 OVER TOMORROW'S GAME
 DOUGLAS, June 14.—The people of Douglas are excited over the baseball game that will be played tomorrow between the Douglas island team and the Juneau team. It is expected to be the most interesting game that thus far has been played. Each team has one victory to its credit, and that adds interest to the coming contest. The line-ups will be strong and the game should be fast.
 A game was played here last night between the regular Douglas island team and the Douglas Yannigans. A new player was tried out by the Douglas team. The feature of the game was an unhuman pickup near first base by Kertis.

Marine Notes
 The Northwestern will arrive from the South tomorrow night or early Monday morning.
 The Admiral Sampson leaves Seattle tomorrow night and should arrive here Wednesday.
 The Humboldt arrived from Skagway early this morning and sailed South before noon.
 The Jefferson passed through to Skagway last night and is expected to sail South at seven tonight.
 The Georgia will leave at six tonight for Sitka.
 The Al-Ki arrived from the South at 4 o'clock this morning and sailed on return trip.
 The Delhi arrived and is unloading coal at the Pacific Coast dock. She brought considerable powder for Treadwell which has already been unloaded.
