LIFE INSURANCE MAN BOOSTS THIS SECTION.

Major A. E. Ransom, division superintendent of the Northern Life, a Pacific Coast insurance company, with home offices in Seattle, is spending a few weeks in Southeastern Alaska in the interests of his company.

Speaking of his trip, Major Ransom informed a representative of The Empire that he was highly pleased with the results so far and that it was a matter of congratulation that the future of this section was on a sound foundation.

Major Ransom is particularly well satisfied with the business outlook in Juneau and Douglas and is somewhat elated over the success he has had in a business way while here.

HOTEL AND OPERA HOUSE.

John T. Spickett expects his new hotel and opera house will be ready for the public about December 15. It will be known as the Orpheum. Mr. Spickett's Douglas opera house will have its initial opening next Monday night.

J. S. Duffy, late of Iditarod, and H. C. Vaughan, of the Yukon, were among the callers at The Empire office yesterday.

J. Langseth, formerly with the Douglas Island News, has returned from a prospecting trip on Lynn Canal.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Spickett returned recently from a brief visit to Vancouver.

B. L. Thane, manager of the Alaska Gastineau Company, and Harry Wollenberg, chief engineer of that company, visited Sheep Creek yesterday on the gas boat Santa Rita, accompanied by Capt. J. M. Tanner.

known pro... well from the Berner's... at night. Mr. Wahl has been out for the past few weeks doing assessment work on some properties in which he is interested.

The Berner's Bay country is looking good, Mr. Wahl says, and great activity is predicted for the future.
