Foreign Fishermen Loyal to United States

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 15.—Three hundred foreign born fishermen, representing 3000 others about Puget Sound met in the Seattle labor temple last night and adopted patriotic resolutions in which they pledged their undivided allegiance to the United States and to its every effort to wage a successful war against Germany and her allies. The majority of them were Austrians. All of them were foreign born. In the resolutions adopted, they swore to aid the government in the preservation of foodstuffs; to urge upon all Austrians in the United States to preserve peace toward this country; to refrain from crime against the laws and to comply strictly with the regulations promulgated by the president.

NORTHWEST SOCIETY HIGHWAY ENGINEERS

Most Notable Gathering of Highwaymen Since Legislators Departed

The special meeting of the Northwest Society of Highway Engineers was called to order promptly at 10:30 this morning by President Laugaard, there being, as one of them expressed it: "The most notable gathering of highwaymen in the state capital since the legislature adjourned." Governor Withycombe made a brief but warm welcoming address, pointing out that this is an age of engineering and that when the war is over the engineers who are now taking so large a part in it, will be called upon to rebuild one-half of the civilized world. He was slightly pessimistic as to the war situation saying "if the Germans broke through the French and British lines we were gone and would all be vassals." This failed to dampen the enthusiasm, and the governor was given hearty applause when he concluded.

President Laugaard responded briefly and then the program for the day was taken up. There are many fine papers prepared and the meeting which is of a "get together" nature gives promise of resulting in a better understanding by the public of all road matters. The program concludes its work at the Marion hotel tonight with a banquet followed by addresses by S. Benson, W. L. Thompson and E. J. Adams the state highway commissioners. Following these at 8:30 a lecture on the Columbia Highway will be delivered by J. B. Yeon, roadmaster of Multnomah county. The day's program follows:

10:30 a. m.—Address of Welcome, Governor James Withycombe.

10:45 a. m.—Response by President of Society, O. Laugaard, city engineer of Portland.

11:00 a. m.—Paper on "Water Bound Macadam Roads", H. B. Chapman, superintendent of maintenance, Multnomah county.

11:30 a. m.—"Training of Highway Engineers," Prof. G. V. Skelton of O. A. C.

1:30 p. m.—"Coast Keeping on Highway Work," G. Ed. Ross of Salem, secretary and auditor of State Highway Commission.

2:30 p. m.—"Engineering Organization", Herbert Nunn, State Highway Engineer.

3:00 p. m.—"Monolithic Brick Pavements," Floyd W. Allen, consulting Engineer, Seattle.

3:30 p. m.—"Highway Bridges," C. H. Purcell, bridge engineer, of Portland, Oregon.

4:00 p. m.—"Testing of Road Materials," Dr. E. W. Lazzelle, consulting engineer, Portland.

4:30 p. m.—General Discussion, led by Prof. S. H. Gray of O. A. C.

5:00 p. m.—Short Business Session.

6:00 p. m.—Banquet at Marion Hotel.

7:30 p. m.—State Highway Program—Addresses by S. Benson, W. L. Thompson and E. J. Adams, state highway commissioners.

8:30 p. m.—Lecture on Columbia Highway with lantern slides by J. B. Yeon, roadmaster of Multnomah county, Oregon.

Lack of Fuel Closes Many Ohio Industries

Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 15.—With close to 100,000 men and women thrown out of work because of the shutting down of more than one hundred factories and the reported suffering of close to 20,000 families because of lack of fuel, Federal Fuel Administrator Garfield was appealed to at Washington today to rush coal to Cleveland. Twelve thousand tons of lake-transported coal, he was told, are standing on Kentucky tracks.

Many factories which shut down were making munitions for the allies and the government.

Returning to zero weather today more than neutralized the start made yesterday toward meeting the Ohio fuel situation. At some points the temperature was 15 below zero.

In Cleveland 100 factories were forced to shut down because of lack of fuel and thousands were temporarily thrown out of work.

Ohio State and Capital Universities at Columbus are closed and other colleges are planning to close on account of lack of coal.

At Youngstown the county coal administrator was besieged all day by persons seeking to keep warm. It is estimated that the number of persons idle as a result of the coal shortage is close to 150,000.

As soon as the acute situation in Cleveland is relieved, Cox will turn his attention to getting coal to other suffering cities and towns.

