NOGI'S REGRET.

Why He Apologizes to Japan For Lack of Skill at Port Arthur.

The name of General Nogi, the real hero of Port Arthur, is now a household word all over the world, yet he writes letters which are models of modesty and self-restraint. One such letter, dealing with the siege of Russia's great stronghold, was addressed to the minister of war and has been translated by the Japan Mail. The letter is as follows:

"I wish you all the compliments of the season. The feeling I have at this moment is solely one of anguish and humiliation that I should have expended so many lives, so much ammunition and such a long time upon an unaccomplished task.

"At last General Stoessel's patience seems to have become exhausted, and he surrendered the fortress, so that in this part of the field a settlement has been reached. I have no excuse to offer to my sovereign and to my countrymen for this unscientific, unstrategic combat of brute force.

"Our preparations are now complete, and we are looking forward with great pleasure to tasting the sweets of a field campaign. Let me add one thing. You will be amused perhaps, but I am more than ever convinced of the inevitable injury done in the discipline and homogeneity of an army in the field by the pernicious habit of acquiring costly and useless toys in time of peace.

"Do not think that I speak too strongly when I express my absolute conviction that for preserving a military spirit simplicity is as essential as are economy and practicality in moral education. I do not refer merely to the period during which this war may continue, however long it may be.

"My point is that when they have ceased to hear the voice of the cannon our military men must never fall into the convenient and mischievous habit of regulating their clothing and appurtenances by unmilitary standards. "I thank you heartily for your kind condolences on the deaths of my sons, and I beg you to forgive my long display of military unskillfulness."

Fate of a Japanese Traitor.

Traitors among the Japanese officers are not treated pleasantly when their misconduct is discovered. Bennett Burleigh in his new book on Japan tells of an instance, says the Chicago News. Two Japanese transports laden with men, stores and heavy siege artillery had been suddenly attacked by the Russian Vladivostok squadron. One was sunk, and the other escaped with difficulty. Who had given the information of the sailing of these ships? "The Japanese made search to find out who had blabbed and ultimately traced it to a high official in Tokyo, one holding sea rank and engaged in the admiralty. A Russian check for a large sum was traced into his hands. He was confronted with it and his receipt signature thereon. Then he was led into a secluded room, where a number of his fellow officers had gathered. They stripped him naked, spat upon him and kicked him to death."

Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs, of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors, but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by Red Cross Pharmacy.

A Rosebush With a Record.
 John Kickbush, a farmer of Leeds, Mo., has a crimson Rambler growing over his house which he believes to be a champion in point of productiveness, says the Kansas City Star. The rosebush was planted two years ago. Up to a short time ago this season Mr. Kickbush had sold $12.65 worth of roses from the bush, and the other day he cut one bunch—ramblers grow in bunches—in which there were 180 roses.
