Juvenile Bostonians
Winning the North

The Juvenile Bostonians are certainly winning the North. Manager John T. Spickett, of the Orpheum, made a wise move when he went to Seattle to engage attractions for his nice little play house and he took a long step toward the goal of popularity by engaging a very talented company of entertainers to give the opening performances. The Juveniles have had packed houses at each offering. To-night the Juveniles close their engagement with the musical comedy "The Daughter of the Regiment," and judging from the past it should be well received. Mother Lang's "Kiddies" have sung themselves into the hearts of Juneau's people and they will leave with the assurance of a warm welcome when they return again.

"Tips." The Juvenile Bostonians scored another great success in the production of "Tips" before a crowded house, standing room only sold before the curtain raised, in the Orpheum last night. The musical comedy has a swing and go to it that, like the sport suggested in the title, sweeps one of his feet. There is something doing all the time in "Tips"—not a line of dullness in it. Doris Canfield in the title role went back to her work as the interpreter of male comedy parts and scored as heavily as before. Patsie Henry and Thom Hellen performed in the same faultless manner as in all their work here in Juneau, demonstrating that they are both fiished artists. Billy O'Neil was seen in a new phase of work and gave proof of her dramatic ability. Ina Mitchell and Dixie White did not have the same opportunities as in other plays, but performed their tasks well. Little Stubby Myling gave a very clever bit of character work as did Daisy Henry. Vera Lockhart played her part very acceptably. The choruses were fine, and all of the musical numbers were well rendered. The trio, "Lindy Lou," by Vera Lockhart, Thom Hellen and Ina Mitchell; "I'll Get You," by Doris Canfield and Daisy Henry;

"Olivette" was given Saturday night and it was enjoyed to the full, by a packed house. Doris Canfield played the title role faultlessly displaying the versatile abilities with which she is endowed. Thom Hellen scored again in her splendid interpretation of the part of Valentine and Patsie Henry as the old sea captain earned the homage that is due to good acting. Ina Mitchell as the Countess was quite a success. Dixie White won a hand in the local shot about the need of a hotel in Juneau. Vera Lockhart and Patsie Henry were acceptable in the parts assigned them and Stubby Myling as Colquhoun was certainly a scream. Billy O'Neil made a very good Seneschal. All of the choruses were good and given with a vim that always win approval.

WHITEHORSE GIRLS PLAY GOOD BASEBALL
 Whitehorse has the unique distinction of having two baseball teams made up wholly of young women. They have six players to the team. The outfield was dispensed with—probably because the hitting ability of the players precluded the likelihood of the ball's ever reaching the outfield. The young ladies played their first game of the season last week, and, while the score was pretty high, it is said that they played the game as it is. The score was 27 to 22. The players included girls belonging to the best families of the little city by the rapids.

DAWSON GETS ALL-THE-MAIL-ALL-THE-TIME
 Although years have been spent in bringing it about, late Yukon mail contracts awarded show marked improvement in mail service over that of former times. The White Pass company was the successful bidder in the matter of carrying the Whitehorse-Dawson and Carcross-Atlin mails for the coming year and none of the bidders were more competent to handle the business. The contracts will be faithfully carried out by the company. But in the matter of the Whitehorse-Dawson mail, the new contract stipulates that all the mail all the time must be transported. This means much for the Dawson people who have hitherto suffered great inconvenience in securing other than first class mail during the closed seasons. Now, however, they will get their mail promptly regardless of the season or of trail conditions. And, in connection with the latter, that all classes of mail must be delivered at all seasons of the year, is a mighty argument in favor of the urgent demand for the federal appropriation for the Whitehorse-Dawson road which Dr. Thompson has so valiantly sought at Ottawa. It is now needed more than ever in order that the mail contract may be fulfilled and carried out.

JUDGE STATES PRESENTS OLD RELIC TO PIONEERS
 Juneau Igloo No. 6, Pioneers of Alaska, will come into the possession of a relic of more than usual interest when it receives from Judge Henry J. States, first United States court commissioner for Juneau, what is said to be the first piece of hardwood furniture of Eastern manufacture that ever came to Juneau. Judge States yesterday informed the officers of the Igloo that he will present it with a desk as soon as it has a place to put it that was used in the office of the first court of law to be established in this city. The desk was manufactured in the East, and was shipped to Oregon in 1870, from Ohio. Fourteen years later, in 1884, it was brought by Judge States to Juneau and used by him in his office for many years. The desk is made from hard Ohio maple and is in an excellent state of preservation. The Pioneers of Alaska will accept the desk and cherish it as one of the relics of Juneau's past, a collection of which it is the purpose of the organization to accumulate.

Another gratifying item in connection with the granting of Yukon mail contracts is that supplying the Klunene with a regular service, semi-monthly between Whitehorse and Champagne, and monthly between Champagne and Klunene—a very satisfactory service compared with that of previous years. Yukon may thank her member of parliament, Dr. Alfred Thompson, for the improvements in her mail service, he having been untiring in his efforts for such betterments of conditions.—Whitehorse Star.
