Is Salem a Lonesome Town? If So, Why?

Is Salem really a lonesome town in which to live? And does one necessarily have to live in the city five or ten years before there is feeling that as a stranger he is welcome? And is a man entitled to take an interest in city affairs after living here a few years, or shall the old time citizens and pioneers assume all the responsibility of attending to the city's affairs?

The Leslie M. E. church is trying to solve some of the problems with which the new-comer meets and has sent out the following invitation, signed by A. C. Bohrnstedt to attend the Sunday evening services:

"Salem is a lonesome place to live. It just couldn't live in Salem." "I want friends and it would take years before one would have close friends here."

Have you heard such statements as these? Do you know that those statements are still being made by people who have lived in Salem, and by others who live here now?

If you are interested in Salem, and especially in South Salem, will you not get aside tomorrow, Sunday, and join in our community services at Leslie M. E. church, and find out what Leslie is doing, and intends to do, to solve these and other equally important problems.

Community Services at Leslie Methodist

Leslie Methodist Episcopal church, corner South Commercial and Meyers streets, Horace N. Aldrich, pastor.

The large reception given on Friday night at the Methodist church in honor of the pastor, R. N. Avison and family and deaconess, Miss Neva Vaughan, was one of the delightful events of the week.

A throng of guests attended the function, and the receiving line included, Rev. and Mrs. Avison, Miss Vaughan, Miss Genevieve Avison, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lee.

The decorations which were unusually effective were in charge of Mrs. A. A. Lee, chairman, assisted by Mrs. U. G. Boyer and Mrs. B. E. Carrier.

Assisting about the reception room were Mrs. John O. Hall, chairman of the committee, and the presidents of the eight aid circles.

Mrs. B. L. Steeves had charge of the refreshments and was assisted by a group of young girls including Misses Helen Stewart, Grace Hunt, Esther Paronangian, Irene Faulkner, Genevieve Findley, Mary Findley, Helen Hunt, Muriel Steeves and Mabel West. Mrs. E. T. Barnes presided over the punch bowl and was assisted by the Misses Esther Taylor, Frieda Campbell, Velma Baker and Carrie Cooksey.

The university orchestra played during the calling hours and a delightful programme also was a feature of the affair. Mrs. H. H. Vandervert had charge of the programme which included musical numbers interspersed with interesting short talks.

Those contributing musical numbers were: Miss Esther Cox vocal solo, Miss Vic Hayes vocal solo, Alfred Schramm and J. H. Todd solo.

Talks were given by Dr. Elliott, Dr. Carl G. Doney, Walter Winslow, Mr. Talbott, Mrs. M. C. Findley and Rev. Avison.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Durham of Springfield, Missouri, are passing several weeks in Salem and at the Hotel Marion. Mr. and Mrs. Durham have several friends in Salem and their sojourn here is being made delightful by a number of little attentions.

A merry festivity of the mid week was the hardtimes party given by the men of the Artisans lodge at the girls club at the La Salle street. Joseph's hall. About 30 guests participated in the gayeties and the evening was devoted to music and games.

Those gathering for the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Claire Vibbert, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. William Zosel, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Geffroy, Mrs. H. D. St. Jacques, Misses Dora Covey, Emma Waldorf, Audrey Hicks, George Tolman, Mable Brassfield, Dorothy and Stanis Andre, Ruby Baker, Stella Wilson Marie Hovedob, and Glen Niles, Harry Holt, Fred Smith Roy Kennon, Fred Smith and Ass Smith.

The Presbyterian church state dinner on Friday evening was a delightful function in every detail.

Tables prettily decked with blossoms and greenery were arranged about the rooms to represent the various states and matrons presided at each table as hostesses. They were Mrs. Chaucery Graham and Mrs. George Pearce, Oregon; Mrs. George Shand, Canada; Mrs. D. A. Hodge, New York; Mrs. B. S. Wallace, Illinois; Mrs. H. J. Clements, Indiana; Mrs. Carl H. Elliott, Ohio; Mrs. Ida B. Niles, Nebraska; Mrs. W. G. Allen, Iowa.

