

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By ALINE THOMPSON

A SMART event of today and one of the most elaborate of the season was the charming tea for which Mrs. William H. Lytle and Mrs. Zadoc J. Biggs were hostesses this afternoon at the Biggs residence on State street.

The residence decked with baskets of huge yellow chrysanthemums and clusters of colorful foliage was thronged during the afternoon with smartly gowned matrons and maids.

In the living room rose and yellow shaded lamps and candelabras made an artistic effect. Here Mrs. Biggs and Mrs. Lytle greeted their guests. They both wore gowns that blended prettily with the ensemble. Mrs. Lytle was charming in a smart gown of Nile green tulle and satin with glints of silver; and Mrs. Biggs wore an attractive gown of old rose chiffon tulle, with a bodice of cream lace and silver.

Mrs. Ben Oleott, Mrs. Oliver C. Locke, Miss Mabel Robertson and Miss Veda Cross assisted in the reception room.

In the dining room the tea table was unusually artistic; a handsome silver candelabra containing yellow candles was surrounded by crystal compotes of golden hued fruits. Mrs. Robert Chauncey Bishop, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Jr., and Mrs. Clifford Brown presided over the samovars and the prettily gowned maids assisting in the dining room were Miss Mary Creed Howard, Miss Hazel Downing, Miss Ida Simmons, Miss Catherine Stude of Silverton and Miss Ethel Rupert.

Little Mary Alice Gill attired in a dainty little white frock, greeted the guests.

A string orchestra played during the calling hours.

Those asked for the tea were: Mrs. Ben W. Oleott, Mrs. George Palmer Putnam, Mrs. Harry E. Clay, Mrs. Robert Chauncey Bishop, Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. Curtis B. Mrs. Rudolf Prael of Portland is the house guest of her father and sister, Werner Breyman and Mrs. William Eldridge for several days.

A charming event of the early week was the bridge for which Mrs. Edgar Hartley was hostess on Monday afternoon. The guests included the matrons of the Monday bridge club, and the affair marked the premier gathering of the season. Players made up three tables of the game, card honors falling to Mrs. Charles L. Dick.

The rooms were decked prettily with yellow marigolds and chrysanthemums and foliage.

Mrs. E. Cooke Patton assisted Mrs. Hartley.

Miss Mary Creed Howard, popular society maid, who is leaving Wednesday to pass the winter in the south.

Mrs. Clyde C. Graham has gone to Portland for a few days visit and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Herbert Barbour.

About 30 matrons gathered at the delightful Kensington for which Mrs. W. S. Mott and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lloyd Mott, were hostesses on Thursday afternoon. The affair was very informal, their guests being the members of the Peleiscassell and several additional matrons.

The residence was aglow with fall flowers effectively arranged in the various rooms. Scarlet geraniums, feathery white chrysanthemums and huge yellow chrysanthemums in the dining room where small tables were placed for the refreshments. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Grover Powers.

Besides the Peleiscassell club the guests included: Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, Mrs. John H. Scott, Mrs. J. C. Moreland, Mrs. Sherman W. Thompson, Mrs. Charles H. Robertson, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. B. J. Miles, Mrs. Frank M. Brown, Mrs. F. S. East, Mrs. Edgar Harley, Mrs. Donald Miles, Mrs. E. P. Tillingham, Mrs. Ronald C. Glover, Mrs. E. L. Steeves, Mrs. Grover Powers, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. W. H. Beards, Mrs. John F. Enright, Mrs. Roy Mills, and Mrs. Frank Turner.

Mrs. Arthur H. Moore's Kensington on Thursday afternoon was one of the most delightful affairs of the week. The rooms were attractively decked with yellow marigolds and scarlet berries and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. R. B. Goodin, Mrs. Florence Irwin, Miss Calista Moore and the Misses Florence Elgin and Ruth Moore.

