

JUNEAU QUIETLY
CELEBRATES DAY;
DANCING TONIGHT

Alaska Day was generally observed today by all Federal and Territorial officers in Juneau and the offices were closed. The stores remained open and the post office gave service until noon. The banks closed for the day and their employees enjoyed a vacation. The public school did not open and the pupils availed themselves of the opportunity to witness the football game.

The big dance at the A. B. hall this evening, to be given by Camp Juneau No. 32, will end the day in a fitting manner. Alaska Day has been chosen by that Order for their annual social event and it is a fitting choice. The order is entirely one of the North.

The preparations for the dance are being carried out today and the hall is being beautifully and appropriately decorated by a force of the members under the direction of Mrs. John E. Marshall, who with other ladies, wives and friends of the A. B.'s have taken a great interest in seeing that this dance is one of the largest social events of the season. The big tank is being tastefully and attractively decorated, the scheme followed out being novel and entirely new.

A good orchestra has been secured and as the floor is the best, a good time is assured.

IS OUT FOR WILSON