About 180 guests attended the dinner and several prominent folk entertained friends.

During the evening an enjoyable programme was given by guests, who were natives of the state at which table they were seated.

Those contributing numbers were: Mrs. Elliott, Nebraska; Miss Margaret Lodge, Canada; Miss Cornelia Marvin, Iowa; Miss Harriett Griffith, Illinois; Miss Blair, Ohio; Mrs. F. T. Porter, Oregon.

Stands church and community problems from the small rural community and the city mission to the large city church? Then come to Leslie, Sunday night, November 12.

"Three Fingers Jack," converted Gambler.

Hear him at this church every night this week, except Monday, November 13, at 7:30.

"Jack" is undoubtedly the greatest evangelist who ever came to Salem. A man who can win $450,000 in one card game has ability to win souls. Don't miss this opportunity.

Benediction: Rev. T. B. Ford, district superintendent.

Community hand shake.

Announcements.
Monday, November 17, 8:30. "Live Wires" Sabbath school class meets at the home of A. C. Bohrnstedt, 140 Superior street, to perfect organization. This class is for young people, and young married people.

Tuesday, November 14, 6:00. Brotherhood banquet. We want one hundred men present.

Wednesday, November 15, 2:30. A social meeting of the Ladies' Aid society and the Woman's Missionary society will be held at the parsonage. Come and bring your friends.

A little want ad in the Journal will cover a big lot of territory for you.

Indiana; Mrs. Iamone Clark, New York; Mrs. Babu, Oregon.

Friday Mrs. Amanda King, Mrs. Josephine King and Mrs. J. P. Hunt went to Portland where they will be the guests of relatives for a few days. They were joined at Lents by their sister, Mrs. Charles Moll, who accompanied them. Later they will go to Seattle for a fortnight's visit to their brother, Westley White.

The initial meeting of the season of the Beethoven club was held on last Saturday afternoon at the studio of Miss Joy Turner, in the College of Music. A feature of the meeting was an artistic programme, after which musical games were played.

Miss Loraine Ross assisted Miss Turner.

The club composed of the violin and piano pupils of Miss Turner devotes its time to the study of the lives of musical composers and theoretical work.

The club includes the following members: Elizabeth Thompson, Paul Purvine, Maude Engstrom, Edith Thompson, Ruby Lifer, Ralph Harris, Oswald Severson, Cledn McFarland, Ruth Weffer, Gertrude Riesbeck and Cloyd Cochran.

One of the charming affairs of next week is the bridge party for which Mrs. Marvin Capler will be hostess on Wednesday at her apartments in The Court.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Brown and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris went to Portland today to attend the concert to be given tonight by Madame Schumann-Heink at the Hellig theatre.

At the St. Paul's rectory a get-acquainted party will be given on Thursday night, November 16th.

All manner of novel diversions have been planned for the affair, including a burlesque fashion show with living models. A delightful evening is anticipated.

Mrs. C. W. Beckett was hostess Wednesday afternoon when she entertained the members of the Sweet Briar club with an informal sewing bee at her home on the Wallace road.

The rooms were adorned with flowers and ivy and later in the afternoon a dainty repast was served at a prettily appointed table. The hostess was assisted by her guest, Mrs. O. S. Ausmus.

At the residence of Mrs. D. D. Olmstead, a pretty tea was given on Thursday afternoon by the Loyal Woman's class of the First Christian church.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Olmstead, Mrs. Edward Keene, Mrs. Chester Baker, Mrs. Carrie Chapel, Mrs. William Colbathe, Mrs. L. H. Barbour and Miss Martha Lortinsen.

A feature of the afternoon was the delightful programme which included vocal solos by Miss Grace McDonald and Miss Cave and readings by Mrs. Dee Gohlsen and Mrs. A. M. Hansen.

The afternoon was closed with refreshments.

