

E. C. WALTON.

THE post-office department seems to reek with rottenness. The scandals that were shown up last year ought to have and would have driven the party in power from office had it not been so firmly entrenched by long tenure and the popular personality of its candidate.

THE entering wedge to what appears to be a public demand at present for governmental ownership has been made at Chicago, which elected a mayor on the platform of the city's purchase and control of the street railways.

THE voters expressed their condemnation of the theft of the office of governor by the republicans in Colorado in no uncertain way. At the municipal elections the other day the democrats were generally victorious, carrying Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Leadville, all nominally republican, the last being carried by the democrats for the first time in 20 years.

DOWN in the Southern part of the State a coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide in the case of a Negro who was being pursued for shooting the town marshal of Fulton. As 16 buckshot were found in the Negro's body and head, such a verdict can only be accounted for in the fact that it was suicidal for him to shoot the town marshal and then run from the pursuing officers.

IN his speech to the people at San Antonio, Texas, President Roosevelt, who raised his regiment of Rough Riders therabouts, said no one ever dreamed that he would return in seven years the president of the United States. True, but there is little surprise at any thing that comes to this wonderful man of destiny.

GOV. LUKE WRIGHT, of the Philippines, it is said, proposes to return to Tennessee and make an effort to succeed Mr. Carmack in the United States Senate. We do not wish to write disparagingly of Mr. Wright, but if he is right in the upper story he will not let go the bird in hand for two in the bush.

A GOOD many mean things have been told on Mr. Roosevelt but the worst we have seen in a long time is that when he first graduated from Harvard he wore side whiskers. However, let us, since he seems to be trying to atone for his youthful indiscretions, not judge too harshly or too hastily.

EDITOR RICHARDSON, who is also Congressman Richardson, speaks of his Glasgow contemporary as a "Jackass." We object to such unparliamentary language. Besides Bro. Richardson should respect the feelings even of a dumb brute and not make invidious comparisons.

A GOVERNMENT expert says that the tape worm is a sure cure for consumption. But isn't that jumping from the frying pan into the fire? It seems to be just as bad to die of the fever as the ague.

It was 40 years ago Sunday since Gen. Robert E. Lee surrendered the remnant of his half starved and ragged army at Appomattox, which for four years had battled against overwhelming numbers and greatest odds. It was a long time before many of us were born, including the writer, but stories of their hardships and valor have been handed down from father to son till we almost feel that we were intimately associated with the gallant band, that went forth to struggle for the cause they loved, which was destined to be lost.

EDITOR SAM W. MENEFEE, of the Advocate, is a candidate for mayor of Danville, subject to the action of the democratic primary. "Sam," as we know him here, is a progressive, active young man and would come as near pulling Little Britain out of the ruts as anybody we know of.

SEAL skin cloaks are going to be high. The entire catch this year is only 160,000 against 284,000 last year. With everything on the rise, "hubby" has a rocky time in front of him.

THE president's influence doesn't seem to have counted for much at Oyster Bay, his Summer home. The entire democratic municipal ticket was elected there last week.

Judge Edward F. Dunne, the newly-elected Mayor of Chicago, in an interview in New York, said Chicago would have municipal ownership the second year of his term. McKINNEY ROLLER MILLS.

I offer for sale my mill and residence in McKinney, Ky. Mill has four capacity of 50 barrels and meal 100 bushels per day. Mill is well equipped with modern machinery in good repair. Has storage capacity of 5,000 bushels of wheat; also large corn bins and cribs. Wagon scales operated from office, coal bins and ice house. All under roof. Never falling water in mill lot. Mill is within 100 feet of Cincinnati Southern R. R. track and has private siding. The location is good for the following reasons: McKinney is nearest market to many of the largest wheat and corn growers in Lincoln county, large territory furnishing custom grinding. The feed and coal business in connection with mill pays well. No trouble to market all products from mill. Residence is a two-story six room frame, with cistern on back porch. Milk house at back door cemented; all comparatively new. Large barn, buggy house in mill lot. On account of my failing eyesight and health generally, my physicians have advised me to quit the milling business. For further particulars call on address Dr. Edw. Alcorn, Hustonville, Ky., or W. B. McKinney, Stanford, Ky.

MASTIC MIXED PAINT. Can't Be Touched. For painting houses. The reason's plain. Mastic is the purest, therefore the most durable and economical. There is a whole string of "other fellows" claiming "just as good as Mastic" but they don't prove it. Maybe they can't. The analysis of Mastic is published. It's made of pure lead, zinc and linseed oil—the most durable kind of paint—and its purity is therefore unquestioned. As purity means durability, the splendid wearing qualities of Mastic have given it the title of "The Kind That Lasts," and this title is backed up by our absolute guarantee. Mastic is made by PEASLEE-GAULBERT CO., Inc. LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY and we heartily recommend it to your trade.

NABOTH JR.

Naboth, Jr., is a beautiful dark bay with heavy mane and tail, with good bone, plenty of style and finish and has extreme high action and if worked would step as fast as old Naboth, his sire. He is over 16 hands high, weighs 1,225 pounds and only 6-years-old this May. He is by the well-known Naboth, who was sired by Walsingham, sire of Lattitude, 2:17 1/4, and many others in the list. There was one of his two-year-olds out last season that proved to be a great show filly.
