DRIVEN ASHORE ON A REEF BY A HOWLING GALE

Survivors of Wrecked Steamer Independent Aboard Mariposa South Bound.

EXPERIENCES ARE TOLD

Craft Struck During the Dark Hours and Tore a Hole by Scraping on the Reef.

The crew of the wrecked steamer Independent were aboard the Mariposa this afternoon bound for Seattle. The boat struck on a charted reef on the coast of Middleton Island at 4:50 o'clock on the morning of October 6th and is a total loss, having sunk in twenty fathoms of water. The members of the crew escaped in the dories but lost all of their personal effects with the exception of the clothing they wore. The ship's papers were saved by the captain.

At the time of the wreck, according to the story told by Captain Miller, the Independent was steering a course to clear the island by about 15 miles, but a southeaster was blowing and a strong current was setting towards the island which set the boat on the reef in the darkness. She struck three times before she finally settled for the last time.

At the time the Independent struck first it was dark, but the crew did not abandon her until 8 o'clock in the morning. The last time she struck the rudder was carried away and she was entirely helpless. The wind was blowing so hard that the regular dory crews could not handle the boats and they were being driven on the lee side of the island where the shore was absolutely straight up and down. The crews were doubled up in the dories and they were able to row away from the rocks and round the island.

The survivors were entirely without food of any kind, but were supplied by Mr. Ibeek, who keeps a fox ranch on the island and were taken to Cordova by him in his gas boat. The Independent was owned by the National Independent Fish Company, of Seattle.

PRESIDENT IS PLEASED WITH KIND APPLAUSE

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 13.—President Wilson was the guest of honor yesterday of the Highway Day held in connection with the Centennial of Indiana's admission to the Union. President Wilson declared at a non-partisan luncheon that when he heard the kinship applause given him in Indianapolis he believed that the people approved his interpretation of the spirit of America.

After saying he was interested particularly in the American flag of the United States, the President smilingly declared that he knew there were Republicans present who were as good Americans as he, and that after fighting for a few more weeks both parties would work for the common good of the nation.

The Emperor of Russia is said to be the finest royal singer in the world.

We sympathize with the man who has only one suit, but it is largely his own fault. It's a mighty shabby quilt into good order. We keep whole families in trim because of their forethought and our skill.

INTERNED SAILORS TO BUILD GERMAN VILLAGE

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—A German village is being constructed by the interned sailors of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich and the Kronprinz Wilhelm in a corner of the Philadelphia navy yard, where they will live under a guard of United States marines until the close of the war. When the two vessels were conveyed here from Norfolk a tract of about nine acres was set aside for the sailors along the back channel, where their ships are anchored. A small church, a windmill and a farm buildings are being erected and the 774 men who were attached to the two vessels will organize a community patterned after a small town in Germany. They will raise vegetables in season and another tract has been laid out as an athletic field for their uses.

eral government would pay the same costs as it does to the private parties at the present time for their maintenance and care.

"I would endeavor to get legislation allowing all moneys from the Forest Reserve fund to be expended the Division in which the forest reserve is located.

"I would endeavor to have house bill No. 59 amended so that natives would not have the right to arrest or pass upon the guilt or innocence of white people.

"I believe the present law should be amended, or a new law enacted not allowing as the present law does, so much chance for illegal voting. I believe the election law should provide for the registration of voters in all municipalities for all elections, Territorial as well as municipal.

"I believe the present compensation law should be amended so that liability companies could not settle with beneficiaries of the law without a settlement being approved by either the Attorney-General or a Commissioner appointed to adjust claims.

"I would endeavor to have the Legislature memorialize Congress to give us a full Territorial form of government, the same, as that allowed other Territories, recognizing the Territory's right to enact laws governing all of its utilities and institutions, including schools, roads, the police powers, the liquor and gambling and kindred matters. In short, the government of Alaska should be vested in the people of Alaska instead of the Departments at Washington. With a full Territorial form of government the people of Alaska could solve their own problems, and provide for the development of the Territory and the expansion of its business."

MERCHANTS ASK CHANGE IN THANKSGIVING DATE

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 13.—The Merchants' Association of Kansas City has taken the initiative and sent a message to President Wilson asking him to move the date of Thanksgiving up to November 23. The merchants have asked associations of 30 large cities to join in the movement. They say that if Thanksgiving falls on November 30 as scheduled their Christmas business would be crowded into three weeks.

WICKERSHAM, THE RAILROAD AND POLITICS

Dispatches from Seward say Delegate Wickersham accused the Democrats of trying to drag the Alaska railroad into politics, and he is reported to have declared that the railroad was secured through the co-operation of Democrats and Republicans.

This is characteristic of Delegate Wickersham. He never met an issue face to face in his life. The truth is that the ALASKA RAILROAD BECAME A POLITICAL ISSUE WHEN WICKERSHAM SAID AT JUNEAU, DOUGLAS AND ELSEWHERE, quoting literally and word for word, "I GOT THE RAILROAD."

The Delegate thought it was all right to make a political issue out of the railroad as long as he thought he could make it count for himself. When the records of Congress and the testimony of those who know were presented and disposed the Delegate's contention, he seeks to withdraw the proposition as a campaign issue.

The fact is Wickersham has boasted about getting the railroad for years, and he only seeks to divide the honors with others when the produced record has shown the falsity of his claims, and demonstrated that the credit is chiefly due to others.