Those present were: Mesdames L. W. E. Powers, J. A. Park, W. J. Busiek, E. L. Townsend, J. C. Campbell, J. E. Godfrey, F. T. Porter, D. W. Walsher, H. M. Perry, F. C. Stone, J. D. Barbour, H. C. The members of the sewing society of the Woman's Relief Corps enjoyed an informal afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Howd on Thursday.

The assistant hostesses included Mesdames E. E. Cooper, Hattie Cameron, Elizabeth Pound, F. M. Remington, Sarah Drager and Clara Thorp.

About 50 members were present and late in the afternoon the hostesses served refreshments.

Miss Mary Schultz will go to Portland next Friday to appear in an impromptu musicale to be given by William Wallace Graham for a number of prominent musical folk who wish to hear Miss Schultz before her departure for the east.

Miss Anna Trade, whose marriage will take place soon was the motif of a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Sylvia McDonald on Thursday evening. The honoree was recipient of many useful and pretty gifts and the guests were her girl friends.

Music and refreshments rounded out an enjoyable evening.

Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Wm. J. Busiek and Mrs. Cristen L. Baker.

The guests were the Misses Mildred Early, Edna and Blanche Blondell, Pearl Collins, Hazel Cox, Edith McFarland, Esther Goodnough, Mabel Brassfield, Grace McDonald, Edith Claxton, Miss Page, Mildred Dodge, Daisy Hawkins, Edna McClaine, Peggy Oswald, Miss Wilson, Miss Fayhee, Mrs. Lonsom and Mrs. George Johnson.

The regular annual district rally of the Woman's Benefit association of Macabees was held in the Macabees lodge rooms in the McCormack building Wednesday and Thursday by Dr. Ella J. Pfield, supreme medical examiner of the Macabees, and Mrs. Margaret E. Herren deputy state commander of Macabees in Oregon.

The rally program was as follows: Wednesday at one p. m. called to order and officers and guard of Queen Review of Salem exemplified the regular opening, after welcoming visiting officers and members. Queen Review exemplified the several degree initiations, draping of the charter and fund raising.

The question box, opened by Mrs. Herren was instructive. Review then adjourned till evening, and during the recess a message was spread by committee consisting of Mrs. Violet Swarts, Mrs. Lillia Olmstead and Mrs. Ada Saper, who were assisted by the members of the guard, who served.

Work was again taken up at eight p. m. instructive talks were given by the officers in charge, and Queen Review conferred the first degree upon several candidates; later the Queen Review officers and guard gave the beautiful memorial ceremony, and the first session was regularly closed.

Thursday at 10 a. m. Deputy State

Members of the Y. W. C. A. board of directors are urged to be present next Tuesday morning for the November meeting of the board.

The Young Woman's Christian association are greatly pleased to announce they have been presented with handsome Sonora chime clock for the mantle in the reception room. The generosity shown by the Friswell club of this city has filled a long felt want.

Last Thursday evening the Y. W. C. A. cooking class and members of the association were invited by Mr. Curtis B. Cross to his State street market where he explained the different cuts of meat and gave the women many helpful hints on buying. All the women present and the Y. W. C. A. greatly appreciated Mr. Cross' very generous offer for the rare opportunity to learn more about cuts of meat. If a sufficient number of women desire another lesson Mr. Cross has kindly offered to again instruct a class.

The Happy Hour club will have its second meeting of the season next Tuesday evening. Miss Lena White was elected president of the club and Miss Edith Bailey, secretary.

November 12 marks the beginning of world fellowship week a week set aside for the world Y. W. C. A. as a time of prayer for all the fields of work of the Young Women's Christian association at home and abroad.

The topics of prayer for the days of the week are as follows: Sunday, world fellowship; Monday, United States and its relation to other countries; Tuesday, South America; Wednesday, India and Friday; Thursday, Japan and China; Friday Hungary, Belgium, Portugal, Roumania, Greece, Austria, Russia, France, Italy, Bulgaria, Germany and Servia; Saturday, Australia, Africa, Denmark, Canada, Sweden, Finland, Switzerland, Ireland, and Spain.

Sunday November 19, vesper services will be held at the Y. W. C. A. rooms at 4 p. m. to commemorate this week. The Wilamette University will join in the services and all women are cordially invited to attend. A social meeting will be enjoyed after the meeting.

