A party of young people packed their baskets with good things and sought out a cool nook in Lincoln Park on Wednesday evening for the purpose of enjoying a few hours. The lunch which the young ladies had prepared was enjoyed by all—the gentlemen pronounced it delicious. After the table was cleared the baskets were put away and the young people spent the remainder of the evening in dancing. The following comprised the party: Misses Lottie Cooper, Vinnie Beach, Clara Hammond, Bertha DuTeil, Sallie Berkson, Marie Beach. Messrs. Fusey, Fred Joerce, Clifford Austin Julian Field and Finley Helms.

Among the enjoyable occasions of the week was a "Hayrack Party," given Thursday evening by a number of young men in honor of Miss Adams of Superior, Neb. The young people left the city about five o'clock and drove to Mr. Ensign's farm. After their arrival at the farm they partook of a bountiful repast which was served by the young ladies, and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. About 11 o'clock they started for home all armed with tin horns, and if they didn't fill the air with music it was the fault of the horns, but not the fault of the ones who were blowing them. They made life miserable for the dreamers along the road who were trying to get a good night's rest. The evening being somewhat cooler and the moon in its beaming brightness; the drive was no small item of the evening's pleasure. The jolly party was composed of Misses Dora Harley, Georgie Campe, Blanche Garten, Joe Winger, Florence Winger, Mae Whiting, Maude Shaw, Eva Picketts, Mabel Picketts, Ella Raymond, Ona Imhoff, Lottie Whedon, Sallie Groh, Adams of Superior, Libbie Seacrest, Carscadden. Messrs. Adams of Superior, Will Westermann, Harry Evans, Chas Elliot, Harry Oury, Julius Westermann, Harry Harley, Geo. Walsh, Howard Picketts, Dawes, Palmer, Tom Wing, Charles Jones, Avery Haggard. Mrs. C. H. Imhoff and Miss Jones chaperoned the party.

Miss Mabel Picketts is entertaining Miss Carscadden.

Wednesday evening a bouquet of buds and their gallant young escorts enjoyed a "straw ride" to Woodlawn. The trip was enlivened by the sudden blasts from a clear horn which awakened all the echoes along the road. On reaching their destination the baskets were spread and all enjoyed the tempting lunch which the young ladies had prepared. The party comprised the following: Misses Fay Thompson, Amy Nesbit, Winger, Bessie Hayden, Grace Lawlor, Pearle Lunn, Maud Hullhurst, Messrs. Earl McCreery, Ralph Winger, George Scott, Hallie Lyman, Tom Lunn, Winnet Orr, Roy Cypford, Harry Everett. Mesdames Lyman, Hall and Taber were the chaperons.
