Mrs. Carle Abrams has visiting her Miss Constance Kanter of Portland, who came to Salem Wednesday to give a series of lectures on the "Modern Methods of Teaching Music."

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Spencer left Thursday for a sojourn in Los Angeles, California.

It will be difficult for anyone to refrain from attending the big fashion show to be featured at the Oregon theatre, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in conjunction with Dress Up Week, the co-operative effort of all Salem merchants. Probably because of its deep local interest one hears a great deal about this show.

An array of the season's latest creations will be exhibited and many fetching matinee, lingerie and intimate articles of apparel so dear to midlady are being held in reserve especially for the matinees Thursday and Friday. Besides professional models, a number of Salem girls and matrons who have the art of wearing clothes up to the highest point will be models.

There will be Miss Priscilla Fleming, Miss Florence Esch, Miss Enelle Jones, Miss Mabel West, Mrs. Ellis Cooley, Miss Charity Burleson, Miss Bernice Powell, Miss Verna Cooder, Miss Florence Billings and others.

The stage abloom with blossoms will be transformed into lovely gardens, and settings appropriate for the things shown. Several people who have originality plus a finely balanced idea of art are working out this scheme, which it is said will surpass anything ever seen in Salem. An orchestra of five pieces will furnish the music for the show.

Mrs. Louis Sheldon has as her guest for a few weeks, her sister, Mrs. David Mook of North Yakima.

Mrs. David Eyre went to Portland Wednesday, accompanying Miss Eleanor Rodgers and her guest, Miss Fay Cord, the charming little soprano of the Cord-Rummel concert company, who was en route to Baker, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Duncan of Portland will arrive tomorrow to attend the wedding of Miss Bertha E. Duncan and Earl W. Baker, which will take place Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Zosel and son, Walter, of Liberty, and Miss Hannah VonWold of Canada, have returned from an enjoyable motor trip to Portland and the Columbia Highway.

The dancing contingent will perhaps be interested to know that Portland's popular dancers, the Harold Grady's, are arranging to have classes in Salem after November the fifteenth.

Salem folks who have seen the Grady's dance are equally as enthusiastic as Portland over their dancing and their classes will undoubtedly be very popular. They expect to have a children's class as well as one for older members of society who are interested in learning the latest ball room dances.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Bates of Lincoln, Polk county, were the guests of friends yesterday.

Students of Miss Margaret Gill, art teacher of the Willamette University, again have an artistic display of water colors and crayon work in the Hamilton furniture store.

GERMAN CHANCELLOR POSTPONES SPEECH

It Was Expected He Would Answer Accusation That Germany Started War

By Carl W. Ackerman.

(United Press staff correspondent)
Berlin, Oct. 27.—Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg unexpectedly departed from Imperial headquarters today, postponing his speech before the reichstag.

The reichstag today continued discussion of the resolution authorizing its chief committee to meet during adjournment and discuss foreign affairs. The government does not object to the measure and it is expected to pass.

Vice-Chancellor Helfferich declared that the government only favors the resolution as a war measure, but parliamentary observers have no doubt that it is the beginning of a wedge to give the people's representatives a real voice in the government's foreign policies.

At a caucus today the socialist members voted 57 to 15, to support the new $3,000,000,000 loan advocated by the government.

Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg was expected to reply in the reichstag today to the statements made by Viscount Grey, British foreign secretary, last Monday, accusing Germany of responsibility for starting the war.

At the same time the chancellor was expected to point to the new German victories in Rumania as emphasizing Germany's power and as offering proof

CARRANZA MAY MAKE PRESIDENTIAL RACE

Great Demonstration In His Behalf Made In Mexican Capital

Mexico City, Oct. 27.—General Carranza is expected to formally announce his candidacy for the presidency, following a great demonstration in his behalf that lasted until an early hour today.

Crowds of the first chief's admirers parade the streets of the capital with banners and lanterns, shouting: "Long live Carranza!" Late in the evening several processions united in a great parade to the palace where spokesmen pledged Carranza their support and loyalty and asked him to accept the candidacy.

