HUGHES MAKES TALK TO SEVEN THOUSAND

Speech at Lafayette, Indiana, Brings Crowd—Candidate Pets Babies

By Perry Arnold

(United Press staff correspondent)

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 21.—Seven thousand packed the streets in front of the Lincoln club here today to hear Republican nominee Hughes' broad doctrine of protection in tariff and labor. It was the second Indiana crowd which the governor met today. At 8:30 he arose to speak to several hundred at Monon, who gave him a vociferous welcome to the Hoosier state.

The nominee's voice was a trifle hoarse today after the exertions of yesterday's campaigning in Wisconsin and he prefaced his speech here with the explanation that he would have to save his voice all he could.

"We want to prepare for our own peace and security," he said at Monon. "We want a busy people—a contented and American standards of living. We want to do so by our governmental power in adjusting our tariff that we can keep our factories running full time. We want a busy people—a contented people. We want a basis for social justice—we want to recognize the demands of labor that be just and reasonable. We want proper conditions of work and reasonable wages and reasonable hours, but we cannot have any of these desirable ends unless we have stability and prosperity in this country. You cannot have stability and prosperity unless American products are protected against competition with products which are made by men who are paid much less wages than the wages that are paid here. That is common sense. And in order that we should properly secure our prosperity, we must attend to the protection of American workmen."

Here at Lafayette, the crowd was particularly enthusiastic in cheering Hughes' criticism of the Adamson eight hour law and again when he demanded equal recognition of American rights as to lives, property and commerce from all nations. His speech followed the same general lines of previous addresses. After his speech here the candidate shook hands at an improvised reception, standing at one door while Mrs. Hughes stood and shook hands at the other door.

Hughes was in fine fettle, patting babies on the cheek and otherwise making himself "solid."

112 ENROLLED

The second day of registration at the university showed 112 students enrolled for work in the respective departments of collegiate work. As there is an additional fee of one dollar taxed all those who do not register by this evening, a rush to enroll has been literally swamping the office force in Eaton hall. Many students will arrive later in the week, consequently the total registration for the semester will not be known for some time.

ROUGH NECKS AND PINK TEA

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Kid Howard will pour tea at his re-decorated gymnasium here Saturday afternoon. Engraved invitations have been sent to club women and the Chicago fight promoter will be master of ceremonies at a real pink tea affair. Besides music and flowers, exhibition bouts will be put on for the women. Among those who appear in silken tights are Ever Hammer, Andre Anderson, Joe Rivers, Knockout Brown and Tommy Murphy.

DRYS BUSHY IN CALIFORNIA

San Francisco, Sept. 20.—The "dry forces" on both sides of the bay plan big rallies tonight, when J. Frank Hanly and Dr. Ira Landreth, prohibition candidates for president and vice president address meetings here and in Oakland. They will leave at midnight for southern California after a five hour visit.

By H. C. Hamilton.

(United Press staff correspondent.)
New York, Sept. 21.—Nerve and fight spirit has carried the Boston Red Sox, champions of the baseball world, out of danger for the moment in the American league race. By their gritty feat of winning two games in a row from the Tigers and eliminating the Detroit menace from a chance for first place honors for today the champions are now two full games ahead of the field and going strong.

In the meantime the National league's merry tri-colored whirl for the pennant grew tighter, through the feat of Al Demaree in winning two contests in a single day for the Phillies. The latter club now is in a fair way to challenge the claim of the Dodgers to ownership of this year's Tenor pennant.

The Red Sox performed quite a little stunt when they pulled three blocks from under the Tigers in the second game of their series yesterday. The skids were so well greased that the Tigers didn't get their slide until they had landed in third place and where they now are planted half a game behind the White Sox, who were mauling the Athletics while the Red Sox were smothering the Tigers' defense.

If the Red Sox are now unseated from the pinning position the club that upsets them is entitled to all the honors it can get. The champions pounded out a victory over the Tigers yesterday after they had got away to a poor start. Three runs were staring them in the face before they fairly realized what was happening, but they had the nerve and they won.

The Tigers may win the game still left it doesn't matter a great deal. The Red Sox still will be in first place and will open in Cleveland in that position. After the Cleveland series they will go home and then Jack Barry will be back in the line-up. The chance seems to have slipped out of Detroit's grasp. Only a remarkable recovery by the Tigers and a series of bumps for the Red Sox can prevent Bill Carrigan again leading his charges to a world's series.

The Dodgers find themselves challenged by the pestering Phillies again today. The Phillies are now only a game and a half in the rear. The Braves slipped when they were stepped on with humiliating force by the last place Reds.

Today the Cardinals and Dodgers again will meet, and the Phillies are carded for another session with the Pirates. The Braves must meet those presuming Reds again and win to keep within sailing distance.

Rain May End It.
Detroit, Mich., Sept. 21.—The Tigers may lose their one last chance to halt the Red Sox' sweep toward the American league flag. Overcast skies and intermittent showers gave promise early today of rain that may force cancellation of the final game of the series.

