will officiate.

Tomorrow in Portland will be celebrated the marriage of Miss Pauline Nesmith, of that place, to Blaine Southwick, of Salem.

Both are members of one of Oregon's best known families. Miss Nesmith is a grand-daughter of the late Colonel Nesmith.

Mr. Southwick is a brother of F. B. Southwick, of Salem, and A. Southwick, a prominent resident of Polk county.

After the wedding the young couple will take up their residence at Richland on a part of the Nesmith donation land claim.

One of the most interested and interesting visitors at the State fair was Mrs. Monroe, of Portland, who is known as "Grandma" Monroe to all her friends.

Mrs. Harrison Doe has had as her guest Mrs. Verona Nelson, of Newberg. Mrs. Nelson is a prominent club woman, and is also quite well known as a contributor to current magazines.

Fifty interested women demonstrated the fact that the study of the Bible and Bible characters were still an engrossing and delightful subject yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Charles A. Park opened her Bible class for the late Colonel Nesmith.

The lecture room of the public library has been secured for a meeting place and classes will convene each Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

All women of Salem are urged to join the classes. There will be no fees. Mr. Park took "Jonah" as her subject yesterday, and at the next week's meeting a definite subject will be decided upon, which will be studied exclusively throughout the winter.

The classes are under the direction of the Young Women's Christian Association, but Mrs. Park will preside as leader.

Her work along these lines is too well known to need special mention. A diligent and constant student, she is thoroughly efficient in presenting Bible subjects in an interesting and educational manner.

Music lovers are delighted to have a second opportunity of hearing Mme. June Reed in concert, and are looking forward to Friday evening with the happiest anticipation.

This celebrated violinist will be assisted by several of the state's best musicians. They will be Mrs. Ambrose Middleton, dramatic mezzo soprano, instructor in the University of Oregon Musical Institute, who is a pupil of the late Otto Engwerson, of Columbus, Ohio.

She has a beautiful voice, full of color and sentiment, and also possesses a bright and winning personality.

Mme. Reed has appeared with Ellen Beach Yaw, Maude Powell, David Bishop, Mrs. Schumann-Heinke, Ruth St. Dennis and other world-renowned artists and has received the highest praise of both critics and music lovers wherever she has appeared.

The Evening Times of Olean, New York, has the following to say of her recital with Ellen Beach Yaw, held there last year: "The program opened with Sonata in C minor, by Grieg, for violin and piano. In the exquisite tones of the Romance (second movement), also in the Appassionato, Miss Reed's depth of feeling was shown in the delicate and pure tones that seemed to pour from her violin. The Proclaudium and Allegro, Paganini, arg. by Kreisler, two shorter numbers at end of program and in several encores, June Reed showed in the difficult, swiftly moving, as well as the delicate passages, that combination of technique and feeling that established her claim to the ranks of the leading violinists."

Members of P. E. O. chapter met with Mrs. B. Bowers Monday night, and were entertained with a study and social hour. Miss Laura Grant will be the club's next hostess, Monday, October 19.

This club, which was organized three years ago, has both an educational and charitable object. Studying "Japan" this winter, the members will also contribute materially to the state's educational fund.

Resident members are: Mrs. B. Bowers, Mrs. J. E. Miles, Mrs. F. W. Selton, Mrs. Mattie Grant, Mrs. Laura Grant, Mrs. H. E. Bainger, Mrs. H. S. Posen, Mrs. G. W. Larler, Mrs. A. G. Godfrey, Mrs. L. A. Roy, Miss Marie Bolinger, Mrs. Mary Lane, Miss Regina Lane, Miss Anna Welch, non-resident members, Miss Ella Welch, Miss Ida Colby, Mrs. Margaret Miles Zinkhorn.

The Orley Athey family, who have been residing on South Cottage street, are moving to Portland. Mr. Athey has been in the state printing department and has gone to Portland, where he will be with the Oregon Journal.

Miss Edna Athey, a junior member of the Salem high school, left this morning to join her father in Portland. Mrs. Athey and Mr. Athey's mother, Mrs. E. P. Athey, will join the family in Portland tomorrow. They will reside at 2914 34th street S. E., near a relative, Mrs. E. L. Coover, who is remembered as a summer guest in Salem.

A farewell surprise planned for the pleasure of Floyd Davis, who leaves shortly for Minneapolis to make his home as given last night at the home of his grandfather, Knox Frennall, of Highland.