"I am not worthy of such high honors," said the first chief, in a brief speech, "but I will give due consideration to your wishes. In the event that I decide to become a candidate and if the popular vote carries me into this high office, I will stand for the people's rights with the same zeal and energy that has always marked my actions as first chief."

General Obregon, minister of war, took occasion at a meeting of the constitutionalist liberal party, to declare, "absurd and untrue" reports of bad feeling between him and General Gonzales.

"We are both human," said Obregon. "We both have aspirations, but we are able to hold our personal passions in subjection to our sense of duty to the triumph of the constitutional cause."

General Gonzales responded by embracing Obregon, while the audience cheered.

Court House News

Alleging that her husband struck matches on the baby carriage and smoked and did other things particularly to annoy and offend her, and that he went to the river at Albany to teach young women how to swim but never invited her to learn to swim, Inez L. Lupton has brought suit in the circuit court for a divorce from Louis A. Lupton. She states they were married in Albany, Linn county, June 29, 1915, and asserts that he has treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner.

She states that when he proposed to attend the San Francisco fair she asked to go along but that he then dropped the matter until one day he said he was going and left in the evening. She says she has been humiliated by his associations with women and girls, and that his philanderings have caused scandal. She seeks a decree of the court severing the ties of matrimony.

A marriage license was issued by the county clerk to George M. Becker, a farmer of Gervais, and Myrtle Grace Connor, a school teacher of Gervais.

Floyd D. Moore, Polk county school supervisor, of Dallas, was in Salem this morning to see County Superintendent Smith.

Sheriff William Esch, who had not had a vacation in two years, has returned from a weeks visit to Southern Oregon. While away he visited Ashland, Roseburg, Medford, Jacksonville, and paid his respects to his sheriff friends and railroad men.

An amended complaint in the action of Roy Pugh to recover from Marion county and T. B. Kay, state treasurer, the sum of $847.70, was filed this morning. Pugh alleges that the above sum is his share of the estate of Amanda Wheeler, who died September 3, 1911.

The complaint goes on to state that on December 3, 1912, the executor reported to the county court that he, Pugh, could not be located and that the money was turned over to the county treasurer. He says this sum has not yet been turned in to the state treasurer nor placed in the escheat fund. On August 7, he says he filed a claim for the money but it was disallowed. He asks judgment.

WHY I AM FOR WILSON

By David Lubin
Founder of the International Institute of Agriculture and Father of the Rural Credit Movement in America.

President Wilson is as wise as a serpent, as harmless as a dove. His is the keen edge of wisdom. He sees things in an intuitive way.

President Wilson is an ideal leader. That was a great vision that he saw in his New Freedom! He conceives the chief function of the President as the head of a great machine shop, and all the time he is working to get the maximum efficiency from the machine.

He sees from the top to the bottom of things. He brings a clean mind to discussion—a remarkably well-trained mind. He can inhibit the extraneous, focus his attention on the discussion at hand, and, withal, he is as humble as a laborer. He wants to help, and his sympathies are as broad as any I have ever known.

He is a good business man. And he is fearless! I fail to find anything or anybody he is afraid of.

SUPREME LECTURER CALLS ON WOODMEN

Addresses Local Lodge and Is Given Ride Through and Around City

Modern Woodmen of America of Salem were given a flying visit yesterday by Edward F. Burns, of Brooklyn, New York, who is their supreme lecturer, and in his honor they met in their halls last night in the McCracken building for an entertainment and talk by the noted visitor. Mr. Burns is a fluent and graceful talker and liberally sprinkles his lecture with wit and humor, so much so that his audience was in excellent humor all the time and regretted greatly the time when he had to leave to catch the night train for the south. He said he also regretted much his hasty departure on account of the dainty and tempting lunch that had been prepared.

In his talk before the order and the visitors he told of the wonderful growth of the woodcraft movement and showed how in the short space of 29 years it had reached over a million and a quarter of members. Contrasting this with the growth of Christianity in the early days he said the historian says that in one hundred years there were only 900,000 Christians. And the Woodmen he said was a distinctly human movement while Christianity is eminently divine. He said he made the comparison with all due reverence for Christianity but he said it showed the marvelous growth of the principles the order advocated.

He told of the humanitarian work being accomplished with their tuberculosis hospital near Colorado Springs, where members go and are treated without cost to themselves. He enlarged on what the order stood for, true patriotism, and individual allegiance to the Stars and Stripes.

Mr. Burns was accompanied from Portland by J. W. Simmons, who gave a short talk preceding the lecture. Both were introduced by George Reinohl, venerable counsel of the Salem court. Mr. Burns was met yesterday afternoon by B. E. West, J. A. Wright and G. G. Bingham, who took the guest on an automobile tour of the city and nearby country. Both Mr. and Mrs. Burns liked Salem very much and enjoyed thoroughly the hospitality.

Preceding the address by Mr. Burns a short program, consisting of the following numbers, were given: A violin ensemble by Elizabeth Thompson, Paul Pavlovic, Ross Harris and Oswald Selaverson, under the direction of Miss Joy Turner; a piano solo by Miss Ruth Wecker; a violin solo by Miss Marian Emmons; a reading by Perry Prescott Reigelman; a vocal solo by Mrs. Malcolm Ramp; and a piano solo by Dr. R. Menrie Roberts.

Could State Schools Live Under Single Tax?

The fate of such institutions as the University of Oregon and the Agricultural college, should the provisions of the proposed single tax bill ever become effective, is puzzling to those who have closely analyzed the measure. It appears on the ballot under the title of "Full rental land tax and homestead" loan fund amendment" to the state constitution. It was known as the "peoples' land and loan bill," when the petitions through which it obtained a place on the ballot were circulated.

It seems inevitable that within three years at the most from the time of passage of this measure the state treasury will be practically empty. The bill is drawn to force all land now privately owned to revert to the state, the owners preferring to relinquish it rather than pay the enormous "land rentals" that operation of the measure will entail.

Taxes are to be levied upon land alone. With the bulk of all land within the state thrown back upon the state by the present owners, payments of taxes will practically cease.

Under such conditions, where will the money come from for the support of the university and the state agricultural college as well as the other public institutions now maintained by appropriation? That is the question.

It is conceded that were the single tax so named on the ballot there would be little chance of its passage. But, taking advantage of the campaign for the state rural credits bill, its sponsors have succeeded in getting it on the ballot under a title which leads many persons to believe it is the rural credits measure. They are two distinct and utterly different measures. The single tax bill is the first initiative measure. Its voting numbers are 306 yes, and 307 no.

Lane Expects President to Win New York

Portland, Or., Oct. 27.—In a telegram to a personal friend in Portland, received yesterday, Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, says: "I have just returned from a trip through New York state. I am satisfied the president will carry it by a large majority. He is growing stronger each day and I expect a landslide for him. I find the people understand he has put his heart into the affairs of the nation as well as his head. Have not been in Ohio, but my information directly from there is that the president probably will carry the state by 75,000 majority."

fact that Ohio is lost to the republicans. His dispatch in part says: "Unless the present drift of sentiment to President Wilson can be checked, this state will be overwhelmingly Democratic. So extraordinary is this situation here that the republicans are in a state of partial panic. The national ticket is rapidly being abandoned to its fate by the state campaigners, and the fact that Hughes is weaker here than his party is apparent. "The Wilson candidacy is gaining its strength in Ohio from two sources, the progressives and the workingmen, who were formerly republicans. The voters of this state are turning to Wilson on the two propositions of peace and prosperity."

WIFE TOO ILL TO WORK

IN BED MOST OF TIME

Her Health Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Indianapolis, Indiana. — "My health was so poor and my constitution so run down that I could not work. I was thin, pale and weak, weighed but 109 pounds and was in bed most of the time. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and five months later I weighed 133 pounds. I do all the housework and washing for eleven and I can truthfully say Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been a godsend to me for I would have been in my grave today but for it. I would tell all women suffering as I was to try your valuable remedy." — Mrs. WM. GREEN, 322 S. Addison Street, Indianapolis, Indiana.

There is hardly a neighborhood in this country, wherein some woman has not found health by using this good old-fashioned root and herb remedy.

If there is anything about which you would like special advice, write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
