SATURDAY NIGHT.

It is Saturday night. Faces hurrying by Have a pleasanter look and a kindlier eye,
For the mellowing thought of a Sunday of rest

Brings gentle repose to each turbulent breast.

The battle is finished; with happier tread
The conquerer comes with his portion of bread.

Though hands may be weary the spirit is bright

With a vision of peace; it is Saturday night.

It is Saturday night, and I wonder if I,
When the light of life's Saturday fades from the sky,

Can come with my purposes earnestly done
And the price of a victory manfully won.
Oh, brother of mine! when our labors shall cease,

May we walk through the valley of beauty and peace.

And, looking beyond to a palace of light,
Be joyed with the thought, "It is Saturday night."
