

DOINGS IN ALBANY.

Albany New York Special.—The Rev. J. M. Proctor, pastor of the Israel A. M. E. Zion Church, occupied his pulpit on last Sunday morning, and preached a very able sermon. In the evening the Allen's Christian Endeavor League, which is an auxiliary to the church, of which Miss Bertha Young, is the President, gave very interesting and able services, assisted by a trio of ladies, of the Home Training School of Christian Workers. Miss Conklin led the meeting, Miss Colt played and sang two sacred solos, Miss King spoke very ably of St. Paul, after which a collection was taken and $10.24 was raised. The choir sang several very fine selections which showed remarkable improvement, under the leadership of Prof. Richard Gardner, of Albany. Mrs. Emma Coles is their organist. Rev. J. M. Proctor is doing a great work in the church, notwithstanding the short time he has been pastor of the Israel A. M. E. Zion Church here; his spiritual, and intellectual work, exceeds any in recent years; he seems to have the co-operation of not only the members of the church, but the congregation as well. May God crown all of his efforts with success. The stewardesses should be spoken of. Sister Mrs. M. R. Hoyt is President. These ladies are always ready to work for the interest of the church. The Colored American can be had at No. 18 Congress St., Albany.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

Miss Lizzie E. Scott was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph S. Jones at 498 K St., Southwest, the home of the bride, Wednesday evening, November 9th. The wedding was a quiet one but a very pretty one. A large number of friends of the bride and groom were in attendance, and the couple were the recipients of many substantial presents from their legion of friends. Rev. Wallace, of the Zion Methodist Church, tied the nuptial knot. They will be at home to their friends Sunday, November 13th, from five until eight p. m. Miss Scott is one of the best known young women of South Washington, and is a product of the public schools of this city.

She holds an important position in the office of the Recorder of Deeds, as copyist, and has many friends around the City Hall. Of Mr. Joseph Jones, the groom, too much can not be said. He is one of our best, and well known young men, and was born in South Carolina in the early seventies. He has resided in this city for the past twelve years, where he has held many positions of honor and trust. He has done some newspaper work, and is a practical hotel man, and now holds the position of checkman at the Senate restaurant.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Costley spent a few days last week at the Frederick Fair. This historic old town, made famous by "Barbara Fritchie" is the home of Mr. Costley, who usually makes an annual pilgrimage there.

The Buffalo Social Club has announced its second annual reception at the Washington Light Infantry Armory, for Tuesday evening, Nov. 15th. Ambler's Invincible Orchestra has been secured to enliven the occasion with music.