Those being asked for this charming affair were: Mrs. W. H. Brown, Mrs. Henry A. Cornoyer, Mrs. L. K. Page, Mrs. John W. Harrison, Mrs. A. Klein, Mrs. John W. Lewis, Mrs. R. B. Houston, Mrs. George M. Brown, Mrs. Walter A. Denton, Mrs. Douglas C. Minto, Mrs. O. O. McClelland, Mrs. Charles Elgin, Mrs. A. Steiner, Mrs. C. D. Purvine, Mrs. L. M. Buggs, Mrs. R. B. Goodin, Mrs. Edward N. Gillingham, Mrs. George Lewis, Mrs. J. F. Pinnell, Miss Matty Beatty, Mrs. Florence Irwin, Miss Calista Moore, Mrs. Corey, Mrs. Louisa Forster, Mrs. Ella Purvine, Mrs. L. W. Stockley, Mrs. J. W. Cox, Mrs. E. Hurst, Mrs. A. E. Dinmore, Miss Ethel Fletcher, Mrs. Frank Davey and Mrs. S. Tyler.

Miss Mary Creed Howard, who is planning to leave Wednesday for Knoxville, Tenn., where she will pass the winter with her aunt, Mrs. Percy Lockett, a prominent southern matron, is being delightfully entertained with farewell attentions.

Perhaps the smartest affair planned to honor the popular maid before her departure is the charming dinner dance for which Mrs. Harry E. Clay will be hostess at her residence Tuesday night. The affair will be formal and her guests will include several of the younger set.

Informal yet charming was the pretty bridge party for which Mrs. William H. Daney was hostess on Thursday afternoon. Her guests who were, for the most part, the matrons of the Thursday club made up four tables of bridge, card honors falling to Mrs. Edwin L. Baker. Artistic baskets and bowls of lovely French marigolds and fernery adorned the card rooms.

Mrs. W. Al Jones assisted Mrs. Daney.

Those playing were: Mrs. Charles L. McNary, Mrs. Ruben P. Boise, Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. James A. Wilson, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. George Rose, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. L. F. Griffith, Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Mrs. Oliver C. Locke, Mrs. Harry H. Olinger, Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, Mrs. W. Al Jones and Mrs. George G. Brown.

Mrs. Frank Schmidt and small son, Teddy, have returned from a delightful sojourn in California. They passed the summer in the south remaining most of the time in San Francisco, where they were the guests of relatives.

Mrs. Thomas B. Kay will entertain on Wednesday afternoon with a bridge party. Her guests will include the matrons of the Happy Hour club.

One of the important events scheduled on the calendar for next week is the second of a series of dances to be given this winter by the Maudslayi Club. The members are looking forward with considerable pleasure to their second party, which will be on Monday night November the thirteenth.

The Calbreath-Graham-Calbreath concert which was to have been given on Wednesday night has been postponed until a later date on account of several other attractions being scheduled for that night.

Mrs. W. Al Jones entertained informally Tuesday night with a few tables of bridge. Several matrons were asked to make up the tables and the men augmented the party at the supper hour.

Mrs. William Daney assisted the hostess in the serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Richardson entertained informally Friday night with a "500" party. Three tables were arranged for the players, who were members of the T. A. N. O. club, of which the hosts also are members. The card honors were won by Mrs. LeRoy Hewlett, Clyde Johnson, Mrs. Clyde Johnson and LeRoy Hewlett.

The card rooms were artistic with chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. Mrs. Richardson was assisted in serving a dainty repast by Mrs. Hewlett.

Those making up the tables were: Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Patton, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Hewlett, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson, Miss Emma Hewlett, Miller Bevier and the hosts.

In celebration of the twenty-first anniversary of their wedding Mr. and Mrs. George M. Brown presided over a small informal dinner Wednesday evening.

Covers were placed for 6 around a table prettily adorned with fall blossoms.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Busselle asked a few friends at their home for an informal evening of "500" and music on Wednesday. After the card games the hostess served delightful refreshments.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Smith will entertain the Merry-Go-Round club with an informal evening of "500" on Tuesday.

Miss Louise Campbell, who has been visiting in Salem for a few days returned to her home in Portland Wednesday evening. During her stay here Miss Campbell was the guest of Mrs. E. T. Busselle and other friends.

Rehearsals are in full swing for "The Dictator," the play by Richard Harding Davis, to be produced here for the Cherrians by James Mott.

