

J. J. Moxley

50 CENTS
A YEAR IN ADVANCE
IS "IT."

IT.

READ "IT"
AND YOU'LL SURELY
LIKE "IT."

VOL. I.

Lawrenceburg, Ky., Thursday January 22, 1903.

NO. 11.

In Town and County.

A. B. McAfee sold to Jeff Young twenty calves at $19 a head.

Ezra Fidler, of Chicago, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Joe L. Bond.

John Bailey sold to A. B. McAfee a nice harness mare for $135.

Jas. Wilhoit, former sheriff of Woodford county, was in town Monday.

Mrs. Henry Cassell, of Texas, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Alice Lillard.

Mrs. C. J. Wildberger left last Saturday for Indianapolis to visit her brother.

Born, to the wife of John R. Martin, at Tyrone, on the 17th inst., a ten-pound boy.

Sam Hawkins, of Georgetown, visited his grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Gaines, last week.

Ward Lutz, of Lexington, bought four head of horses here Monday at prices ranging from $50 to $115.

L. C. Burgin and Miss Albradg Blockson, both of this county, will be married in Louisville to-morrow.

Mesdames F. B. Powers and H. C. Williams left Tuesday for Deland, Fla., where they will spend several weeks.

Monday was a pretty day, and a large crowd was in town, but nothing like the crowd that was expected.

Dud Coke, of Rippyville, has bought of G. W. Parker a house and lot at Tyrone, and will move to it at an early day.

The employees of the Home Telephone Co., who have been doing construction work near this place, refused to stand a cut of twenty-five a day, and went out on a strike last Friday. As yet, they have not accepted the company's offer to return to work at the reduced pay.

Mrs. Geo. Branham, of Kansas, and sister, Miss Katie Bell, of Georgetown, spent Saturday and Sunday with their grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Wells.

The Hoffman Distilling Co. experienced much trouble in getting grain and coal to their plant last week. The roads were covered with ice, and it was with much difficulty that the loaded wagons were prevented from sliding over the high embankments.

Mr. D. L. Meriwether, of Louisville, was in town from Saturday until Monday, shaking hands with friends.

Will Miller, a colored teamster in the employ of Morgan & Hyatt, came near losing his life last Thursday by the sliding of his heavily-loaded wagon over an ice-covered embankment near Fox Creek. After sliding some distance, the wagon struck a telephone post, thus saving the life of both driver and horses.

S. G. Harberson bought of W. F. Lillard a mare for $75.

Miss Lizzie Farlee is quite sick at her home on Gatewood avenue.

Wakefield & Barriger, of Shelbyville, bought six head of horses here Court day.

B. Fox and G. Mox, of Danville, were in town yesterday in search of mules and horses.

Frank Ison, of Shakertown, was in town Court day in search of horses, and found two or three at prices to suit.

Hillary Shryock, who has been visiting his niece, Mrs. Jordan Carter, at Tyrone, has returned to his home at Greenwood, Ind.

J. Richard Sutherland spent last Friday at the home of J. B. Young, near Waddy, who entertained in honor of his daughter, Miss Hattie.

As we go to press with this, our last page, we notice two very bad errors in an article appearing on the editorial page, which we are now unable to correct. We make this statement that you may know they did not pass us altogether unnoticed.

Mr. W. O. Turner received a telegram, last Saturday, from Elizabethtown, Ill., stating that Chas. Allen was dead at Anna, that State. No letter has been received stating the cause of his death. Mr. Allen was a native of this county, and was well known to most of our citizens, he having left here only a few months ago.

Hon. John B. Chenault, of Madison county, candidate for State Auditor, was in town Monday for the purpose of interviewing the voters. He is the present Insurance Commissioner, and believes that his record entitles him to promotion. He is a sterling Democrat and a genial gentleman, and will make a good Auditor if elected.

HOW DO THESE PRICES SUIT YOU?
For One Week, Commencing To-day, we will sell

Baldwin Apples, per peck	20c
Star Catsup, six bottles for	25c
California Apricots, per can	15c
Marengo Peaches, per dozen cans	90c
Mrs. Hopkins' Mince Meat, per can	10c
Columbus Asparagus, per can	20c
Cooking Figs, per pound	6c
70-80 Prunes, per pound	4c
4 Crown London Layer Raisins, per pound	10c
Arbuckle's, Lion and Zinsmeister's celebrated Tiger Roast Coffees, per pound	10c
A good 20c Broom for	15c
Hand-picked Navy Beans, per pound	5c
Butter Beans, per pound	8c
All kinds of Penny Candies, two for	1c

D. M. ROACH,
LAWRENCEBURG, - - - - KENTUCKY.

Little Miss Blanche Snyder, daughter of C. P. Snyder, of the Hebron community, entertained quite a number of her young friends Monday, that being her birthday.

Use Bond's Cream Flour.

Mrs. Mary McBrayer left last week for Maitland, Fla., where she will spend the remainder of the winter. Morris W. Bartlett and family have been there several weeks.

A county court, a hundred "jags" and not a single fight was the wonderful record made here Monday to be written upon history's pages.

Use Bond's Cream Flour.

Sam Coke, last week, bought of Middlesboro parties two bowling alleys, and will have them ready for use in the large store-room next to Bond & Leathers' by the latter part of this week.