YOUNG ELOPERS HEADED OFF AT PISTOLS' POINT

Sixteen-Year-Old Nettie Driefus, of Alexandria, Walked Away With Canvasser. They Were Caught at Accotink.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU, ALEXANDRIA, VA., MAY 10.—Joseph Driefus reported to police headquarters last night that his daughter Nettie, aged sixteen years, had eloped with a man giving his name as Harry O'Donnell. It was at first thought that they had gone to Washington, but later information was to the effect that they had started toward Fredericksburg. Mr. Driefus, with two other men, started in a carriage in pursuit of the elopers. The couple left Alexandria about 8:30 o'clock last evening and at an early hour this morning the searching party came upon them at the station at Accotink.

looked up and the charge of abduction entered against him. When seen in his cell at police headquarters this morning, O'Donnell said that he was from Hanover county, and had been in this city a few weeks canvassing. He said that he and Miss Driefus left Alexandria last evening with the intention of going to Fredericksburg to get married. Walked to Accotink. They had walked as far as Accotink and were waiting for a train for Fredericksburg when Mr. Driefus and his friends arrived upon the scene. O'Donnell gave his age as twenty-two years, and said that he had known the young woman only a short time. Miss Driefus is about sixteen years old. When the case was called in the police court this morning Justice Caton continued it until tomorrow morning. O'Donnell has retained Attorney Brumback to conduct his defense.

LONGSHOREMEN EXPECT HELP OF TEAMSTERS

Combination Would Mean Great Strike for New York.

NEW YORK, May 10.—The Teamsters' Union officials called a meeting for tonight to determine whether or not to strike. It is expected that the men will decide to handle no freight at the piers where the longshoremen are striking.

Another severe blow at steamship lines will be the defection of the coal passers. With these men out it will be almost impossible to coal the big liners.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Leaders of the striking longshoremen, whose refusal to work has practically crippled harbor shipping all the week, declared today that the powerful Teamsters' Union will join them in the strike, and that before night every vessel in port would be tied up. If the teamsters quit work it will mean the greatest strike New York has seen in many years. With many of the coasting companies yielding, the strikers feel encouraged today to continue their fight against the trans-Atlantic lines which have been most vigorous in resisting their demands.

Ugly Spirit Shown. If the teamsters join the strikers they will refuse to handle freight on the steamship lines, which are in disfavor with the longshoremen. The strikers believe such a move would cause shippers generally to bring sufficient pressure on the steamship companies to end the strike by granting their demands. Business has already suffered heavy loss, owing to the partial tie-up, and merchants are becoming disgusted with the situation.

The police today made preparations to contend with increased rioting. An ugly spirit is being manifested by the strikers, and attacks on strike breakers promise to become general if an opportunity is given. Non-union men brought here from other cities are expected to arrive today. The strikers have pickets placed on guard watching for the arrival of the strike breakers. Any attempt to march them on to the docks is certain to result in violence.

Police Accused. Today the shipping companies charged that the police are in sympathy with the strikers, and not giving them the protection they need. Squads of police guard the docks, but there are not enough of them at any place to cope with a concerted attack by the thousands of strikers along the river fronts, and it is feared serious outbreaks may occur at any moment.

Queen Victoria Presents Son To Alphonso, King of Spain, And All Madrid Is Rejoicing

SPAIN REJOICES OVER THE BIRTH OF FUTURE KING

Capital Is Scene of Live-ly Fiesta and All Work Ceases.

MADRID, May 10.—The royal baby has been named Alphonso XIV, and will be so christened.

MADRID, May 10.—The royal flag of Spain floats over the royal palace today, and every true Spaniard who has gazed on that symbol of power has emitted a hearty cheer.

For that flag, flying from the Punta del Diamante, is the signal to the nation that a Prince of Asturias and heir to the Spanish throne has been born.

Madrid is wild with joy. Born Shortly After Noon.

The royal infant was born shortly before 1 o'clock, and inside of five minutes all Madrid knew of the arrival of a future king. The news was flashed immediately all over Spain, and the announcement was received with the greatest rejoicing.

As the royal flag was sent flying to the top of the palace, the guns in the fortress began to boom a salute to the new monarch. Every person in Madrid stopped work as the first cannon boomed out.

With breathless interest the populace counted the deep reports. On them depended the answer to the question which has been agitating all Spain for weeks—is it a boy or girl?

Moment of Suspense. Even the cheers which resounded through the streets in echo of the can-

TROOPS KILL AND TORTURE, SAY REFUGEES

Escaped Americans Accuse Guatemala of Outrages—Two Yankees In Jail.

PUERTO CORTEZ, May 10.—Americans arriving here today report that the Guatemalan government is committing unspeakable outrages. Women and children are not being spared.

A family of ten was massacred by soldiers near Guatemala City by order of the government, when Jose Olizera, a wealthy planter, incurred the enmity of the government.

When the soldiers went to arrest him he showed fight, and they shot him to death. Every member of his family was then slain.

Abelaz Crecare, one of Cabrera's political opponents, was tied to a stake in the middle of a hill of poisonous ants. His clothing was stripped from his body and the insects stung him to death.

