Sparks From Douglas

DOUGLAS, June 26.—A large number from here and Treadwell attended the dance at Sheep creek last night. The main pipe line along St. Ann's avenue is being put down again. A huge sign is being painted on the side of Fox's store.

The Ladies' League of the Congregational church will meet today at the church.

The steamer Spokane arrived this morning from the South with a full list of tourists.

The Humboldt left for the South this morning with Chas Mann, for Petersburg, and Sitka Bill and James Hanson, for the Sound.

The Sons of Norway will meet next Saturday evening at the Odd Fellow's hall for the purpose of organizing.

For concrete chimney blocks see Johnson, the concrete man. 6-26-6t

TREADWELL FIREMEN
 SELECT RACE OFFICIALS

DOUGLAS, June 26.—At an important meeting of the Treadwell firemen at the Treadwell Club last night the following were selected for the judges of the hose racing on the Fourth of July: M. G. Rogers, Dr. C. F. Kuhn, and George Jones. E. P. Kennedy was selected as official starter and timekeeper. The hose racing will start at 8 a. m. on the Fourth, and will be followed by the children's exercises in the Treadwell Club.

JUNEANU AND DOUGLAS TO BATTLE TONIGHT

DOUGLAS, June 26.—The Juneau and Douglas football teams will battle tonight on the Douglas grounds, the game starting at 7 o'clock. The following will play on the Douglas team: Messrs. Ross, Brown, Morrison, Ljvie, Stewart, West, F. Robertson, J. Robertson, Richardson and Fraser.

NOW, NOW, NOW, at the Rogers' Store, Douglas, a hat or pair of shoes FREE with every suit, until the Fourth of July. 6-25-6t

Personal Mention

Misses Carrie and Leslie George left for Petersburg on the Humboldt this morning.

Dave Terwilliger, the well-known traveling man, arrived from Ketchikan on the Al-Ki this morning.

C. Buschman, the canneryman, left for Petersburg on the Humboldt this morning.

Mrs. A. P. Swineford, who has been visiting in Juneau, is returning to her home in Ketchikan on the Humboldt. Judge Royal A. Gunnison took passage on the Humboldt this morning for Wrangell where he goes on business.

Henry Moses left on the Humboldt this morning for an indefinite trip through the States. He expects to be gone one or two months.

W. G. Weigle, head of the forestry service in Alaska, with headquarters in Ketchikan, is in Juneau.

Oak Olson was a passenger for Skagway on the Humboldt.

Floyd Busch, assistant manager of the Humboldt Steamship Company, with offices in Seattle arrived up on the Humboldt and stopped over in Juneau until the return of the ship from Skagway, when he left for the South.

CHORUS GIRLS' VAUDEVILLE CONTEST

Among the features of the appearance of the Frank Rich Company at Juneau will be a chorus girls' vaudeville contest. On one of the four nights at this place which will be announced later, there will be a chorus girls' contest in which the members of the chorus will participate, each doing her favorite stunt, and the audience will be left to decide to which of the contestants cash prizes shall be awarded for producing the best entertainment.

PRESIDENT AND MRS WILSON OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

WASHINGTON, June 26.—President and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson quietly observed the 28th anniversary of their marriage yesterday. The President presented Mrs. Wilson with a pearl necklace, and the latter gave her husband a pair of gold cuff buttons.

MISS OLDS TO BE MARRIED SATURDAY

Miss Lila Brilliant Olds will be united in marriage to Clarence Edwin Carpenter, Saturday afternoon at five o'clock at the home of the bride. Rev. R. C. Blackwell will perform the ceremony. There will be no guests except the immediate families of the contracting parties. No cards have been issued, but a reception will be held at the Old's home after seven o'clock to which all the friends of the bride and groom are invited.

The bride is the daughter of the late John Olds and Mrs. Olds, and is the first white child born in Juneau. Miss Olds has lived here nearly all her life being absent at a California school only about one year. Her family is one of the prominent pioneer families of Juneau and Alaska. The groom is the son of J. D. Carpenter, of Treadwell. He came to this section with his parents while a small lad and has lived here practically ever since. He holds a responsible position in the mechanical department of the Union Iron Works.

The Daily Empire delivered in Juneau, Douglas and Treadwell for $1.00 a month.
