M. J. O'CONNOR IS MAYOR OF DOUGLAS

DOUGLAS, April 15.—M. J. O'Connor was elected Mayor of Douglas last night by the members of the new City Council. There was no opposition. P. H. Fox was chosen City Treasurer, John Henson, City Clerk and Magistrate, and William Shafer, City Marshal. There was no opposition to any of the candidates.

Mr. O'Connor has served Douglas efficiently at Mayor before, and all the others elected to office have proved themselves to be capable officers of the city in the past.

The new and the old councils met together. In addition to the election of the new officers, routine business was transacted.

DOUGLAS PEOPLE BOOST THEIR SECOND CARNIVAL

DOUGLAS, April 15.—Everybody is becoming interested in the second annual carnival that will be held at Douglas next month. All the wide-awake merchants are showing special interest in the carnival this year, as they propose to make it excel the very successful carnival that was given last year.

It has been proposed that the funds derived from the carnival shall be divided between the Civic Improvement Club and the Douglas baseball team. Whether this shall be done or not, it is conceded that both are worthy causes.

TREADWELL BOWLING BATTLE WILL WAGE THIS EVENING

DOUGLAS, April 15.—Beginning at 8:15 o'clock this evening the Treadwell Club bowling alleys will be the scene of a sanguinary battle for supremacy among the machine shop bowlers. The game will be between the regular shop's team and a bunch of "bowling correspondence school graduates," captained by Prof. Bennett.

DOUGLAS FIREMEN HAVE INTERESTING MEETING

DOUGLAS, April 15.—The Douglas Fire Department held an interesting meeting last night, and transacted much business in connection with department matters. Carl Erickson was elected secretary to succeed J. A. Atchison, who has gone away. Dr. Mathis and two others were elected members of the department.

DOUGLAS, April 15.—There will be a social dance at the Treadwell Club tomorrow night. The music will be furnished by the Treadwell orchestra. All the latest music will be played.

Tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Colin Blain the St. Luke's Guild will hold an important business meeting.

Mrs. Frank Tascher is teaching for a few days in the place of Miss Warner, who is on the sick list, at Treadwell.

Little Alethia Fenster is on the sick list.

Julius Jensen is a passenger on the City of Seattle for Douglas. He is returning after spending a few months enjoying life in the States. He was expected to bring a bride, but has come alone.

The local swimmers are getting in trim for the water carnival on April 23rd.

A reception will be held tomorrow evening at the parlor of the Congregation church complimentary to Rev. Owen Umstead and family and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Shannafelt, who are new arrivals. A short program will be rendered and light refreshments served. Everybody will be welcomed. Jack Chesney who has been confined in the St. Ann's hospital is out and around again.

Go to 'LEIVER'S' FOR A GOOD chew or smoke.

CARO & CO. INSTALL FIRE DEPARTMENT

J. B. Caro & Company are installing a modern fire department of their own for the protection of their store building and wholesale stock of goods on Main street. They have put in five large 40-gallon, and six five-gallon chemical fire extinguishers of the latest design, and are now installing two hydrants that will connect with the water mains. For use with the hydrants they have secured 200 feet of fire hose and nozzles.

BANK EXPERT SAYS BUSINESS IMPROVES

"The present improved business conditions are reflected in the statements of April 4, rendered by our banks in compliance with the official calls of the comptroller of the currency and state bank examiner," said John E. Price, the bank examiner, yesterday.
