Oliver, Markanen, Liljestrang, Galwas and Marks will play for Douglas. The probable line-up for Juneau includes Burgord, Kashaveroff, McKinnon, Casey and Herner. In addition there will be substitutes.
 Helmi Aalto has promised some new yells for the Douglas rooters that are said to be corkers.

MINER IS HURT AT THE BULLION MINE
 DOUGLAS, Jan. 10.—George Catoff, a Russian, was severely injured at the Bullion mine yesterday about noon. A rock hit him. He was at once taken to the St. Ann's hospital, where it was found that he had an injured arm, a cut in his head, a crushed leg and had lost a finger. It was a close call, but he is improving, and is much better today. He will recover.

MEXICAN MINE BOSS INJURED.

ORPHEUM ATTRACTIONS.

The Orpheum theatre tonight presents a well balanced bill, consisting of two good dramas and two first class comedies.

"The Surgeon," is a fine romantic drama by the Lubin company.

"A Cry for Help," a Biograph drama, carrying plenty of excitement.

"Buck's Romance," is a dandy Selig comedy of the West.

"Wife's Investment," a story of her realty deal, is a Pathe comedy and a good one.

Sunday Night.

The Orpheum program for Sunday night features "The Running Away of Doris," one of the best and classiest of the Edison short photo dramas. This picture was selected as being especially adapted and appropriate for a Sunday evening's entertainment. The story is true to life, the staging and acting splendid. All ladies will appreciate this picture.

"Pathe Weekly" includes many good features of interest, also "Mutt and Jeff."

"A Rival of Caruso," a good Cines comedy, of a would-be vocalist.

"Metamorphosis," a beautiful set of colored views of photographers' art.
