

Our New Hair Vigor

Ayer's Hair Vigor was good, the best that was made. But Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, is better. It is the one great specific for falling hair. A new preparation in every way. New bottle. New contents. Ask your druggist to show it to you, "the new kind."

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

As we now make our new Hair Vigor it does not have the slightest effect upon the color of the hair. You may use it freely and for any length of time without fear of changing the color. Stops falling hair. Cures dandruff.

A wreck on the O. & K. road just above Lee City delayed the passenger train several hours Tuesday and caused us to miss all newspaper mail coming from below.

Dr. C. Hood Williams left yesterday for Jackson, where he will practice his profession for a short time, and may locate there permanently again. We will have more to say of him next week.

The public sale of the personal effects of Preston Trimble, deceased, will be held Saturday, July 9, and many rare pieces of antique furniture, dishes, etc., will be offered. Curio buyers should be sure to attend.

Doc Farris and wife, of Flemingsburg, are stopping at the Swango House. They are a newly married couple, having united in matrimony Thursday morning, and started for this place immediately after the ceremony.

Mrs. Robert Cecil and Miss Nancy Sample, who attended the district conference at Grassy Lick and the Epworth League at Mt. Sterling, were delighted with their trip and have been singing psalms of praise for the people of both places since their return. Indeed, they sum up their outing in these words, "It was simply delightful."

Willie Taulbee eloped with Miss Nannie Barker, daughter of John Barker and wife, of Lacy creek, Monday night, June 20, and they were married on Rose fork the next day, if we have the story correct. He had asked her parents for her on several occasions and finding that they would not give her up he took possession any how. She was about 20 years of age.

The Christian Endeavor and Epworth League have combined their meetings for the summer. They will meet at the Methodist church on the first and third Sundays and on the second and fourth at the Christian church. Next Sunday evening they will meet at the Methodist church, the subject being "Christian Citizenship." Miss Nancy Sample will be the leader.

Henry Vanleave eloped with Mollie Nickell, the only daughter of Neise Nickell, near town, on Saturday afternoon last, and the presumption is that they were married Sunday night. Vanleave took her among his relatives in Breathitt and up to mid afternoon Sunday they had not been married. Bert and Rainey, her brothers, pursued the couple, but did not come across them, missing them at one point about 200 yards.

A Lucky Young Man.

Grover Sebastian, a son of our fellow county man, Jim Henry Sebastian, has had his lines fall in pleasant places. About a year ago he joined the army as a private, of course, and subsequently finding that he had certain scholarly attainments he was made regimental clerk. He filled the latter position so well that his superior officers investigated his scholarly attainments, and finding them sufficient for duties demanded, the proposition was made to him that he would be released from the army provided he would go to the Philippines as a teacher. He was guaranteed $1,800 a year and traveling expenses to and from our foreign possessions, provided he would stay two years. He accepted the job and is probably in Manila now. At any rate, his father last week had a letter from him dated just a month prior, in which he said he was then at Tokio, where he would spend the day, and then go to Hong Kong, China. He will not be a teacher in fact, but superintend several teachers. His father was fearful that the treachery of the Filipinos might cause his death, but "Our Man About Town" reminded him that lots of our people escaped during the Civil war when death stared them in the face, and in many other cases. Grover taught in Magoffin county for two years, where he was quite a favorite as a teacher, and if he comes out o. k. in this venture he will have seen the world at the expense of Uncle Sam, live easy meantime and have a lot of the main arteries of life, which is vulgarly termed "Spoudulix." He is, therefore, quite lucky, we think.

Who Will Teach.

The following is a list of the teachers appointed Saturday last, together with the schools assigned them in this, Division No. 2, viz:

- Sub-Dis. No. 1—Daysboro, Calloway Sebastian.
- Sub-Dis. No. 2—Rose Chapel, Miss Joann Rose.
- Sub-Dis. No. 3—Johnson school, Miss Rosa Lee Perkins.
- Sub-Dis. No. 4—Hazel Green, Lenix Swango.
- Sub-Dis. No. 5—Public Square, Elmer Barker.
- Sub-Dis. No. 6—Sandfield, Miss Nora Stamper.
- Sub-Dis. No. 7—Big Branch, Mrs. Lenix Swango.
- Sub-Dis. No. 8—Clifty, Roy Kash.
- Dis. A, Colored—Daysboro, Prof. M. B. T. Adams.

