Sparks From Douglas

DOUGLAS, Dec. 31.—The Curacao landed at Treadwell last night with 132 tons of freight for that place, and 24 tons for Douglas. The cargo was made up largely of merchandise.

A large crowd attended the Orpheum last night and the show was pronounced the best of the season.

The regular meeting of Camp Douglas, Arctic Brotherhood, has been postponed on account of the big dance at Treadwell tonight.

A baby girl arrived at the home of W. Feuks, last night. Dr. Sargent was the attending physician.

Miss Diteman, one of the popular teachers of the Douglas school returned on the Curacao from a visit to the States, and has resumed her duties.

Barney Conrad is confined to his room by an attack of la grippe.

The merchants of Douglas report a good trade, and the coming year promises to be the most prosperous in the history of Douglas.

Many of the people of the island will attend the dance at Treadwell tonight.

READY FOR THE BIG BALL TONIGHT

TREADWELL, Dec. 31. Tonight the grand ball to be given by the boys of the Cyanide plant will take place in the hall of the Treadwell Club. For days past the boys have been busy decorating the hall, and it goes without saying that the work has been done in an artistic manner. Nothing has been left undone for the comfort and pleasure of the guests. The ball programs have been received and are unique in all respects and will be well worth preserving as souvenirs. A large contingent is expected from Juneau, and in that event the ferry will make special trips between Juneau and Treadwell.
About six hundred invitations have been issued.

YOU ARE INVITED.

Messrs. Terry and Florance request the pleasure of your presence at the opening of THE TAVERN SALOON, formerly the Denver Grand, on NEW YEAR'S EVE, Tuesday evening, December 31, 1912,
DOUGLAS, ALASKA.

Terry and Florance will open there new house, the Tavern Saloon, formerly the Denver Grand, tonight. An excellent program has been prepared for the occasion.
