PULVERIZE PACIFIC; WALLOP WILLAMETTE

These Are the Battlecries for College Teams Playing Here Tomorrow

'Pulverize Pacific.' 'Wallop Willamette.' Such slogans from two respective collegiate institutions are but an appetizer for the biggest football games of the fall season available to local followers of the gridiron ovoid which are scheduled for Willamette field tomorrow afternoon.

At one o'clock Salem high will clash with the Eugene huskies as a curtain raiser for the battle which is to come. When these two secondary schools have settled scores, the bigger warhorses will ramble out onto the field and settle the non-conference championship of Oregon for the year 1916 A. D.

Willamette pulled down Albany college's hopes when a score of 26 to 7 was run up recently and Mr. Angel was treated to a mud snudae bath 1 to 0 last Saturday.

Practices of the week have seen many patches sewed on the line of defense and Pacific will probably meet a garden wall which may embarrass their uniforms when they try to scale it.

OREGON AGGIES WILL PLAY U. OF W.

Team at Seattle Today—Washington's Chances Not Thought Good

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 10.—The Oregon Aggies arrived today for Saturday's big football game with the University of Washington.

Washington's chances of winning received a severe setback when it became known that Captain Seagraves, who injured several tendons in the University of Oregon game, would not be in condition to play.

As a result of the different mishaps on the varsity squad, a new right side of the line will have to be developed.

Wirt will in all probability take Captain Seagraves' place at guard; Don Able will hold down left end, and if Murphy is shifted to the backfield, Calkins will be seen at right tackle.

In direct contrast to this is the lineup that the Aggies are going to play against the Washington team. The two foremost players on the former squad are Captain Bissett at half and Newman at full.

St. Paul, Ore., Nov. 7.—One of St. Paul's most notable characters has been called to his last reward.

John and Fred Pfeifer left on the Great Northern boat from Astoria on Tuesday, November 7, to help swell the St. Paul colony now at San Francisco.

Fred Brentano, who has been buying potatoes in this vicinity for the California market this fall, left for Frisco this week to look after matters at that end.

There is much more interest apparent in the corn show at this place this season than last year and although the season has been the poorest corn growing one for the past five years, there will be some very good exhibits in corn and other products.

Election Results in Polk County Reported

With a lead of but 66 votes Charles E. Hughes the republican nominee for president carried Polk county. This was a great surprise to the voters of both parties as the republicans have a majority of about 1000 here and it was supposed that Mr. Hughes would carry the county by at least 500. Democrats elected to office on the county ticket were: E. K. Piasecki for prosecuting attorney; Fred Crowley for school superintendent and Asa B. Robinson for county clerk.

WOODBURN DEFEATED

The Woodburn high school football team journeyed to Newberg Tuesday, where they were defeated in one of the hardest fought games ever played on the Quakers' field. The defeat was due largely to the fact that all the breaks went against our boys. Time after time the Woodburn boys rushed the ball through their opponents, Rice and Demarest doing the heavy work. After scoring the goal, and when it looked as if they would score, the ball was either lost on fumbles or called back by the Newberg officials, who had the game all in their own hands as Woodburn had no part in officiating in the game.—Independent.