Were Well Pounded.

Bro. Willoughby and wife were greatly surprised Monday evening when about fifty of their friends came trooping in, each carrying a package which they deposited in the hallway before entering. It proved to be a surprise pound party, and lots of good things were stored away in the pantry as a result. The party was very pleasantly entertained for an hour or so. The people of Hazel Green should feel proud of having such estimable people as Bro. Willoughby and wife in their midst, and we think they do whether or not they express it in poundings.

The excursion to Niagara Falls projected and managed by Everett Back will be one of the most enjoyable outings of the summer. Prof. Patton and wife; Carl Mize and wife and Jesse Kash are booked to go from here and ere the time comes to leave there will be quite a crowd from this place. All who have the means should avail of the opportunity to see the greatest of America's natural curiosities, and that is the great cataract at Niagara. When you have all the extras thrown in at a cost less than the regular railroad fare it looks foolish not to take in the trip.

Disastrous Flood in Licking.

A flood-tide in Licking river Sunday night carried away five houses and drowned six persons. Monday morning a house floated by Salyersville from some point above and three people, supposed to be man, wife and child, were clinging to the top of the roof. Roe Ferguson, the mail contractor between this point and West Liberty, brings us the above news, and says a telephone message from Salyersville Friday stated that five houses were afloat between Salyersville and West Liberty and to be on the lookout for the three people on one of the houses, as they had not been rescued so far as known. The water in Salyersville was about 15 to 30 feet in depth, and the loss of property, when ascertained will be considerable. Miss Mabel May came from Cannel City yesterday and says it was reported that 14 dead bodies had been found on one bank of the river below Salyersville. The cause of the flood was a cloud burst some miles above Salyersville, and the water came down the stream at a terrific speed. The damage may prove very large and the death rate even greater than reported.

Henry Pieratt, formerly of our town and ex-president of our bank, is in town for this week attending to some delayed business and shaking hands with old friends. He says his son, Herald, named in honor of our paper, is growing so that Madison county has no pole with which to measure him. He was 6 feet 5 inches at last accounts; Tom is a bigger man than his papa; Bruce is a bruiser, and each has in two acres of tobacco. Mrs. Pieratt and Mary are in fine health. Mr. and Mrs. Combs are in usual good health, but Mr. Combs has to stay in the house on account of his eyes.

The notice in this paper last week citing the fact that Frank Johnson had been offered $1,000 for his chances on the oil well should have appeared minus the dollar mark, as the 1,000 referred to the amount of tiling Mr. Fetterly was willing to risk on the venture. It was intended to put people to talking, but "the intelligent compositor" knocked our little joke into smithereens. But all jokes aside we believe Mr. Johnson will come into his own when the well shall have been completed. Faith only leads us to the conclusion, but you can paste this in your hat and then watch results.

The following have registered at the Day House since our last report: S. C. and J. P. Alexander and Samuel Rose, Daysboro; G. B. Stamper and E. F. Stamper, Campton; John D. and Stevie Rose, Lexie; Paris Rose and W. C. Sebastian, Daysboro; J. O. Perkins, Alex Shockey, Hoy Childers and Ellis Johnson, Hazel Green; Rollie Clark, Toliver; Taylor Taulbee, representing Lexington Dry Goods Co.; Boone Tyra, Stillwater; ex-Superintendent of Schools Wm. Chambers and daughter, and Rosa Lee Perkins.

The next examination for a certificate to practice medicine in this state will be held at the Armory, Louisville, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, July 5th, 6th and 7th. This examination will include every sect who desire to practice the healing art in any of its branches, and is designed to protect the people from ignorance and incompetency in the treatment of disease.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collated and Concisely Chronicled.

Counterfeit silver dollars are in circulation in some parts of the state. Look out for them.

The postoffice at Falmouth was broken into and robbed of a small amount of money one night last week.

