Sparks From Douglas
 Big Attraction For Douglasites

DOUGLAS, March 29. — Homer's Odyssey the great $200,000 masterpiece comes to the Lyric theater for the one day, Tuesday April first. This production created a sensation in Juneau, and played to packed houses. It will prove a rare treat to Douglas citizens. The management of the Lyric has been put to an enormous expense securing the world's greatest masterpieces in films, and deserves the support of the Douglas people.

DOUGLAS, March 29.—The weekly show will take place at the Treadwell Club tonight.

Tonight at the Alaska Star Temperance hall another of those enjoyable dances will take place, the admission is free.

A number of Douglas people took in the All-Alaska Sweepstakes entertainment and dance in Juneau last night.

The steamer Humboldt arrived at Douglas at about four o'clock yesterday afternoon from Seattle with mail, passengers and 130 tons of freight. She was at the Douglas dock about four hours.

Tonight the Douglas firemen will hold a meeting at the Alaska Labor Union hall to transact important business, and also to partake of a Dutch lunch.

Tomorrow afternoon if the weather permits, Jack Willson's soccer football team will tackle Juneau on the latter's grounds.

The Ferris Tea Garden hereby extends a general invitation to the people of Douglas Island to sample a special blend of imported tea and coffee to be served Tuesday, April 1, at 8 o'clock, at which time other incidentals consisting of songs, fancy stunts, games and numerous other forms of amusements will be furnished. Come and bring your friends. A small charge will be made for the tea and coffee, the remainder of the evening's entertainment will be gratis. The proceeds will go to St. Luke's Guild.

Services in St. Luke's Episcopal church tomorrow morning at 10:30 a. m. The Easter music of last Sunday will be repeated. Subject of sermon, "Realizing Easter Every Day." Everyone is cordially welcome. Sunday School meets at 10 a. m.

DOUGLAS GETS A FREE ENTERTAINMENT

DOUGLAS, March 29.—Douglas was given a free entertainment yesterday afternoon that started with a dog fight and terminated in the police court. It was the warmest time of the day and everybody was out on the sidewalks of the town getting some fresh air. A Belgian came up the street with a bulldog, "Rover," one of Coughlin & Dahl's St. Bernard's did not like the looks of the bulldog, and a fight started. "Rover" was getting the best of the fracas, and Colin Blain mixed with the dogs. He was only trying to stop the contest, however. The Belgian seemed to like the way the dog fight was going, so he mixed with Colin. Then others mixed and all of them went down to Judge Henson's court, where the Belgian was fined $10 and costs.