The girls of the Washington high school met last Monday for the purpose of organizing a club under the direction of Miss Mabel Robertson. A short business meeting was held and plans discussed for the co-operation of the club with the social service bureau. Officers for the club were elected with Miss Cleo Ashford, president; Miss Kathryn Gibbard, vice president; and Miss Loraine Ross, secretary. Much enthusiasm was displayed for the Christmas work in view. Similar clubs will be organized Monday afternoon for the grant and Lincoln junior high girls.

Members of the Y. W. C. A. board of directors are urged to be present next Tuesday morning for the November meeting of the board.

Brave Little Woman Conceals Tragedy

Vaneuver, B. C., Nov. 11.—When Private Andrew Borland, wounded, arrived here this morning from the Somme front, he was met by his wife gaily Yorked for the joyous occasion. Borland brought her affectionate greetings from their two sons who had remained in the trenches. Mrs. Borland chatted merrily about the boys and left the station with her husband. When the right time comes she will tell him that while he was on the train she received two "killed in action" telegrams from the war department but she will not spoil his home-coming at the outset.

MARRIED NEAR HUBBARD

Mr. Levi P. Hershberger and Mrs. Katherine Halderman were quietly married at the residence of Bishop J. B. Mishler east of Hubbard last Sunday morning, November 5, at about 9:30. The bride and groom were entertained for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Emmert and later went to the home of Mr. Hershberger. Though past 70 years of age, Mr. Hershberger enjoyed the joke the friends at the Emmert home played on them. When they were ready to leave, the boys brought his buggy to the gate and helped them out. Nothing unusual was noticed until a rough place in the road was passed over, then a small bell fastened under the buggy began to ring, though not the usual place for wedding bells, the experience made the happy couple young again. Mr. and Mrs. Hershberger went to Albany Thursday and from there intend to visit in Washington. May their remaining days be full of sunshine.—Hubbard Enterprise.

MARRIED AT SUBLIMITY

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized in the Catholic church by Rev. Fr. Latinek, Wednesday, Nov. 8, at 9 a. m. when Ed Higberger and Miss Isabelle Hildesheim pronounced the marriage vows.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Hildesheim of near Shaw, and groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Higberger of near Sublimity.

The bride was dressed in white eroppe de chine, trimmed with white fur and carried a bouquet of white carnations, she was attended by Miss Josephine Comander Herren called Review to order, and after welcoming visitors from other reviews, called upon Dr. P. field who gave a speech appreciated instruction and advice at the close of which a question box was again opened. Adjournment was taken for lunch, which was served by Mrs. Edith Barr, Mrs. Ida McDaniel and Mrs. Purdy.

The closing session was an informal one, and given over to class instruction by Mrs. Herren, at the close of which she expressed her approval of the work done. Response was made by acting commander Elizabeth Reel of Salem. Short talks were made by Dr. P. field, also Mrs. Spurling of Lebanon.

The rally which was not as fully attended as had been expected, proved very beneficial and instructive to all who attended and was a wonderful success in every way.

W. B. A. O. M. penants were present to Albany and Lebanon reviews for sending the largest delegations to the rally.

Two Are Dead From Kerosene Explosion

Hoquiam, Wash., Nov. 11.—The bodies of Mrs. E. E. Bronson, age 40, and the infant child of Vern Bronson, are in the morgue here today awaiting funeral arrangements following a fire resulting from the attempt of Mrs. Bronson to start a fire with kerosene in the kitchen-range of the Copalis hotel. The building was destroyed and Mrs. Bronson fatally burned. The Bronson baby was in its crib in the kitchen at the time of the explosion and was enveloped by flames before it could be rescued.

Duchateau of Stayton, who was attired in yellow chiffon taffeta trimmed with white fur and carried pink carnations. The groom and his best man, his brother, Leo, wore the conventional dress. The ceremony was followed by a sumptuous wedding banquet and a dance in the evening.

