ANACOSTIA

A unique smoker was given as a surprise to the young gentlemen of the Anacostia "PLEASURE SEEKERS" Social Club, Thursday evening, July 29th, by the young ladies of that club to show their appreciation of past courtesies and kindnesses. These members first went to the home of Miss Agnes Wathen, 222 W Street, and after an hour or more spent in smoking and card playing, they proceeded to the home of the Misses Mary and Marguerite Loudon, on Pleasant Street, where, in the meantime, the young ladies had gathered to await their coming to enjoy dancing.

Both homes were attractively decorated. That of the former hostess was prettily lighted with Chinese lanterns and had the card tables arranged on the lawn. Light refreshment was served. The home of the latter hostesses was also prettily decorated with the oriental lights. An artistically arranged table, decorated with red and green crepe paper and individual lighted candles, was set on the lawn and a watermelon feast was served. Folding fans of novel designs were distributed as favors.

The lawn party held by the Baptist Church last Monday and Tuesday nights was in every way a success. Much credit should be given the Committee on Arrangements.

Don and Helen Masson, of Valley Place, are spending their vacation with a camping party in Caleinia, Penna.