Railroad men believe they can put Ohio on the safe side of the coal situation if they can get a mild spell of weather.

About 1200 of 2300 cras of lake coal are yet to be distributed in Ohio and will go to cities having the worst emergencies.

allegiance to the United States and to its every effort to wage a successful war against Germany and her allies.

The majority of them were Austrians. All of them were foreign born.

In the resolutions adopted, they swore to aid the government in the preservation of foodstuffs; to urge upon all Austrians in the United States to preserve peace toward this country; to refrain from crime against the laws and to comply strictly with the regulations promulgated by the president.

OREGON BANKS NOW IN BETTER CONDITION

Deposits Increase $34,361,794 In Year and $17,706,210 Since Sept. 11

Notwithstanding the heavy demands made upon the banks of Oregon during the past six months in meeting war conditions, and the fact that they have assisted in financing two Liberty Bond issues during this period, deposits increased $17,706,210.26 between September 11th and November 29th, the largest increase ever recorded in the same length of time.

On November 29th total deposits in the state, including 178 state banks and trust companies and 83 national banks, amounted to $198,958,775.40, an increase of $34,361,794.00 over the corresponding statement of a year ago, November 11, 1916.

The largest increase is shown in the individual deposits, being $28,046,810.77. Time and savings deposits have increased $7,068,071.00 during the year, but have fallen off $1,876,962.77 since September 11th, due to investments made by this class of depositors in the Liberty loan.

Balances due to and from other banks have decreased $6,450,013.40 and $6,021,878.62, respectively, while balances due from the federal reserve bank have correspondingly increased $6,134,750.15, due to the shifting of reserves required by the federal reserve act.

Profit-Taking Feature In Wall Street Today

New York, Dec. 15.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today said:

Because of the rapidity with which prices advanced in the last phase of Friday's stock market, today's short session reflected not a little profit taking, with consequent softness in the general list. Trading was very restricted, but sentiment was good. Attendance in commission houses and on the floor of the stock exchange was light. Nervousness over the German danger on the west front and the deep dejection of the railroad problem seem to be passing away. Lloyd-George's optimistic speech yesterday had a good deal to do with aiding Wall Street to pierce the gloom.

Would-Be Desperadoes of Tender Years

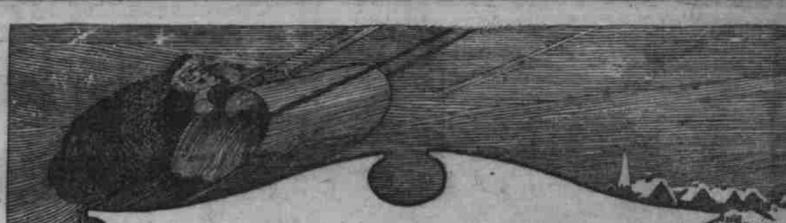

A trio of would-be young desperadoes was arranged before Justice Webster this morning and bound over to County Judge Bushby as juvenile offenders. They were charged with breaking into a freight car in Salem two or three days ago and upon being located at Junction City they were brought back from that place Thursday by Constable Percy Varney and given lodging in the county jail till their hearing came up this morning. The boys were from Tacoma and were beating their way through to California, committing more or less brigandage all along the route. The oldest was 17 years of age, Judge Bushby committed the three to the reform school. The mother of the oldest has been wired to for her consent to allow the oldest youth to join the navy. He wishes to do this and the authorities feel that it would be a good thing if he was permitted to do this and thus break up the "gang" of which he is the ring-leader.

All Registrants Must Appear at Salem

The board of legal advisers for registrants desires to correct a statement made to the effect that "registrants could go to any lawyer for advice as to his standing, and that he need not come to Salem." The board says this is not correct, and that all registrants will be required to appear before it at the county court room for classification. Attention of registrants is called to the way the questionnaires are sent out, and they are required to make their appearance before the board as soon as possible after the questionnaires are received. The questionnaires will be sent out in their "order numbers" beginning with today when the first batch of 98 was mailed. These are numbered from 1 to 98, inclusive, and these registrants are the "order numbers." Monday another batch of 98 will be sent out numbered from 99 to 196, inclusive, exposing a giant gap in this country was made today.

The United Press was authorized to say that this motive for the crime has been fully established by justice department agents and Allegheny county police officials and detectives investigating the case.

Where the plot was hatched and by whom, were facts which, if definitely known, were not divulged.