The Dictator which had such a successful run in New York at The Criterion theatre was produced by Chas. Frohman, with an all star cast including William Collier who played the title role; Jack Barrymore, Marie Dora, Edward Ayles, Robert McWade and others.

The cast selected by Mr. Mott for the local production will include practically the same as that of "The Fortune Hunter" seen here last season.

Some of those who will appear in "The Dictator" are: James Mott, Carl Gabrielsen, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Miss Marjorie Marvin, Ralph Moore, Laurence Hofer, George Snyder, Frank G. Deckebach, Perry Reigleman and Miss Aline Thompson.

Miss Mary Schultz, charming little violinist, who will be heard in a farewell concert Tuesday night at the Oregon Theatre.

One of the most delightful affairs given this week for Miss Howard was the attractive dinner presided over by Mrs. Homer H. Goulet at her country home on Friday evening.

Huge yellow chrysanthemums and greens decked the rooms and a crystal bowl of vivid hued marigolds adorned the artistically appointed dinner table. Dinner was followed by "500" and dancing.

Mrs. Goulet's guests, besides the honoree, were: Mr. and Mrs. William J. Burghardt, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rothchild of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. Zadoc Biggs, Albert Egan and Mr. and Mrs. Goulet.

Honoring Mrs. Susie Jones, who is planning to leave soon to make her home in Portland, Mrs. Edward N. Gillingham entertained informally Tuesday afternoon with a pretty bridge party. The guests, who were a few old friends of Mrs. Jones, were asked to make up three tables of bridge. Card honors falling to Mrs. Jones.

The rooms were gaily adorned with yellow marigolds and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Alfred Lovelace.

Miss Ellen Thielson has returned from Portland, where she has been the guest of Miss Helen Whitney for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts have as their week end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Young of Albany.

Delightful in every way was the Kensington for which Mrs. A. N. Moores and her sister, Mrs. Perry Raymond, were hostesses on Thursday afternoon.

The affair was given at the Moores residence; the guests being members of the Thursday club and several other prominent matrons.

Brilliant hued autumnal foliage, red dahlias and standards of feathery white chrysanthemums, made an artistic foil for the guests.

The hostesses asked as additional guests, Mrs. James Withycombe, Mrs. Willis C. Hawley, Mrs. A. T. Hill of La Grande, and Miss Mary Chawick.

The club guests were, Mrs. Henry B. Thielson, Mrs. John D. Sutherland, Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. Fred S. Stewart, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. John H. Albert, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. R. S. Wallace, Mrs. Henry J. Bean, Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. Charles Dopp, Mrs. William H. Eldridge, Mrs. George H. Burnett, Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mrs. W. A. Casick, Mrs. R. C. Miles, Mrs. George J. Pearce and Mrs. Robert J. Hendricks.

Friends of Mrs. Ralph White will be interested to know that she has been appointed physical director of the Sacred Heart academy.

Mrs. White's experience as a teacher of dancing makes her a most efficient instructor and her classes will not only be taught physical culture but folk dancing. Her private dancing classes for children also will be resumed in the near future.

Miss Margaret Rodgers will pass Sunday in Salem en route to Eugene from Portland, where she went Friday to attend the Oregon-Washington football game which was played there today.

Foremost among the weeks attractions is the farewell concert to be given at the Oregon Theatre Tuesday night, by Miss Mary Schultz, violin, virtuoso. Miss Schultz will be assisted by Stuart McGuire, baritone, and Miss Vera Kitchner, organist, of Portland, and Mrs. Alfred Schramm, piano accompanist.

Miss Schultz is an artist of musical ability, possessing a charming personality, and has given freely of her time and talent to the Salem public for several years. She is an advanced pupil of William Wallace Graham and will leave November 19 for Chicago to continue her musical studies. As her future success depends entirely upon her own efforts it is sincerely hoped that Salem folks will show their appreciation by coming out en masse to attend her farewell concert.

The patrons for the concert will include, Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. George H. Burnett, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Mrs. Halie Parrish Hinges, Mrs. Anna Rodgers Fish, Mrs. Haliday-Haight, Miss Minnetta Magers, Miss Isoutrice Shelton, Miss Elma Weller, Miss Lillian Stege, Miss Georgiabelle Booth, Miss Cora Talkington, Frank G.