The young couple will live on the Heger place between Stayton and Aums ville, and have the best wishes of all their numerous friends.—Stayton Mail.

All Leave Chihuahua That Can Get Away

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 11.—The hurried exodus of wealthy residents of Chihuahua City and Juarez to the American side of the border continued today in spite of the fact that confirmation of the report that the capital city is being evacuated is lacking.

Early this morning, ten truckloads of trunks and furniture of well to do natives from Chihuahua and Juarez were brought to the international bridge to be passed over into the United States. Refugees reaching the border last night stated that a Mexican courier sent from the capital two days ago to learn the fate of the ten Americans at Parral, had not returned.

Rumors that Villa bandits headed by General Quevedo yesterday burned the railway station at Gallego, about 125 miles south of here, increased the fear that another raid would be made on Juarez. Another outlaw band burned the station at Aldama on the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railway.

But some "progressive" ass Would recommend to take them down Are both hung up so high, If they were not, I have no doubt And pull them from the sky. That no presumptuous hand can stretch cover a big lot of territory for you.

John W. Gloom Takes Lodgings With Wilcox Says U. P. Correspondent

By George Martin.
(United Press staff correspondent.)
New York, Nov. 11.—The election's over, but the inquest isn't. Vance McCormick has lost interest in the corner's verdict and gone home, leaving William Wilcox to sit up with the body and hear the evidence if he wants to.

One brilliant New York reporter today is still smarting from the democratic chairman's come-back to his premature inquisitiveness.

"What," asked the reporter, "do you expect to get now that Wilcox has won the victory?"

"A great deal," said McCormick, "of sleep."

It is a question whether Chairman Wilcox will get even that for days to come. Old John W. Gloom, who ran himself bow-legged all week trying to decide which of the two chairmen to stay with, was stretched out all over the Wilcox sanctum today.

The only cheerful thing about republican headquarters is the decorations. Nobody has even troubled to efface the picture of Uncle Sam lifting the old flag out of the dust for Hughes. They have even suffered to remain untouched the merry quip:

"Elect Bill Jones for sheriff! He kept you out of jail!"

As for democratic national headquarters with its staff of 300 and its entire office building floor full of mahogany furniture, nothing remains but the air of victory. Like the last vestige of democratic doubt as to Wilson's election, the big place vanished over night; and today the white walled rooms are as empty as a ditch digger's stomach at 6 p. m.

Captain Gehlhar Asks To Be Transferred

Captain Max Gehlhar has today requested that he be transferred to the National Guard Reserve. His service of over ten years entitles him to retain his present rank in the retired list without pay. In his request he states that his duties as District Attorney will require all his time and that he cannot devote the time to the National Guard that is required under the new pay bill. Copies of his resignation dated respectively Sept. 27, 1913, Aug. 3, 1914, and Aug. 27, 1915, were enclosed. Action on these was deferred from time to time by the Colonel in order to keep Captain Gehlhar in the regiment.

In his resignation from the active service no mention is made regarding the matter of holding two lucrative offices. It has been pointed out that the Oregon Constitution prohibits holding two lucrative offices at the same time, although the courts have not passed on the status of National Guard officers under the new law. Heretofore National Guard officers have received no pay but under the new pay bill passed last summer a captain gets $500 per year.

Lieutenant E. K. Pinsecki, of L Company, Dallas, elected district attorney of Polk county, is in the same situation and it is reported he may resign or be transferred to the National Guard Reserve.

Kingdom of Arabia Newest of Nations

Washington, Nov. 11.—Advised by cable from Mecca that an independent kingdom of Arabia has been established, the state department today inquired of England, France and Turkey as to the correctness of the information.

In the event the Mecca message is confirmed, it is likely Shereef Hussein Ben Ali will be recognized as the de facto ruler of Arabia.

The message received as undated. It was signed by Shereef Abdulhaz, styling himself minister of foreign affairs.

But some "progressive" ass Would recommend to take them down Are both hung up so high, If they were not, I have no doubt And pull them from the sky. That no presumptuous hand can stretch cover a big lot of territory for you.
