Winners In Drawings Probably Losers

Charles W. Elgin and Fred W. Scheurer were the successful candidates in the draw at the office of the secretary of state yesterday. This draw was made necessary because a number of candidates tied for the progressive nomination for state representative from this district.

Besides the tie of Elgin and Scheurer, Seymour Jones, Alice M. Page, Ivan G. Martin and Sam H. Brown tied for a place on the third party ticket.

There was but one democratic tie and that occurred in the Sixteenth district. On the draw H. A. Dadman won for representative over Earl Latourette.

In all, there were 30 candidates tied for places on the progressive ticket. The state senate and house of representatives was represented and in two counties the district attorneyship was involved.

Guzman Garrison Gets More Troops

By Webb C. Miller, (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Columbus, N. M., June 30.—The situation around Guzman, Mexico, where large Carranzista forces are reported to have been concentrated close to the American lines was still partly unexplained here today. Border patrols learned that the Guzman garrison had been increased but not sufficiently to constitute a threat to General Pershing's communications. The Carranzistas may be in large force in the hills behind Guzman although the American scouts were unable to locate such troops.

All but three of the horses stolen from the Double Adobe ranch when Mexican raiders recently killed its American owner and his wife have been recovered. Military patrols have not abandoned their efforts to pick up the bandits trail. A posse from Hachita is also reported to be out yet.

SAYS VILLA IS WITH CARRANZA'S FORCES

Mexican Resident Who Knows Him Well Is Certain of This

Eagle Pass, Texas, June 30.—Juan Rodriguez, a Mexican resident of Texas, arriving here this afternoon from Torreon said that Pancho Villa has joined the Carranza forces at Mont Clova with several hundred men. Rodriguez claims to know Villa well and says he cannot be mistaken regarding his identity.

Eight thousand Carranza troops are distributed between Piedras Negras and Montelena, according to Rodriguez. A mass meeting will be held here Monday night to organize a branch of the American Red Cross and establish a hospital.

A large number of American railroad men are concentrated here, ready to take over the Mexican railway leading south from Piedras Negras in case war is declared.

Two additional batteries of field artillery have arrived from Laredo, completing the regiment here. National guardsmen from the north are expected to arrive Sunday night.

The regiment is traveling in three sections over the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad. It is expected to arrive in San Antonio about 6 p. m.

Other militia units passed through here last night, but owing to the strict censorship established by the railroads their identity could not be determined.

CONFERENCE BUSY AT OPENING SESSION

Interesting Feature Was the Pageant, the Story of the Colonies

The conference of the W. H. M. S. opened its session yesterday afternoon with devotional services by Mrs. H. J. Talbott, Dr. R. N. Avison then addressed the meeting.

Following this the department reports were resumed. The corresponding secretary, Mrs. Geo. H. Alden, gave a very able report and appeal for service. With the "every member get a memo" contest and the goal "every Methodist woman a member" each member present was inspired to greater service.

Mrs. K. P. Staples of Portland, gave her report as treasurer. This was entirely statistical, showing a gain over last year in spite of the hard times. Miss Ida DeWitt reported the work of the Portland Industrial Center. This home is surrounded by 20 nationalities giving it a wonderful opportunity.

Forty-four boys and 62 girls were given the advantages of the home this year. A kindergarten of 40, a girls club of 50, a boys club of 15 and 40 in the gymnasium, a mothers club of 30 with 100 in the Sunday school show some of the work. Six hundred cuts by the workers were reported although entire work is handicapped by lack of workers.

Mrs. Fannie McPeen very splendidly reported the work of the Old People's Home of this city. Thirteen have made their home here this year. Two deaths have occurred and two new members added, one received just yesterday. She reports total receipts in money for the past year $2,392.80, expenditure $3,309.

Total assets of the home $18,546.76. Loans upon which $3,100, wills and property which have as yet not been received $16,200.

Chas. Dillard, of Salem, gave two readings which were thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. A. A. Underhill read a paper on "Our Literature," calling attention to the splendid publications put out by the society, helps for every line of work.

Mrs. M. B. Paroungian presented "The National Work." She was assisted by Miss Casabero, who gave the deaconess work and Mrs. W. E. Kirk, the Indian and negro work. After a piano solo by Miss Lena Dutton the session adjourned. The guests were taken for an automobile ride, many visiting the Old People's Home.

