Learn, superintendent of the Orphans' home, at Wood Island, Alaska, will speak Sunday evening at the First Baptist church when he will tell of his work and the work that has been done in Alaska through the efforts of the Woman's American Baptist Home Missionary society, whose headquarters are in Chicago. Regular services will be held in the church Sunday morning.

What to do with the feeble minded and their treatment, is one of the coming social problems that is receiving the attention of educators as well as practical men of the country. All agree that the feeble minded proposition is a big one and of growing importance. This subject will be discussed this evening by Dr. J. N. Smith, superintendent of the state school for the feeble minded at the public library, the lecture to begin at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Rollin K. Page will introduce the speaker.

Henry B. Thielsen remembers a snowstorm at The Dalles in the winter of 1884 and 1885 that makes the present flurry appear as a summer breeze. "Snow was nine feet deep on the level at The Dalles that winter," said Mr. Thielsen, "and we found it easier to tunnel through the snow across the streets, rather than to attempt to clear a path. That was the year trains were three weeks in getting from The Dalles to Portland. As high as $5 a pound was paid those who would carry food to the passengers on the stalled trains."

Postoffice Inspectors Whitney and Newton, of Portland, were in the city yesterday, making the regular inspection of the postal saving and money order department of the postoffice. These departments are under the supervision of Miss Estella Kaylor. The work of the inspectors was soon finished, as they found the records in shape and everything satisfactory. The savings deposit department in care of Miss Kaylor now has a deposit of more than $16,000.

George F. Rodgers was not billed as one of the star actors of the home talk to Portland "The Evening Hoaxer," at the Grand last evening, nor did his name appear in big print in any of the announcements of the show. Nevertheless, Mr. Rodgers was the first to appear before the curtain, and the first to elicit prolonged applause when he announced that he would not be personally responsible for what was to follow. However, the risk was not great, as the audience was apparently delighted not only with the foreword of Mr. Rodgers but with the work of Salem's embryo actors.

The tax roll will be turned over to Sheriff Esch by County Assessor Ben F. West tomorrow evening and the collection of taxes will begin Monday. The sheriff's force will occupy the room used for tax collection purposes last year on the first floor of the court house. Sheriff Esch asks that no one call up over the phone to find out the amount of their taxes on account of the confusion that generally results through the misunderstanding of amounts. A card sent in by mail will secure a statement.

The series of games to determine who is who in the checker world begun by the city limits of Salem, will begin next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the rooms of the Salem Commercial club. The contest will include all the real champions in the city, and is between the picked players of the Salem Chess and Checker club and the old stand-bys of the Commercial club. Five boards of chess and six boards of checkers will be played. The second game of the series will be played later at the club rooms of the Chess and Checker club. Those who would like to see real players are invited to look on, as the games are open to the public.

Umstilla stockmen who have to buy extra feed at higher prices for an exceptionally long feeding season are not complaining, because the heavy snows will make better ranges in the spring. That's optimism.

DIED

ROBERTSON—At the family residence, 909 Center street, Thursday, February 3, 1916, Mrs. Henrietta Robertson, wife of John P. Robertson, aged 75 years and 16 days.

The funeral services will be held at the residence at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, February 5, conducted by Rev. Carl Elliott, in the absence of Rev. Harry Marshall, pastor of the Baptist church, of which Mrs. Robertson was a member. Interment in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Henrietta Harl was born in Rockford, Illinois, January 18, 1841, and was married to John P. Robertson in Centerville, Iowa, August 30, 1866. They moved to Kansas in 1869, and in 1876 came to Oregon, arriving in Salem in June of that year, and residing here ever since.

Three children survive her: Mrs. Mildred R. Brooks, Miss Mahel Robertson and Dr. Charles H. Robertson; and also three grandchildren, all of Salem.

In the passing of Mrs. Robertson the family loses a tender and loving wife and mother and the community a woman whose life work and example left a marked impress upon it.

Exceptionally bright, broad minded and generous, with unbounded faith in the goodness of mankind and a charity for the weakness of others that was almost divine, her feet were swift in the paths of mercy, her heart quickly responsive in sympathy for the sorrowing and her hands ever open to aid the needy and distressed.

In her almost forty-five years residence here she had surrounded herself with loyal and loving friends who will learn with sincere sorrow that she has passed over to the other side.