Wheat harvest is on in many sections of the state and the grain is in better condition than for many years.

McCracken county will spend $13,000 this year in the improvement of public roads. How about Wolfe county?

It has been so dry in some sections of Grant county that farmers have been hauling water to make a tobacco season.

The body of Mrs. Charles Wesel, who suddenly disappeared from Ashland last February, was found in a badly decomposed condition in the Ohio river last week.

In a raid by government officials in Owsley county, recently, two moonshine stills were captured, one being a very large one. The officers failed to locate the owners.

In the Stoops neighborhood, of Bath county, a severe hail storm last week nearly ruined the young corn and tobacco and killed young turkeys and chickens in great numbers.

Farmers along the Licking river thru Nicholas county were compelled last week to replant their corn and tobacco, which had been destroyed by high waters in the low lands.

The jury in the case of Frank and Fred Prather, charged with the killing of Grant Stamper, which was tried at Grayson last week, disagreed and the trial goes over to the October term.

The colored laborers, including farm hands and cooks, struck for higher wages in Boyle county. The employers refused the request and a dozen or more colored families have moved to Cincinnati.

What is believed to be the largest lemon ever grown in Kentucky was one by a Lexington woman. It weighs 25 ounces, is 14 1-2 inches in circumference one way and 13 inches the other way.

Sherman Caudill, aged 20, was drowned in Clay Lick branch, in Greenup county, last week. His home was in Magoffin county and he had been working on a farm near the scene of the accident.

Stringent rules have been adopted by the state department of education to prevent the sale of examination questions, and it has been held that if any teacher fails to attend the full session of a county institute that teacher's certificate shall be revoked.

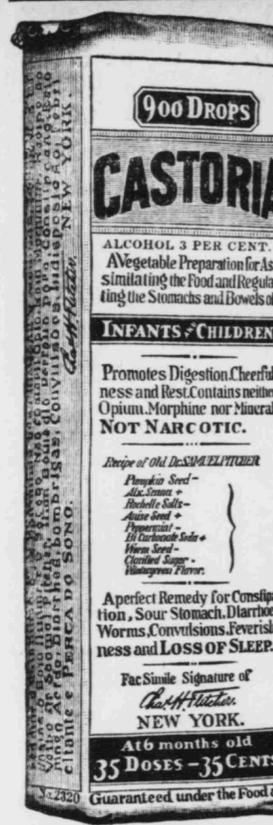

The lighting plant of the Christian church at Cadiz exploded just before service began one night last week. The interior of the church was made a wreck and the large organ demolished. About 50 persons were in the congregation at the time, but none were seriously injured.

It is reported from Williamsburg that Rev. Robert Vanover was killed in the Rock Creek Baptist church, in Whitley county, by the Rev. Isaac Perry. The reports are conflicting as to the cause of the trouble. It seems, however, that Vanover was up for trial on his own appeal from the former action of the church deposing him, and during the trial the difficulty arose which resulted in Vanover's throat being cut by the Rev. Isaac Perry.

The Court of Appeals has affirmed the judgment of the Logan Circuit court in which the court says that the County Board of Education has the power and authority to use all of the money levied and collected for school purposes in the county and may use its discretion as to how the money shall be spent. It was also decided that the county court has no discretion in levying tax asked for the County Board of Education, providing the tax called for shall not exceed the 20 cents on the hundred dollars, which is the maximum under the present law.

The mystery surrounding the discovery of the old box with gold coins in the Dix river recently near King's Mill, in Boyle county, has been solved. E. Flaig, one of the oldest citizens of Danville, states that prior to the Civil war that section of Kentucky was infested with bank robbers, and that a bank in Nicholasville was robbed at the time and the robbers tracked by a posse to the Dix river cliffs, where the trail was lost. In later years a member of the gang on his death bed in Lexington, confessed to the act and stated that a box of coins secured were dropped in the waters of Dix river at King's Mill. Several searches were made since that time, but to no avail. The box found last week by Geo. Kellar at that point contained several gold coins, and it is quite evident that the bed of the stream is the resting place of many more shining shekels.