The evening session was opened by a beautiful solo by Miss Barton. Mrs. James Montclair Brown gave a reading in her own charming manner.

This was followed by the pageant, a rare treat, showing care and work by the taking the parts. The story of the settlement of the colonies, the reasons for each and the underlying principles of each were given by young women in costume by both readings and song.

Miss Ledbetter represented the native Indian telling of their struggle with the white man. How they were driven back from their homes and settlements and when first approached by the missionaries told them to make white man good first. As the home-building white man and the punting red man can not get together the Indian disappeared.

Mrs. Emily Phillips represented Virginia, telling how that colony was founded by religious enthusiasts who dedicated a church the first day after landing. Their first teachers were their ministers. The black people were soon brought over and proved a shadow.

Mrs. Frazier gave the story of North Carolina, telling how a band of Presbyterians was followed by a band of Quakers, but the black man came as a shadow there also.

GUERRILLA WARFARE RAGING ON DOCKS

Fool Employers Import Mexican Strike Breakers from the South

San Francisco, June 30.—While several peace conferences were held today in an effort to end the longshoremen's strike, guards armed with sawed off shotguns patrolled the waterfront. The liner Peru from South America brought many Mexican strikebreakers.

Agents of the Waterfront Employers' Union came from Seattle and other coast ports to meet with Federal Mediator White and the executive board of the longshoremen's union. Representatives of the strikers and the lumber dealers met with State Labor Commissioner McLoughlin. Employers also met the Bay and River Steamboatmen's Union representatives.

A mild form of "guerrilla warfare" is raging along the waterfront today as a result of the longshoremen's strike. Ten mounted police and 36 patrolmen have been added to the regular detail there to keep order.

After having discussed the proposition of a sympathetic strike, members of the teamsters' union referred it to their executive committee with power to act. The executive board of the Pacific coast division, International Longshoremen's association, arrived here today for a meeting at which peace terms will again be discussed.

Rev. R. F. Tischer and Family Leave Tomorrow

The Rev. and Mrs. R. F. Tischer and daughter, Miss Mary Tischer, will leave tomorrow morning on the Southern Pacific for Portland, enroute for their new home in Detroit, Mich. They will travel over the Southern Pacific to San Francisco, the Western Pacific to Ogden and to Denver over the Denver and Rio Grande.

A farewell was tendered them last evening by the members and friends of the Unitarian church at the home of J. W. Cox. Resolutions were passed, regretting that Mr. Tischer had thought best to present his resignation and also at the departure of the family from Salem.

The board of trustees of the Unitarian church is in correspondence with Charles A. Murdock, secretary of the Pacific Coast Conference who will arrange for visits of candidates during July. Next Sunday the pulpit will be occupied by the Rev. James D. Corby of Portland.

The Sunrise Grange will offer a special selection of vocal music, to be followed by an address on "Rural Credits."

The Cherrin band is also on the program for several selections, and Tom Ordeman has consented to sing. Following the program, a basket dinner will be served in the square.

MAY PURCHASE DEVICE

Washington, June 30.—The senate this afternoon voted to purchase for $750,000 the device of John Hays Hammond, Jr., for controlling the course of torpedoes by radio.

Purchase of the device is made conditional on Hammond being able to show to a commission of seven officers of the army and navy its unqualified efficiency. Hammond claims trials have shown he is able to direct from shore the course of either a submarine boat or a torpedo.

Woodburn

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Woodburn, Ore., June 30.—Mrs. Geo. live five girls in a room, but wonder if there is room for them.

Mrs. Ogg presented the life of the immigrant laborer, as they come seeking better conditions.

The Mormon wife was represented by Miss Dillon. She told of the menace of the Mormon religion to the Christian church.

Mrs. Sun told of the Chinese girls, how she was glad to be brought here and plead for help for other Chinese girls.

Miss Hickerson, as America, makes an appeal for these people not as foreigners, but as ourselves.

Mrs. M. B. Paroungian, as the Christian church, tells of the help offered through our home mission schools, centers, neighborhood houses and many other lines of work. Call them not problems but opportunities for Christ.

The evening closed with "America." The program today although crowded, is very interesting. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Emma C. Cornelius, Salem, president; Mrs. G. H. Allen, Salem, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. A. Niblin, Portland, recording secretary; Mrs. K. P. Staples, Portland, treasurer.