About thirty friends called. The hosts were passed informally with music and games. The affair was planned by Miss Iola Smith and Miss Beulah Frennall, who asked Miss Lucille Tucker and Miss Devn Mooreman to assist them.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ward Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pruitt, Miss Bessie Shinn, Miss Lucy Carter, Miss Ethel Roberts, Miss Mabel Haight, Miss Devn Mooreman, Miss Hazel and Miss Lucille Tucker, Miss Estelle Wilson, Miss Florence and Miss Winifred Fraser, Miss Ghilys Scott, Miss Vera McMillan, Miss Anna Gilson, Miss Laura Conner, Messrs. Arch Presnall, Claude Smith, Fred Runcorn, Hazard Bullock at Portland, Wilbur McEachern, Allen White and Fred Cline.

Mr. Davis is a third year student at Salem high school, where he has been a popular student.

The first meeting of this season of the Chautauque Reading Circle will be held tomorrow afternoon in the lecture room of the public library at 2:30 o'clock. The program will include the first two chapters of "Through England With Tenyson," a reading on "Lincolnshire Abbey," by Mrs. Carric Chappell; biographical sketch, Mrs. F. Von Esch; reading from Tenyson, by Mrs. F. T. Porter. A review of the lesson will be made by Mrs. Robert Davidson, Mrs. Porter presiding as critic.

Mrs. Clifford Elgin entertained the members of the South Circle of the First Christian church yesterday afternoon.

BOMBARDED CITY IN PURE WANTONNESS

San Francisco, Oct. 7.—That the German cruisers Ozeiseanu and Scharnhorst, which bombarded the port of Paopae, Tahiti, inflicted a loss of more than $1,000,000 on the business district of the city was the word brought here by officers of the steamship Moana, which arrived in port today.

According to the Moana officers, the port of Paopae is a small town, the port of the German warships, but despite this the cruisers sailed into the harbor and began their bombardment. The Moana also brought confirmation of the sinking by the cruisers of the French gunboat Zee in the waters off Paopae.

The destruction by the Germans of a French prize ship, the Walkana, also was described by the officers.

Poland was the first of the European countries to offer hospitality to the Jews and to grant them personal security and religious freedom, while in other countries they were subject to cruel persecutions. Initial privileges were granted to them by Boleslaus the Great in 1264. These were greatly expanded by King Casimir the Great in 1388. In the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries kings Sigismund August and Stefan Batory assured the safety of the Jews by additional provisions. The latter even imposed a severe penalty for suspecting the Jews of the use of Christian blood in making matzo.

Poland always extended complete religious toleration to all sects and denominations. It was never seen of such religious wars as tore the rest of Europe in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. The Polish kings were always strenuously opposed to the persecution of any Protestant denominations. Lutherans from Germany, Calvinists from France and Switzerland took refuge in Poland from persecutions, built their own churches and worshipped God without molestation in their own manner. St. Hieronimus's Night and the executions by order of Henry VIII, were features of that period in other countries of Europe.

WITNESS AFTER WITNESS IN SALEM

Such Evidence Our Readers Cannot Dispute.

As we take up the Journal we are struck by the hearty, unmistakable way in which witness after witness speaks out as Mr. Hill does here. If these people were strangers living miles away, we might take little notice of them. But they are not. They are our neighbors, living among us. Their word is too easily proved to admit of any doubt. They speak out in the hope that their experience may be a guide to others.

C. W. Hill, wagon maker, 1939 N. Front street, Salem, says: "I had more or less backache and my kidneys were disordered. Dean's Kidney Pills have always relieved me in a short time. I know of several other people who have taken Dean's Kidney Pills with good results. You may continue publishing the statement I gave before recommending them."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Dean's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hill had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

HAD CLOSE CALL WHEN WATER MAIN BROKE

Portland, Ore., Oct. 6.—Five employees of the city sewer department narrowly escaped death this morning when a slide of earth under the pavement at Fifth and Morrison streets broke a water main and flooded excavations the men were making. The sewer gang was working adjacent to the excavation for the Meier & Frank skyscraper, a concrete wall at the south side of which was damaged.

RELIGIOUS TOLERATION

(From Free Poland.) Poland was the first of the European countries to offer hospitality to the Jews and to grant them personal security and religious freedom, while in other countries they were subject to cruel persecutions. Initial privileges were granted to them by Boleslaus the Great in 1264. These were greatly expanded by King Casimir the Great in 1388. SOME BALL GAME

Boston, Oct. 7.—Thirty new telegraph wires for the use of newspaper men were installed in Fenway Park today for the world's series. The "Royal Rooters", a Boston organization of baseball fans, today bought 300 reserve seats for the opening game here. Mayor Curley insists that former Mayor Fitzgerald lead the rooters' organization.

