BEN HUR CLAIMS ATTENTION NOW

The recital of Ben Hur, which occurs on the night of May 29, is now the absorbing topic among society folk. Ever since Mrs. J. C. McBride announced the plan of presenting this great classic for the benefit of the public library fund there has been a great deal of interest manifested among the lovers of high class entertainment and of those who are anxious for Juneau to have a suitable library. The reading will be supplemented by the assistance of the Orpheus Club, the Juneau Ladies' Musical Club, and the Juneau High School Band, three excellent musical organizations.

The generous spirit that prompts this action will undoubtedly meet a good response from the people of Juneau. The money to be realized will every bit be devoted to the cause of the new public library. Tickets will soon be on sale and the money will be turned over to Mr. Nowell of the school board to be used for that purpose. With extra donations it will be possible to secure a more complete library to be placed in a library room in the new school building, under protective rules. The entire proceeds (actual expenses only deducted) will go toward the purchase of books—reference and fiction.

Admission will be $1.00 for adults; school children of the 5th grade and up 50 cents. There will be no complimentary—even newspaper men and performers are buying tickets.
Tickets are now on sale at both Barragar's Postoffice Store and at Nelson's at the corner of Second and Seward streets.

GLASGOW NEWSPAPER MAN WANTS A BROWN BEAR
J. C. Dunwater, one of the owners of the Glasgow Herald, Scotland, is doing Alaska. He has heard something about the big brown teddy bears out to the Westward and wants to get one, hence he is now aboard the Alameda enroute to the land of the Kodiak grizzly. Clifford Little, the well known huntsman guide is accompanying the Scottish newspaper man and has guaranteed to bring him face to face with one of the monsters. They will go to Seward and from there move at easy stages over toward Sand Point where it is expected that the trophy sought will be found.
Clifford Little, the guide, and Mr. Dunwater today took out hunting licenses and there remains nothing but the finding of the big brown fellows to complete the object of the trip.
