Sparks From Douglas

DOUGLAS, March 1.—There will be a dance at the Alaska Star Temperance hall tonight.
 BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Blake, a girl, at 7:30 this morning, weighing 11 lbs. Mother and child doing nicely.
 Odin G. Hewitt has resigned his position with the electricians at Treadwell and has accepted a position with the Alaska-Gastineau Mining Co., at Sheep creek.

George L. Johnson, was a Juneau visitor today.
 Wm. Marks, of Treadwell, left on the Princess May for a visit back East.

There was a meeting of the ladies of St. Luke's Guild this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Pearce.

There will be Holy Communion service in St. Luke's Episcopal church tomorrow morning at 11 a. m. sharp. Sermon by Rev. G. E. Renison. Everyone is cordially welcome. Wednesday evening service each week at 8 p. m., with address, followed by choir rehearsals.

A large crowd of ladies attended the swimming tank and gymnasium yesterday and last night.

The regular Saturday night show will be presented at the Treadwell Club tonight.

The duck and ptarmigan season is over today.
 Fire was started in the boiler room at the sawmill today and the mill will be started up in a few days.

Tom Paul, the Slavonian who was fined $50 the other day by Judge Henson for smashing two doors, last night ran into Joro Samovich, at the "300" mill, and a fight ensued. This morning the two were worse for wear and they will be tried in Juneau today.

The Scotch dance was held last night and all present enjoyed themselves.

There will be music at the Tavern Cafe tomorrow between five and seven. Last night amid the applause of their rooters the Mexican team downed the store boys in a close bowling match, by a score of 2,183 to 2,120. Almost 300 people were present. C. E. Bennett furnished an orchestra. The store boys are just five points behind the machine shop team for first place, and it is expected that they will pass them very soon. They also intend to give a luncheon in honor of Mr. Bennett in the near future.

There will be a meeting of the Douglas Island baseball fans next Monday night at the Treadwell fire hall, at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

QUARTERS FOR HEIDELBERG LIQUOR CO.

The new quarters being created on Front street for the Heidelberg Liquor Company are fast nearing completion. The design and workmanship both show examples of fine art.

The front is done in stucco work above the entrance with an ample vestibule and plate glass front below. Two large Roycroft doors swing invitingly in. The walls are paneled in abbreviated mission style, while the upper parts are dressed in harmonious tones. The whole has a very pleasing effect.

The grand opening has been set for Wednesday, March 5.

WANTED—Furnished or unfurnished of three or four rooms. Apply Mrs. Fox, Winter & Pond's Studio. 6t.
