

COLLEGE STRIKERS WILL APPEAL TO THE ARCHBISHOP

Through Manhattan Alumni Will Ask Prelate to Act as Arbitrator.

CALL PRESIDENT UNJUST

Brother Peter Dismissed Athlete for Being Out Late, Although He Had Permission.

Archbishop Farley is to be asked to arbitrate the differences between the students and faculty of the Manhattan College at Broadway and 111th Street, which resulted in a strike of the students.

The strike was precipitated by the dismissal of John P. Nugent, a freshman who came here from Lafayette College with a great reputation as a baseball pitcher and a football star.

Nugent had permission to spend the night out of college on March 12. Instead he returned to college at 1 A. M., and was met by Brother Peter, the president of the institution.

Since then the college has been in an uproar. The students have held frequent meetings and made a number of attempts to have Brother Peter rescind his order of practical dismissal.

When the strikers assembled on the campus today they were joined by Charles Ireland, professor of civil engineering, who is a prime favorite with the boys.

"You know we are right, don't you, Professor?" We want you to tell us so," said the boys in chorus.

"This is a subject, boys, I can't discuss," the Professor diplomatically replied and then made his exit.

Among the passengers on the Cunard line's Lusitania which left her pier here today for Liverpool were Mrs. and Mrs. C. M. Campbell, Lady Elton, and Mrs. C. M. Campbell, Lady Elton, and Mrs. C. M. Campbell, Lady Elton.

The rebellious youths have more to answer for than being "out-ups" for to furnish fuel for their bonfire they tore away a portion of the college fence at One Hundred and Thirty-second Street.

After the students went on strike last night they built a big bonfire on the campus and marched about it, giving the college yell.

Manhattan College is under the direction of the Christian Brothers. Brother Peter, the president, formerly superintendent of a preparatory school at Providence, R. I., has been in charge for some time.

BIG NEW BRIDGE POPULAR, BUT A POOR INVESTMENT

Queensboro Span Tolls Never Will Equal Interest on Bonds Sold to Build It.

On an investment of $20,000,000 the city has received its first return, $8.83. This latter sum is represented in the tolls collected on the Queensboro Bridge, which was opened yesterday.

VANDERBILTS SAIL ON THE LUSITANIA

Lord and Lady Herbert and Others of British Nobility Also Aboard.

Among the passengers on the Cunard line's Lusitania which left her pier here today for Liverpool were Mrs. and Mrs. C. M. Campbell, Lady Elton, and Mrs. C. M. Campbell, Lady Elton.

The Vanderbilts will be away, they said, for a few months at least, and will spend much of their time on a yacht cruise in European waters.

St. Petersburg Police Also Make Big Seizure of War Munitions and Documents.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 31.—The police of St. Petersburg have frustrated a plot to start an uprising in the Caucasus. Yesterday they arrested seventy men, including several army officers.

The raid was made in the center of the city on the corner of the Nevski Prospekt, where the band boldly had selected headquarters.

The speech delivered in the Duma March 31 by Alexander J. Guchkov, one of the Octoberist leaders, questioning the military ability of the Russian generals with high commands, already has borne its first fruit.

The new appointees are vigorous men between fifty and fifty-five years of age. These appointments mark the passing of the Russo-Turkish war heroes, who up to the present time have been given preference in the allotment of commands.

BOYLE WOMAN'S PLEA, NOT GUILTY OF KIDNAPPING

Mercer Court Judge Holds Her in $25,000 Bail—Whitla Family in Atlantic City.

MERCER, Pa., March 31.—Mrs. Helen Boyle, wife of James H. Boyle, kidnapper of Willie Whitla, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Thomas McClain at this place today, charged with kidnapping.

"She entered a plea of 'not guilty,'" and was held for the action of the Grand Jury in the sum of $25,000 bail.

Her husband waived a hearing at Sharon Monday and is held in the jail on a similar bond.

The woman was taken from the jail by Sheriff Chess and the two, followed by a couple of deputy sheriffs, went to the office of the Justice, about a square distant.

"Why, I am not guilty, and I enter a plea of not guilty," she said.

"If you want to have a hearing at this time," said the Justice, "or will you waive a hearing?"

"For the present," she replied, "it will be better for me to waive any hearing."

"Well, that is about all," replied the Justice. "Of course, there will be bail in this case. It is fixed at $25,000. Have you any one that will go on your bond?"

"No," replied the woman, and thereupon she was committed to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

PHILADELPHIA, March 31.—On their way to Atlantic City they rested for an hour today before boarding a train for the seashore.

"I'm going to see the Atlantic Ocean. It's nice to be back with papa again," exclaimed Willie.

"I am so much pleased that my son is with me, alive and well, that I can think of but little else," said the father.

"They have said that I will claim the reward offered by the State, but it is not true," he declared.

"The whole world is the most splendid thing in my life," he declared.

"We shall rest ourselves in Atlantic City," he continued, "and then Willie will go to school in Sharon as though nothing had happened."