The refugees report that two Americans, C. L. Lullen, of Little Rock, Ark., and Marshall F. Stammers, of Cincinnati, Ohio, are in jail in Guatemala City charged with alleged complicity in a conspiracy to assassinate President Cabrera.

BRYAN BLAMES ROOSEVELT FOR JAXSON LETTER

Censures the President For His Strictures On Moyer and Haywood.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 10.—Under the title, "Undesirable Citizens," W. J. Bryan devotes an article in his forthcoming Commoner to President Roosevelt's strictures on Moyer and Haywood. Mr. Bryan censures the President, saying:

"It is strange that it did not occur to him that his caustic criticism of the accused would have far more influence on the court and jury than any eulogies pronounced by friends of the accused. He does not confront the accused in court, and is not subject to cross-examination, and his letter is likely to have more weight with Roosevelt Republicans who may be on the jury than all the money the defendants can demand."

"No one should try to excuse the accused, if the evidence shows that they committed murder, and no one should want to convict them unless the evidence does establish their guilt."

KUROKI TALKS LIKE A SOLDIER AND DIPLOMAT

Visits United States Because It Is Nearest and, He Hopes, Will Be Dearest.

"I came to this country first, after never having been out of Japan, Korea, and Manchuria," said General Kuroki, to a Times reporter today in his rooms at the New Willard, "because, geographically the United States is the nearest country to us, and if I were a diplomat instead of a soldier I should say because I hope some day the American people will be nearest to us in our hearts."

General Kuroki laughs as he speaks. His eyes are honest and direct, and one knows that he laughs from his heart.

Captain Tanaka, who acts as the general's interpreter and aide-de-camp in almost every other way, translated the famous soldier's Japanese into the most correct and precise English. No translation of facial expression was needed.

Thinks Washington Beautiful. "Do I like Washington better than I do Tokyo?" the general repeated, to Captain Tanaka. "That, again, is a diplomatic question, and we agreed not to try to talk politics. I think Washington is beautiful. I was immensely pleased with the ideas of size, the spaciousness of the city. I had some pretty

START HUGHES BOOM

Rumor of Launching At Albany Meeting Tomorrow.

Possible Reply To Taft Developments In Ohio.

White House Shows No Alarm Over Situation.

With the Taft Presidential movement under full sail, political interest today centered in New York, and in the meeting of the Republican State committee to be held at Albany tomorrow. Persistent rumors that a Hughes boom will be started at that time, by adoption of resolutions indorsing the public utilities bill and some declaration in favor of Hughes for President, have failed to bring forth any sign from the White House. In Administration circles it is declared that the Albany meeting called for Saturday has had no attention, and nothing is known as to what may be the plans or proceedings at that time.

Hughes vs. Taft.

The possibility of a Hughes movement being started as an answer and a challenge to the Taft developments is regarded here as serious and as presenting the most serious present threat to Taft. The President is now recognized as the avowed manager of the 1908 preliminaries, and Hughes looks to his opponents like the only man with a fair chance to divide the Roosevelt following. It is pointed out that a definite development committing the New York organization to both Hughes and his legislative program would constitute a victory for the governor which would compel recognition of him as the man most likely to get in the way of Taft.

Foraker Pleased.

Senator Foraker came to Washington today, but declined to talk of the harmony program in Ohio. He was pleased with the course of events, and his friends are confident that his re-election will not now be seriously opposed, in spite of the insistence of the Taft people that Foraker has secured no terms whatever, but has simply made an unconditional surrender. The Senator has come here to resume his part in the Brownsville inquiry, which will not be pressed with any less vigor, on his part, than if there had been no peace movement in Ohio. The Senate committee will resume hearings in the case Tuesday.

Ohio Love-Feast.

The Ohio Republican love feast at Columbus Wednesday, when the State committee, State officials, county chairmen, representatives, State executive committee, and other leaders will meet, is expected to put the finishing touches on the peace program. It will indorse Taft, and the only uncertainty is whether it will also indorse Foraker, the Foraker people believing it will.

KILLS HER BABY; SHOOTS HERSELF

PITTSBURGH, May 10.—Jealously aroused by her husband's attentions to another woman is thought to have prompted Mrs. Carrie Cigsworth, thirty-one years old, of 307 Jackson street, Allegheny, to murder her six-months-old son, and then kill herself.

Alexander Cigsworth, the husband and father did not know anything of the double tragedy until 6 o'clock this morning, when he went to call his wife for breakfast.

ABE HUMMEL L.OSES APPEAL

NEW YORK, May 10.—By a unanimous decision the appellate division of the supreme court today affirmed the conviction of Abraham H. Hummel on the charge of conspiracy in the Dodge-Morse divorce tangle.

COAL COMPANY COMPLAINS AGAINST PENNSY ROAD

The Hillside Coal and Coke Company of Indiana county, Pa., has filed a complaint with the Interstate Commerce Commission, charging the Pennsylvania Railroad Company with such prejudicial rates, ill methods of car averages, and preferential treatment in favor of the complainant's competitors as to have caused it a direct loss in trade amounting to almost $200,000.
