LOCAL AFFAIRS.

—Sun bonnets.
—New buildings are numerous.
—Men advertise, then realizes.
—April has been a showery month.
—Taxes must be paid before May 15th to save penalty.
—Call and see those nobby watch chains just received by Wells.
—L. A. Foot's residence looms up nicely and is going to be a very pretty building.
—Every body and his girl are going to the dance at Warner's Hall next Thursday eve.
—The Iowa prohibitionists die hard. They propose to carry the fight into the next legislative campaign.
—A full and complete stock of millinery spring goods at the lowest prices for sale by Mrs. Hay & Daughter.
—Dr. Duncan, of Chamberlain was in town last Wednesday on business connected with his land interests and made us a pleasant call.
—The Henry bank building will be a model of neatness in structure and finish when completed. It will be thrown open for business about the 1st of May.
—The new fence and evergreen trees make a decided neat appearance on E. D. Wells' lot. When his house is finished it will show up to good advantage on such grounds.
—Each week the Taft House is receiving some addition or improvement. The latest is a new coat of paint which gives it a decided neat appearance. Edd is bound to keep pace with the rush.
—Don't neglect to paint. You can buy the Imperial Palaoe, the best brand of Mixed Paint on the market, and Strictly Pure White Lead at Hutchison & French's cheaper than any other place in this part of the Territory.
—A ruling has been recently made at the Mitchell land office that no relinquishments shall be taken at the land office except they be accompanied by an affidavit that they were made in good faith and not for speculation.

—Straw hats.
—O no, it never rains in Dakota.
—Ryan Bros. have several pieces of choice lands for sale cheap.
—Rev. B. F. Humphry will preach at the church next Sabbath, at 10:30.
—The Kimball Bank has a beautiful new sign, the work of J. C. Stoddard.
—Rev. E. M. Hennessey will celebrate mass here again on Thursday, May 17th.
—The latest styles in Millinery and Fancy Goods can be found at Mrs. Hay & Daughter's.
—Hutchison & French do the Stationary Business of Kimball and are prepared for it.
—The building fever in town is more contagious than ever was, or will be, the small pox.
—The new awning on Col. Leavitt's building gives the upper part of Main street a metropolitan appearance.
—S. A. Sedgwick is building a very pretty residence on his lot just south of the Iowa Lumber Co.'s office.
—Mrs. Hay & Daughter have the largest and latest style of millinery goods to be found in Brule county.
—The rail road company made another change in their time table last Tuesday. The change we note in another column.
—New Goods are arriving daily at the Popular Drug Store of Hutchison & French. Call and examine their varied stock.
—D. H. Moses, emigrant agent of the C. M. & St. P. R. R. has returned, and is again looking to the interests of emigrants here.
—The rail road company have a gang of men putting down a "Y." at this place which is much needed here and has been ever since the old one was taken up.
—J. B. Long Esq. has started the foundation for his new house just east of L. A. Foot's and will soon have up a pretty residence and in a beautiful location.
—Kimball offers abundant opportunities for labor and capital and its future prospects for rapid increase in values is better than any town in Dakota.
—D. Warner Esq. left last Tuesday night for Plainville, Ohio, in response to a telegram informing him of the serious illness of his daughter Mrs. Tynan.
—G. L. Plummer has purchased the corner lot north of Dains' grocery store and is putting up a very neat building to be used we are informed for a restaurant.
—Finger rings, ear rings, pins, watch charms, cuff buttons, studs, every thing or any thing in solid gold and genuine gold plated goods at E. J. Wells' and at prices surprisingly low.
—R. R. & J. A. High have bought of Frank Porter his interest in the dry line and are now fully prepared to do draying and teaming on short notice and at very reasonable prices. Read their new card.
—Don't forget the dance at Warner's Hall next Thursday eve. May 3rd. Good music will be furnished and a splendid time is anticipated. Supper will be served at J. C. Stoddard's. A general invitation is extended.
—Dr. J. C. Hollinger has bought from Kennedy & Ryan their stock of drugs and medicines and will continue the business at the old stand. The doctor is painting and fixing up the store in neat style and we see no reason why he should not have a big trade.
—Mr. Foote the accommodating cashier of the Kimball Bank, can now be found in the company's new building feeling more happy than ever. When the building is completed on the inside, there will be but few bank buildings in south eastern Dakota that will look prettier, or better fitted up. The building will indeed be a credit to Kimball.

—The "beautiful green" is improving.
—New Clocks and Watches just received at Hutchison & French's
—Five extra freight trains last Tuesday and not a very good day for extra trains either.
—Call at the millinery store of Mrs. Hay & Daughter, for the latest styles in millinery goods.
—The C. M. & St. P. Co. is supplying seed corn at reasonable rates, to all farmers who make application.
—L. D. Bardin Esq. is busy at work building a large addition to his already large grocery store.
—No use of us trying to boom Kimball any longer. She booms herself now and has such a boom that it can't be stopped either.
—The rail road company put on a sleeping car last Tuesday on this end of the road, which will be run hereafter between Chamberlain and Algona.
—Hutchison & French make a specialty of furnishing large Glass for Store Fronts. If you are intending to build, call on them and get prices before buying elsewhere.
—Wells has the only complete stock of watches, clocks and general assortment of jewelry, in Brule county, and he proposes to sell them at bed rock prices.
—That prince of good fellows E. J. Wells, returned from his eastern trip last Tuesday, and is busy once more attending to both his large farming interests and extensive Jewelry trade.
—Where Taft puts all that stop at his Hotel is a conundrum. Every room in the house is filled scripture measure, and we expect next to see him utilize the roof for sleeping apartments.
—Rev. Humphry's family arrived here this week and are now nicely located on their home north of town. Mr. Humphry expects to build a residence in town by fall which we hope he may do.
—D. E. Robinson of whom we made mention last week as going to start a clothing store here, opens up to-day and will keep a full line of clothing, hats, caps, boots, shoes etc. He will also run a branch store at White Lake.
—Some one has sent us a poem for publication entitled "Raindrops on the roof." Of course it drops on the roof. That's what the roof is for, and had the writer given us his name his manuscript might have escaped the waste basket.

I can furnish a limited number of cottonwoods both roots and slips being drawn each fresh and in good order. Call on myself or H. S. Dunlap. Kimball, D. T. E. T. Currens.
