LATEST NEWS AND INCIDENTS.

Matters of Interest That Are Happening Around Town.

Miss Fannie Bodge returned Wednesday from Miami.

We call attention this week to the new display advertisement of the G. H. Fernald Hardware company, on page 5.

Transients and the traveling public, when in Titusville, are invited to try Alpine Cottage, centrally located, excellent table, reasonable rates. Mrs. Kate Myers, proprietress.

Samuel H. Wienges, clerk of the circuit court of Alachua county, was in Titusville last Saturday in the interest of Gainesville as the location for the Florida State university, and paid THE STAR office a pleasant call.

Mr. D. B. Pritchard started work this week on a small power boat, about twenty feet long, modeled on the wedge principle, which is the prevailing lines for speed. He will install a 1 1/2 h. p. kerosene engine. W. F. Futch is doing the work.

A terrific squall from the north came swooping down upon us just after 1 o'clock Monday afternoon, causing several boats to drag anchors and blowing down the immense shed that Capt. P. Nelson was erecting at his boat ways to cover the Goodall yacht, Nemo, on the north and providing an extra large space alongside that yacht on the south.

Capt. A. H. Johansen and wife, of the life saving station just west of Lemon City, arrived here last Thursday and spent the time until Tuesday at Chester Shoals with Mrs. Johansen's father and mother, Capt. and Mrs. O. A. Quarterman. This was a very pleasant visit, as from here Capt. and Mrs. Johansen went to Moultrieville, S. C., near Charleston, where the captain will have charge of the life saving station at Sullivan's Island, the most important station on the Atlantic coast.

VARIETY ENTERTAINMENT.

An unpropitious evening, no doubt, kept many away from the opera house Wednesday night, the occasion being a benefit entertainment for the Titusville baseball nine. The receipts, however, amounted to something near $28.00 from a small admission fee charged and the sale of refreshments.

The following programme was rendered: March Ethelbert, Titusville Orchestra. Recitation, Magnolia Nine. Miss Mary and Master Pierre Titus Song, Sing Me to Sleep, Mrs. C. J. Denham. Recitation, Daisy's Fate, Miss Mary Halle. Dance, Fisher's Hornpipe. Master Wilson Taylor. Recitation, The Minuet, Miss Lollie Penney. Cornet Solo, Annie Laurie, con varie, Miss Grace Reed. Song, Gondolier's Serenade, Mrs. F. A. Morgan. Recitation, Huldah's Offer, Miss Florence Colmar. Way Down East, Titusville Orchestra. Song, Bright Eyes Good Bye, Mrs. C. J. Denham. Recitation, Casey at the Bat, Mrs. E. E. Rollins.

Cake Walk. Miss Mabel Reynolds, Master Richard Robbins. Miss Grace Reed's cornet solo of Annie Laurie, with variations, was very nicely rendered and she was so roundly applauded that she responded with an encore, playing Hornpipe Polka.

Mrs. Denham pleased the audience perfectly in her selection of Vanalstyn's latest popular hit, Bright Eyes, Good Bye. The continued applause led her to repeat the catchy chorus of this just out song. Mrs. Denham's first song, Bingham-Greene's lullaby, Sing Me to Sleep, is a lovely aria which she sang with great credit and in her usual good voice.

Mrs. Morgan sang Pendleton's popular song, You, You, You, in response to the applause that followed her most excellent rendition of Gondolier's Serenade, a splendid song for her contralto voice.

Miss Colmar's recitation was a most pleasing one, her costume very appropriate and her impersonation of Huldah splendid.

Mrs. Rollins made a decided "hit" as "Casey at the Bat." Her energetic handling of the stick would have put many a batter to shame while her fetching "hit" on the captain of the Titusville striking out was a good one, but unfortunately Capt. Titus was not present. Miss Lollie Penney and Miss Mary Halle were exceedingly fine in their recitations. In fact it is doubtful if they could have been more faultlessly rendered. The recitation of little Mary and Pierre Titus were also very creditably given.

The cake walk was well received and Miss Reynolds and Master Robbins gave a reputation of their fancy dance. Fisher's Hornpipe, danced by Master Wilson Taylor, is also deserving of special mention, the dance being nicely executed.

After the programme was completed the regular Wednesday night dance followed, lasting until the midnight hour.

TAYLOR COTTAGE, FURNISHED.

For rent for the summer season. Terms $16.00 per month.

DAYTONA WINS BY 15 TO 3.

The Daytona baseball team played the Titusville at this place yesterday afternoon and Morris' men gave the home team the worst drubbing they have had. The score stood 15 to 3 in favor of Daytona.

The home boys took their defeat in good style, and the kindest feeling prevailed on both sides.

Titusville could have done effective work, but Captain Titus had been ill, and should not have played at all himself. The consequence was that our boys lost their nerve at the start and could not regain it.

Daytona played a fine game and managed it well. Their work in fielding showed practice.

Each team having won a game we hope that the decisive third contest can be arranged to be played with the Fountain City boys at an early date.