FOOTBALL SEASON WILL OPEN FRIDAY

Football schedules and new rules governing the games in the grade schools have been made. H. O. Clancy, the athletic director of the high school, has been active in organizing good teams, and Principals Durham, Miller and Gannett are rounding up the players, preparatory to new games.

The first game will be played Friday, October 9, by the Park and Richmond schools. Saturday, October 10, the game will be Highland vs. Garfield, and Friday, October 16, East school will play Garfield. As a final game, the winners of the first two games will play. A committee has decided that there would be too many games to play if a straight schedule were made. A system of eliminating the losing teams will be followed, making the race for the pennant a fair one.

The games are to be played on the high school grounds, Friday afternoons at 3:45 o'clock, and Saturday mornings at 10 o'clock. The games will be played in ten-minute quarters. Coach Clancy will officiate whenever possible and will appoint high school players as his assistants. So far, all schools will compete except Grant and Englewood, which are not included because material was not available for a team.

Football aspirants who have made and "hope to make the team" are governed by the following rules: 1. Every player must be a regular attendant of the school on whose team he is playing.

2. Must do passing work in principal studies.

3. Department must show a grade of two or better.

4. Principals of schools playing should be present.

5. Football rules of 1914 govern games.

6. Every player must conduct himself like a true sportsman. No striking, knocking, kicking or rough talk or playing allowed. Penalties—Suspension from game. Rule XXIII, sections 1, 2 and 7.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if You Feel Backache or Bladder Troubles You—Salt Is Fine for Kidneys.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nausea, all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will not fail. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

AN 8 HOUR LAW TEST

Stockton, Cal., Oct. 7.—The first test of public sentiment regarding the 8 hour law was seen here today when the count was completed of yesterday's city election returns. An initiative 8 hour clause was voted on and defeated by 215 votes out of a total of about 15,000 cast.

RUSH FOR TICKETS TO VISIT BALL GAME Philadelphia, Oct. 7.—Long distance telephone orders for seats were received from Cleveland, Chicago, Washington, Pittsburg, Baltimore and Nashville. George M. Urban and Charles Dillingham sent in orders by telephone, each agreeing to pay $210 for 21 seats. At noon all tickets placed on sale in the hotels had been sold. Reuben Ben-thyzen, a New York broker, made his headquarters in the postoffice corridor, opposite the department store where the tickets were placed on sale this morning. "I'm going to clean up big on this series," he said. "There is a greater demand for tickets than ever before. Regular $10 seats in the front of the grandstand are selling at $15 now and will go to $20." Benthyzen declared he sold one $25 seat for $50. Daddy's Bedtime Story— At Little White Girl. Japanese Marvel Story. Then She Began to Cry. I AM going to tell you the story of Dolly Vincent's adventure in Japan to night," said daddy. "Mr. Vincent was telling me a most amusing story this afternoon. "Oh, goodly!" cried Evelyn. "I've wanted awfully to see her ever since she came back. "You see, Dolly's daddy works for some folks who import Japanese things, and instead of remaining in the big city of Tokyo, where white people are not a novelty, Mr. Vincent was obliged to go into a small town a long way from Tokyo. "Dolly feasted to go, too, so she was taken along. She was very much pleased with all the odd sights, but it never occurred to Dolly nor her daddy either that while she was seeing so many queer things she herself was a strange sight for the Japanese folk of this little interior town. "That is, they didn't know at first that she was attracting a good deal of attention. But after a time Mr. Vincent noticed that, while the natives paid no attention to him, whenever Dolly was with him they would be surrounded by a crowd of curious women, children and even grownup men. "The women and children would pull Dolly's long golden curls, and they must have wished to see if her eyes were real, I suppose, since they tried to poke their fingers in her eyes. "But one day Dolly strayed away from the house alone and went along the street looking at all the queer things and having a beautiful time at first. Pretty soon a great crowd surrounded her, and when Dolly tried to get away she couldn't. "Then she began to cry. Great tears rolled down her cheeks, and, while the Japanese are usually a solemn people, her tears seemed to afford them great joy. They sat around her and laughed and laughed, and the harder she would cry the harder they would laugh. "Why, kiddies, that whole town had gathered around that one little girl! The shops were left unattended, the women left their domestic duties, and every one was gathered there to see one poor little white girl cry. "Pretty soon Daddy Vincent came along and stopped at the outer edge of the crowd. He said he wondered why all the shops were deserted and the great crowd gathered. "He peered over the heads of the little brown people, and there in the center sat Dolly crying, her pink and white face all smudged, her white dress all stained with mud and her curls all a-way. "You better believe that Daddy Vincent found his way through that crowd pretty quickly and had Dolly in his arms in no time at all."