A "Mother in Israel" has departed and with her to the other side she carries a long record of generous deeds, of tender sympathies, of kindly acts and generous aid and help that will long be remembered here, and there be placed by the side of that angel left when in Ben Adhem's vision "He wrote and vanished." Her good deeds here, will like the prayers gathered by Sordalphon:

"Change into flowers in his hands; Into garlands of purple and red; And beneath the great arch of the portal, Through the streets of the city immortal Is wafted the fragrance they shed."

BORN

BURNS—To Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Burns, Twenty-second and Ferry streets, Thursday, January 3, 1916, a son.

Extensive Produce Dealer Pays Visit to Salem

James R. Baker, of Chicago and New York, president of James R. Baker & Co., wholesale dealers in canned salmon, prunes, apricots and dried fruits of all kinds, was in the city yesterday conferring with the Drager Fruit company.

The firm of which Mr. Baker is president handles exclusively Pacific coast products and this was his annual visit to the coast.

"Oregon prunes are getting in better repute," said Mr. Baker, "through the consistent efforts of packers to put up a better grade of product. Growers must get a uniform system of drying, in order that the product sold to the packers will be uniform."

Since the packers are taking more care, the Oregon prunes now compare favorably with the California product. As for the future of the business, Mr. Baker was of the opinion that it was especially bright for prunes, whenever the war in Europe ends, as Germany would become a heavy buyer and absorb the greater part of the Oregon product.

Advices From Germany Cause Decline In Stocks

New York, Feb. 4.—The clearly dominant influence on today's stock market was the positive intimation in Berlin dispatches that Germany will refuse to meet American demands for a disavowal of the Lusitania torpedoing. These messages caused an immediate and abrupt decline of from one to four points in many stocks, and for a time affected equally railroad and industrial issues.

After the first break, the violent downward movement ceased, apparently because brokers were perplexed about the situation. Despite numerous pointed warnings by the president in his western speeches, financial judgment has not expected that Germany would create an actual impasse.

Marion County Republicans to Banquet February 12

The Marion county republican club will hold a banquet February 12 in honor of the anniversary of Lincoln's birthday. The banquet will be held at the Hotel Marion and no set speeches are scheduled for the program. Judge P. H. D'Arcy, Hal Patton and Max Gellhaar comprise the committee in charge of the banquet and program and all seats must be reserved in advance. The plates will cost $1 each.

The speakers' names will not be made public and all talks will be impromptu and limited to five minutes. No imported speakers will be in attendance and the meeting is generally for Marion county republicans to get together in the best interests of their party organization.

Tomorrow evening in the Willamette gymnasium the Winged M quintet from Multnomah Athletic Club will line up against Coach Matthews' Willamette "Bear Cats."

Provide Yourself With Proper Glasses

If you have an indication of eyestrain or eye defect, it is to your interest that you have a thorough and careful examination made, and if "Glasses" is the verdict, put them on cheerfully, realizing that by so doing you are far better equipped to fight life's battles, with the odds in your favor.

By special training in optics and experience, we are qualified to give you competent advice.

DRUG TRAFFICKERS ARE BEING PURSUED

One Member of Organized Gang Is Slain and Four Arrested

San Francisco, Feb. 4.—Drug traffickers violating the Harrison law must be driven from the Pacific coast, federal officials decreed today after an man had been slain and four others arrested in the course of a widespread drug probe.

The dead man was Tom Collins, alias J. B. Gray, alias John B. Conway, a man with a police record. He was slain last night by a bullet fired by Deputy J. B. Chamblin, Jr., in a dramatic raid on the Seaboard hotel here.

At the same time, four men, believed to have been accomplices with Collins are held at Santa Cruz and San Jose. The men under arrest are: Mike Nihil, San Jose pool room proprietor, said to be a parolee San Francisco convict, arrested at San Jose; George Joulin, alleged drug ring member, arrested at San Jose; Ed Coons, taxicab driver, arrested at San Jose.

W. Walton, alleged "dope" distributor, arrested at Santa Cruz; Jerry Desmond, alias W. Walton, arrested as a drug ring head, confessed today that he and Tom Collins, slain in a federal raid at San Francisco, were leaders in dope trading in California. He admitted, the police say, that he and Collins disposed of three big lots of morphine and cocaine in the last three months.
