W. S. Fitts, who keeps a fish market on Court street, reported to the police this morning that the wire screen in front of his store had been broken last night and that 25 pennies had been stolen from the till in his cash register. Nothing else was molested. Officer Rowe investigated. Mr. Fitts says that he leaves the register open every night so that should any one decide to break in they should not damage anything by forcing it open. He says he leaves a few pennies in and that this is the second break in he has had in 15 years.

In spite of the frost, corn maturing late is in good shape and all that is needed by which it may be used for exhibition purposes this fall is kiln drying or hanging in a dry place, to take the moisture out of the cob. There will be plenty of corn for the various corn shows in Marion and Polk counties, according to L. J. Chapin, who will have charge of the Marion county corn show to be held in Salem from December 4 to 9. Previous to this show, all the places that held shows last year and several other districts, will put on their shows and the prize winning corn will be shown at the annual Salem exhibit.

TO BUILD TWO STORY BRICK ON COURT

Venerable Shacks to Give Place to Handsome $12,000 Structure

A two story modern brick building will soon be erected on Court street between Liberty and the opera house that will greatly improve the appearance of that part of the city. Major Willis who owns the property on Court street between the Pitts fish market and the alley adjoining the Roberts' grocery has contracted for the erection of a two story brick 54 feet front and 82 1/2 feet deep. The building will be of a buff brick, two stories with a basement. The lower story will have a 17 foot ceiling, the second story of 14 feet and the basement, to extend under the sidewalk, 7 1/2 feet deep. Thirty eight feet of the building adjoining the alley will be occupied as a second store by E. L. Stiff & Son and they will also occupy the entire second story with a width of 54 feet and length of 82 1/2 feet. The west 16 feet of the building will be taken by Walter S. Fitts fish market, including 16 feet of the basement. Mr. Fitts will install everything that is modern for a fish market including all new fixtures. Both Mr. Fitts and Mr. Stiff have taken ten years' lease. The new building will cost about $12,000 and the work of removing the old frame structures on the lots will begin within a few days. And thus one more noxious land mark will give way to the modern spirit of improvement.

Wardrobe trunks at special prices this week. $35 values at $19.50.—C. S. Hamilton, house furnisher.

A meeting of the members of the Hilaee club has been called for Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Commercial club by President Asahel Bush. Besides the annual election of officers, the principal business to come before the members is that of arranging for the building of a country club home at the Finzer golf links. During the past few weeks there has been great interest taken by the golf players of the city and those also who are just learning. At present there is a membership of about 50 and with the interest now taken in golf, it has been thought advisable to take up plans for the erection of a country club house.

Fifty years ago from last Sunday, the Rev. W. Osborne living near Independence, dedicated the La Creole Baptist church at Crowley station in Polk county. Fifty years after that dedication, Mr. Osborne again appeared in the church, preaching the sermon for the fiftieth anniversary. Two who heard this sermon on October 22, 1866, were present last Sunday to hear Mr. Osborne tell of the changes of the past 50 years. These two were Mr. Hunsaker, of McMinnville, and Mrs. S. K. Crowley, and it just happened that they also crossed the plains together more than half a century ago. The church at La Creole is the second Baptist church in Oregon. After the basket-dinner Sunday, a collection was taken and $50 presented to Mr. Osborne. He now lives on a farm near Independence and continues to preach at the La Creole church.

At 1:37 o'clock this morning the fire department was called to the home of A. R. Jacob, at 1279 Market street, but before the machines arrived the house was ablaze and the flames pouring from the windows and roof. The house which belonged to Mrs. Elizabeth McCoy, was a complete loss. Mr. Jacobs lost all household goods and considerable merchandise stored in the house. There was $500 insurance on the goods and $1,000 on the merchandise.

DENVER GIVES TEDDY A WARM RECEPTION

By J. P. Yoder. (United Press Staff Correspondent.) Denver, Colo., Oct. 24.—This was booked as the busiest of all the busy days Colonel Roosevelt had since he started on his 6300 mile jaunt through the southwest and middle west in the interests of Republican Candidate Hughes.

He arrived here shortly after 10 o'clock, got a "strenuous" welcome, was paraded through the main streets to the Brown Palace hotel, attended a luncheon, had an automobile tour among the nearby hills and spoke at a women's meeting this afternoon at the Auditorium.

This evening he is to lead another parade; attend a dinner tendered him by the Hughes women's special and address another audience at the Auditorium.

Colonel Roosevelt today for the first time expressed himself regarding the incident at Chicago when a woman's demonstration during the president's visit there was broken up. He took this incident as one of the subjects in his speeches this afternoon. The speech was extemporaneous.

The colonel believes his meeting today with the members of the women's 'Hughes campaigners particularly propitious for defending the women against the "silk stocking" charges made against them.

Roosevelt had an exten speech wrung from him yesterday by the local committee at Las Vegas, N. M., where the population is 60 per cent Mexican.

Colonel Roosevelt surprised the local republican committee here today by declaring he is supporting Judge Ben Lindsey, who is running on the democratic ticket here to succeed himself on the juvenile bench.

"But I might add," said the colonel, "that Ben Lindsey is the only Wilson supporter that I'm for. I want to see him win."