Mr. George Bayles, wife and babies, of Miami, passed through Titusville Wednesday on their way north for a month or so, where they will spend the vacation which Mr. Bayles has been granted by the F. E. C. Railway company.

Over a thousand large posters advertising Titusville's Fourth of July celebration were distributed up and down the whole east coast this week, and the result will be that the people will be sure to come here next Tuesday to help us celebrate.

NEGRO CONVICT CAUGHT.

One of the negro convicts at Delephine named Dick Jones, who was recently sent up for two years for being the principal in the stealing of furniture from the Hotel Indian River a year or so ago, got away from the guard Monday morning, but was captured about dark that evening by Albert Wilson, of Frontenac, whose boys first saw him in the river near the old Hardeeville wharf with just his head above the water. He was naked when caught, having thrown away his convict clothes and taken to the river to escape detection and being tracked by the dogs. He was carried back to the camp the same evening. Jones made his escape by falling into a deep ditch alongside the railroad track when the guard was not looking. When his escape was noticed the guard gave charge of his squad to another guard and went after his man, but could not trail him. Jones said he was sitting among the bushes on the bank of a creek near Frontenac when he saw Capt. Harrison and the dogs not fifty yards away and between him and the river. A negro convict has just about one chance in a hundred of making good his escape after he gets out of the stockade or away from the guard, still there are always plenty of them ready to make the attempt.

A SUBTERFUGE.

Editor of THE FLORIDA STAR.

In the last issue of THE STAR my challenge to Cocoa for a match game of baseball for a purse of $100 is supposed to be accepted by Cocoa, when in reality it has not been. Now they come with the proposition that we leave out Pellicere because he originally hailed from Daytona. The proposition is ridiculous for the very obvious reason that the "Daytona mascot" is now a resident of Titusville, and will be for an indefinite period. He is one of my fishing crew, in fact the Titusville nine is made up almost entirely of my crew. They are here to stay, and it is manifestly unfair to say that they are not Titusville men. I have recently had two other additions to my force of fishermen and they will be with me as long as I remain in the business, or as long as they render me such service as any employer would expect his help to render. Are these two men also to be barred because they were not born in Titusville? My idea of home boys is that they be not imported for a special game or a mere series of games, but that they are men regularly employed in the town and have no fixed period of time for returning to the place from whence they came. I do not care if a man is one day old in Cocoa, just so he is employed there and has become a resident of the town. We would not think of barring Mr. Harper, one of your best players, because he is only temporarily located with you.

Gentlemen, your proposition is a mere subterfuge, and that I am willing to leave with any fair-minded man. If you mean business say so and do not give us any more chaff. PISCUS TITUS.

BIG SAVING IN FREIGHT.

In an exhaustive report made to the railroad commission of Georgia last week by the rate expert of that body, Commissioner Joseph M. Brown, it is shown that there is saved to the shippers of Georgia annually $912,500 in freight charges by reason of the reduction in the tariff made under the recent settlement between this board and the railroads operating in that state.

We note with regret that little Leona Klippe's condition is not so satisfactory the past few days but hopes are entertained for a more favorable turn within a day or so.

Manager East, of the Indian River hotel, has just had a new galvanized tank erected to take the place of the cistern, which has proved of no use owing to a large fracture in the walls.

Miss Hattie L. Forde, of LaGrange, sister of Mrs. S. M. Moye, left Thursday last week to attend the Woman's Home Mission convention at Daytona, returning Saturday. Miss Forde reports a nice time.

The board of county commissioners met Wednesday and audited the usual monthly expenditures for the county. Following the advice of their counsel they decided to postpone the matter of restricting the county until the meeting in next month.

Dr. E. R. Blakewood, pharmacist for the Red Cross drug store, has been granted an extended vacation of several months by his special request, and will visit different sections of the south in that time. Mr. Harvey D. Waugh, of West Palm Beach, has taken Dr. Blakewood's place.

Mr. G. Nolle, who sold his orange grove at Shiloh for the snug sum of $8,500 a few days ago to Mr. A. M. Terwilliger, was in town this week and in reply to our question as to where he expects to locate said he had not as yet decided that matter. He is prospecting for a location that will have favorable shipping facilities.

Mr. Lyman H. Singleton and wife, from West Palm Beach, and Mrs. H. B. Hersey, who is spending the summer at LaGrange, were in town Saturday. Mr. Singleton was on his way to Oak Hill, where he will spend a part of his summer vacation. Mrs. Hersey, it will be remembered, was a resident of Titusville about twelve years ago. She will spend the summer with her cousin, Mrs. C. C. Curtis. THE STAR acknowledges receipt of a pleasant call.

The Daytona Gazette-News of last Saturday makes the following mention of the ball game at that place Thursday between the Eau Gallie and Daytona nines: A team of ball tossers from Eau Gallie came to Daytona Thursday and met their Waterloo by a score of 10 to 2. The Daytona boys were at their best and played a remarkably good game which, but for a set up in last inning would have resulted in a white wash for Eau Gallie. The Eau Gallie boys played a good game, but were outclassed at every point.
