

THE ENTERPRISE:

Entered at the Post-office at Kimball, Dakota, as second-class matter.

Published by THE KIMBALL PUBLISHING CO.

TERMS: $2 PER YEAR.

FRIDAY, JULY 6, 1883.

The benevolent managers of the Erie Pa. poor-house conceived the idea of building separate apartments for the married paupers. They had no sooner put this plan into execution when all the ministers in that city were called into use to marry all the single ones, which put a stop to further proceedings in that line.

With this issue of the ENTERPRISE the business interests of P. H. Ryan connected therewith ceases, he having sold the same to C. R. Tinan Esq. late of Plainville, Ohio. Mr. Tinan is a young man of energy and brains and backed by sufficient amount of capital, will continue not only to keep up the good reputation of the ENTERPRISE, but will make many improvements thereon; he is a competent and thorough newspaper man and his patrons will find him much better suited to the business than was his predecessor, who now upon closing his connection with the paper, beg leave to return thanks for the many kind acts heretofore shown by his patrons, and ever holding each and everyone of them in kind remembrance, will for the present throw aside the editorial harness.

Respectfully P. H. RYAN. ENTERPRISE of last week.

It has always been a matter of surprise to us how Kimball, through her early days could support so good a paper as the ENTERPRISE. We have not therefore taken upon ourselves the cares and responsibilities of an editor from a desire to meet a long felt want. We believe that the future of Southern Dakota is assured and without any aid from us it will become known as a glorious country wherever the English language is spoken. We merely seek to carry on the good work so ably commenced by Mr. Ryan, feeling that our interests are so closely identified with the welfare and prosperity of Kimball. We will waive the usual custom in such cases of proclaiming what the paper will be, preferring to leave that to the judgment of the readers, simply stating that it will be to all intents and purposes a news paper. We shall keep the public posted on all the current topics of the day, remembering our first duty is to Kimball, our second to Brule county and our third to Southern Dakota.

For the many encouraging words of kindness received by the writer please accept our thanks. We shall endeavor to merit them.
