Watch for the number in each issue.

The number will appear with Miss M. S. Leapley's Advertisement next Saturday.

ANACOSTIA

Mrs. Everett Suit and children are spending their vacation with relatives at Colonial Beach.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist Church visited Mrs. Jones of Congress Heights recently. It being her birthday many beautiful souvenirs were presented to her. It was in every respect a joyful occasion and long to be remembered.

Messrs. Lee Merchant, Harry Lessner and Odell Warner, of Baltimore, were visiting Mrs. A. R. Cator the past week.

Miss Fannie Cator of 42 Nichols Ave. is spending her vacation in Baltimore and Delaware.

RANDLE HIGHLANDS

Mrs. Z. S. White of Naylor Road and Sargeant White's wife and children are spending ten days at West Point, N. Y. after which Mrs. White with family will join her husband in the Philippines, at which place he has been for the last few months.

Do we appreciate the Waiting Room News Stand at the end of the bridge?
What would we do without it?

Watch for the number in next Saturday's issue. It will pay you?

Mrs. Estelle E. Wilson on Naylor Rd. has opened a new store for the sale of Groceries, Fancy and Dry goods. It will be known as the Sunny Glen Co.

TWINING CITY

Mrs. William Reed and family leave today for Scremerville, Va., where they are to spend some time among relatives.

Mrs. Keene of Carroll St. left last week for South Dakota to be absent some months in an effort to gain health.
