Douglas Wins Fourth Ball Game From Juneau

Etz, went to third on wild throw of Harris and scored on Johnson's hit; Wood struck out; Johnson hit safe, but was caught snoring on first by Mr. Hunt. Results—One run.

Neither side scored in the second and Juneau got one in the third, making the score a tie. Douglas-Treadwell annexed two more in the fourth while Juneau didn't get a man across until the eighth when they annexed two more. In the meantime the Islanders took one in the fifth and two in their half of the eighth, making a total of six to Juneau's three.

Bayless was robbed of two hits—one by the sensational catch of Dahl in the sixth and the other by Kalal in the eighth.

Knapp opened the ninth by hitting safe; Harris got a bingle sending Knapp to third and stole second himself; Coughlin came through with a three-bagger scoring Knapp and Harris; Etz popped to Johnson; Molloy sacrificed Coughlin home, tying the score; Kelly rolled a little one to Kertis and was out. Kalal slammed a wicked one up to Mike O'Connors store and went to second; Wood hit safe and Kalal trotted home with the winning run. The score: Douglas-Treadwell.

TIGERS vs. TERRIERS

The C. W. Young Tigers whipped the Alaska-Gastineau Terriers again yesterday by a score of seven to six—exactly the same score as the game over on the Island. This makes it four straight for the Tigers while the Terriers have won but one. Lawrence Reedy was not on the grounds or the story might have been different. It was a real snappy game and attracted quite a crowd. Drew is a new pitcher, uncovered from the woods of Salmon creek and he held the Tigers down after relieving Shepard. Following is the score by innings:

PERSEVERANCE vs. SALMON CREEK

The Perseverance Wolves came down the gulch Saturday night and were all mussy up by the Salmon creek Cubs on the Juneau grounds. When the dust settled down at the end of the game the Cubs had seven runs while the Wolves had but two. Both teams have southpaws on the mound. This is the first of the inter-division games, and others are scheduled to follow. The teams lined up as follows:
