Sparks From Douglas

DOUGLAS, Feb. 12.—The steamer Jefferson arrived at 2:30 p. m. yesterday with 50 tons of freight for Douglas and about thirty sacks of mail and also a few passengers.

Arrangements are being made for the enlargement of the Douglas Skating Rink. It is to be extended 20x48 feet, as business is so rushing that it get overcrowded.

Miss Cassie King who is teaching the small children at St. Ann's school, is on the sick list, and her sister Mrs. Frank Pettigrove is taking her place. Mrs. W. H. Thomas is leaving on the Jefferson for the States.

Dr. Mathis, the dentist, has returned from Wrangell, and will be here permanently from now on. He will have offices in the Thomas building over the Rexall drug store.

The Orpheum reports large crowds every night. The program will be same as last night, tonight, and there is a screaming comedy by the Biograph Co., entitled "When the Fire Bell Rings."

Julius Jensen, the up-to-date hardware man, has installed a new 12-foot show case which will be especially for the display of tools.

O. Forestrom has accepted a position at the Salt Lake Bar.

"Bismark" the helper of Jules Jensen, has applied for a patent on his latest invention, "The Bottle That Can Not Be Filled." He can't fill it himself.

The Firemen's meeting at the Treadwell Club which was to be held tonight, has been postponed till tomorrow night as the ball in Juneau takes place tonight.

All Firemen are requested to appear in uniform tonight at 8:15 at the Treadwell wharf, and the 8:30 boat will take them to Juneau.

Ilma Aalto returned last night on the Jefferson from Seattle.

Last night the machine shop walloped the Cyanide plant boys by a score of 111 points.

There will be a meeting of the Alaska Catholic Club in their hall at 8 o'clock tomorrow night at which important business will be discussed.

Many natives and fishermen are out catching herring these days.

Chas. Sayes' new house is nearing completion.

Ed. Fox and Richard Johnson were in Juneau on an important business trip last night.

"Skunk" the favorite dog at the City dock, is going into the Interior. Josie Anderson, who works at Fred Hiles' has received word that her mother is dead.

Mrs. A. E. Morgan was an arrival on the Jefferson.

George E. James, the saw mill man, was an arrival on the Jefferson.

W. A. Olliver and son were arrivals on the Jefferson.

Services this evening in St. Luke's Episcopal church at 8 p. m., subject, "The Divinity of Christ," being the second series of special Lenten addresses on the Creed. Everyone is cordially welcome. There will be a short choir rehearsal after the service.

Chambers Bros., Butchers—Choice cuts a specialty.

Have you seen those hand made miners' shoes at Kronquist's. Oh, you can't wear them out. 1-16-t.

SIXTH ANNUAL BALL ELKS HALL TONIGHT

Tonight the Sixth Annual Ball of the Juneau Volunteer Fire Department will take place at Elks' hall. The boys have done all that can be done to make this a most enjoyable affair. Splendid music has been engaged for the occasion. A special late ferry will be run for the accommodation of island visitors who have signified their intention of being present.

Assurances are already offered that this dance will have a record attendance. Everybody who takes interest in the fire protection of the city is taking an interest in this social affair. The object of this benefit ball is well known and everybody is boosting for it.
