South Salem has two more families to become genuine citizens of the city. Mr. Gullifer has recently bought the Daney place on South Commercial street and Mr. Henderson has become the owner of the home formerly owned by Mrs. Warner. Both families are from Minnesota.

The children of the State School for the Deaf were entertained yesterday evening with a Halloween party. A procession of ghosts, games, and moving pictures were the events of interest. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by the children.

The window display of Carl F. Rueff cost altogether more than any single display in the city. While working in the window, Clyde Clancey slipped and fell, striking his shoulder against the plate glass. Mr. Clancey was uninjured but there was not much left of the plate glass and there was no insurance.

During the month of October six cases of infantile paralysis were reported to the city health officer, Dr. O. B. Miles. All these cases are now under strict quarantine, as well as those who were exposed. One case of typhoid fever was reported for October, three cases of measles, one of scarlet fever and one of tuberculosis.

Eva Tanguay, billed to appear at the opera house next Wednesday has cancelled all her Oregon and Washington dates. Her advance man was up this way a few days ago and after sizing up the poor show business in the northwest, all dates in the two states were cancelled and the company left San Francisco for the east.

Asa Tindall, who was tried yesterday in the municipal court on the charge of larceny of a robe from an automobile, was fined $20. Although evidence was introduced that showed he had sold the robe to a Salem dealer he decided to appeal his case to the circuit court. He was tried by a jury.

According to the monthly report of Dr. O. B. Miles, city health officer, during the month of October, nine births of males and seven females were reported. The deaths for the month, including those reported from the state institutions were 25 males and 13 females. Of this number, 13 were reported from the state institutions. Of the 41 who died, 11 were over the age of 70.

The postoffice clerks are about the busiest people in Salem and have been for several weeks, all on account of the election, besides the troubles that the eastern mail order houses make them occasionally. Politicians who are sending out printed literature will have to hurry as the postmaster has been notified that the state will soon send out between 38,000 and 39,000 letters to automobile owners. As these letters come under the head of first class mail, they will have the right of way for distribution over any printed matter, even if the election is only a few days off.

As a result of the recent survey of the deaf in the state school for the deaf, which was made recently by Dr. D. N. Roberg, state health officer, and six specialists from Portland, it was found that a number of the children's health could be materially helped by operations for the removal of tonsils and adenoids and nasal obstructions. The hearing of several of the children could be materially helped by these operations while their general physical condition would be greatly improved. About 95 children were examined. Three doctors were eye specialists and three ear and nose specialists.

Beginning next Sunday evening, a series of meetings will be held in the Leslie M. E. church when a series of talks and sermons will be given by Jack Godwin. He comes to the church through the efforts of the Rev. Horace N. Adricks, recently assigned here as pastor. Mr. Godwin has had a somewhat checkered career but just now he is in demand as an evangelist from churches in all parts of the country. In anticipation of the large crowds that will go to hear Mr. Godwin, about 350 seats have been added to the seating capacity of the church.

Benj. S. Via candidate for city recorder. The only lawyer among all the candidates. A lawyers place to handle cases of law.

G. W. Anderson, of Gates, is in the city to meet an old-time friend; and being a Wilson republican could not refrain from talking politics to some extent. He relates that a certain well known hop buyer in this city told him that a poll of his ward showed it to be fully four to one in favor of Hughes. How does it happen then that Wilson's pictures always draw the most applause in such places as picture shows? asked Mr. Anderson. "The Wilson men give people free admission tickets to go inside and yell for Wilson," was the reply. If this is how Mr. Anderson has reached the conclusion that the Hughes people are selling out pretty cheaply.

Ladies don't delay, Mrs. Kitts will be with us Thursday and Friday with a sample line of suits and coats from New York. Fullertons, 415 State, 114 Liberty.

According to Ab Magers, who came up from Ashland the other evening on the S. P. train, a poll was taken on presidential preferences, resulting in Wilson receiving 102 and Hughes 98.

On account of the car shortage which prevents the Spaulding Logging company from shipping lumber from the dock, and as the lumber is piled up on the dock until it is about filled, the company is now working on the nine hours a day system, from 8 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock. Since the first of the year there has been a 10 hour working day in force.

Your vote will help to nominate Adolph A. Gueffroy for city recorder. Vote 16A. (Pd. Adv.)

The football team of the State Boys' Training School will play the Turner high school team on the school grounds Saturday afternoon about 2 o'clock. This is the first game of the season for the training school boys but they expect to put up a good game. The Turner team has somewhat of an edge on their opponents as they have played one game already. However, the contest is expected to be interesting.

For the legislature—democratic candidate, 59 X Frank S. Ward, Will safeguard the interests of the people. (Pd. Adv.) nov1

W. F. Laraway, of Hood River, an apple grower, who was in Salem yesterday on business, says that the apple crop in the Hood River valley is an exceptionally good one and that it will reach a million boxes. The apple quality he says is fine and practically all the grades are good enough to ship. The car shortage is affecting them some but not seriously as yet. However, if it continues he says it may interfere seriously with the handling of the crop.