Failure to play today or a defeat would be almost fatal to that slim chance that Detroit still has for the buntings.

If the elements don't interfere with the pasting, Covalesskie will be Jennings' choice for slab duty in the final game of the series. Pitted against the Pole probably will be "Babe" Ruth, of the Carigran staff.

Despite Detroit's reverses at the hands of the champions requests for world's series reservations continued to pour in on the Tiger management today from the "bugs". The club has not accepted any money, however, and apparently no preparations are under way for entertainment of the big series here.

Jess Willard Now Weighs 270 Pounds
Portland, Ore., Sept. 21.—A corpulent individual arrived here with the circus today. It was Jess Willard, world's heavyweight champion.

Jess now bends the beam at 270 pounds. He does a rowing set. During his sojourn in Portland the title holder will dine with business men at the Benson hotel and go for a motoring over Columbia river highway.

Frank Gotch, billed as also being with the show, has fallen by the wayside with a broken leg. A wrestler called Russane appears instead of Gotch.

Willamette Eleven Gets Together Slowly

General gloom has superseded the spirit of optimism which marked the football outlook at old Willamette before the regular call to practice was given by Coach R. L. Mathews last Monday afternoon. Only eight men turned out the first night, and even now the squad numbers less than 24.

The first blow was the delayed mustering out orders of the national guard which has prevented Gralapp, Grosvenor, Fletcher, E. Proctor and D. Proctor from participating in regular practices. Added to this is the failure of several star players from high school elevens to put in an appearance. "Peanie" Archibald left for Corvallis yesterday morning to take up highway engineering at O. A. C. which will leave a gap at center that it will be next to impossible to fill.

Light practices in signals, punting and falling on the ball have characterized the workout so far this week, but heavier work is expected today. Entirely new equipment has been provided which will tend to eliminate the knock-out blows administered by sweated dye position on the players' bodies last year.

Owing to the general upset of plans, little has been done toward the completion of the schedule of games. Coach Mathews is devoting his time in preparing for the Oregon game at Eugene on October 7. The Multnomah club of Portland will be met at Portland November 25. Games may possibly be arranged with Albany college, Gonzaga university and the college of Puget Sound.

Those men who have already turned out in a suit are Flogel (captain), Teall Grosvenor, Taylor, Dimick, Bynon, Holt, Doughty, A. Spiess, H. Spiess, Sparks, Peterson, Tasto, Putnam, Cotton, Lockhart, Wright, Jackson, Rexford, Sherwood, Proctor and Bettingfield.

Vernon	90	72	.552
Salt Lake	81	79	.506
San Francisco	84	84	.500

Oakland	61	110	.357

Yesterday's Results.
At Oakland, 3; Portland, 2.
At Salt Lake, 3; Vernon, 10.
At Los Angeles, 3; San Francisco, 1.

Chuck Ward and Bill Rodgers of Portland, got paralysis of the cranium in the seventh and when nobody covered second Murphy stole from first to third without hesitating. Lane hit and scored him.

Portland tried a rally in the ninth when Williams homed and Rodgers doubled but Prough held the fort and the game ended 3 to 2, Oaks on the fat end.

Ellis and Walter of the Angels, worked a nifty double steal in the first, Ellis coming home.

Fittory walked five Tigers and Vernon beat Salt Lake, 10 to 3.

Yesterday's big league hero was Al Demaree. The Phillie hurler went to the mound twice for the champions and each time he turned back the Pirates.

Four hits by Hal Chase, who is leading the National league batters, contributed largely to the crushing defeat the Reds administered to the Braves.

The Giants made it 15 straight when they downed the Cubs.

Eddie Collins had four safe bingles in four trips to the plate.

Tris Speaker again gained on Cobb in the race for batting honors. The Texan had one hit out of three attempts and Cobb got one out of four.

Ordered the Leaders to Have Tickets Printed

New York, Sept. 21.—The National baseball commission which controls world's series games, has mailed to each of the six clubs who are figuring in the races of the two big leagues, a letter directing them to have tickets printed and to make all preliminary arrangements for the games it was learned at the office of the Brooklyn club, one of the contenders today. The races will be decided too late to make it possible for tickets to be printed in time for the big series, if the officials should wait until the winners are definitely known.

The commission also has fixed the scale of prices for each park which stands a chance of being the scene of part of the games.

Charles H. Ebbetts, president of the Brooklyn club, has ordered tickets printed and announced today that they will be placed on sale early next week. Ebbetts' field will seat about 35,000 persons when the circus seats are erected.

ORDERED TO FILE PAPERS

Judge Kelly issued an order today in the case of L. Robertson vs. Lee Jeans, defendant, and C. F. Swander, garnishee, that the justice of the peace for the precinct of Turner correct and complete the transcript on appeal thereon by attaching thereto all of the original papers with said justice relating to this cause or this appeal. It is set forth that none of the original papers were filed with the justice, many attached to or made a part of the transcript.
