JUNEAU PEOPLE WED SECRETLY AT DOUGLAS

DOUGLAS, Jan. 21.—It was learned today that Mr. Ray Britan and Miss Eunice Groom, both of Juneau, stole a march on their friends and slipped across the channel Jan. 1, 1914, and were united in holy bonds of wedlock by the Rev. Owen Umstead in the Congregational parsonage. Mr. Britan is with the Alaska Gastineau company. He is a recent arrival from Seattle. The bride is a stenographer in one of the Juneau offices.

FUNERAL OF MARY BOYLE.

DOUGLAS, Jan. 21.—The funeral of Mrs. Mary Boyle was held yesterday afternoon at three o'clock. Rev. Owen Umstead officiating. Mrs. Boyle was known as one of the most beautiful Indian women of Alaska. She was born at Dalton Post in 1890. The husband and three sisters were present at the time of her death. She had two brothers in Haines.

ADVENTURES OF GREAT DETECTIVE AT LYRIC

DOUGLAS, Jan. 21.—The great, four-reel production of the life and Adventures of Lieut. Petrosino will be shown at the Lyric theatre tonight and tomorrow. This is a wonderful picture and should be seen by all. It portrays the life of the great detective, who traced the members of the Black Hand, and then was murdered by his countrymen in Italy. This picture has been secured by the management at a great expense and is such a picture as seldom has been shown in Alaska. The regular admission will be charged. It is sure to please. Save your coupons for prize night.

DOUGLAS STORES CLOSE AT HALF PAST SIX O'CLOCK

DOUGLAS, Jan. 21.—Beginning Monday night most of the Douglas stores observed the 6:30 o'clock closing agreement which they recently signed. It is believed that this will now be a permanent thing with the merchants of this place.

Only three stores have not joined the agreement. Those closing include grocery, dry goods and hardware stores. The clerks and salesmen are greatly pleased with the new order of things.

INTEREST IN TREADWELL BASKETBALL IS INCREASING

DOUGLAS, Jan. 21.—Interest in the Treadwell basketball tournament continues to grow. The next game will be played Thursday night. While the score Monday night, when the store team defeated the Mexican, 32 to 15, was somewhat lopsided, the scrap was much closer than the score would indicate. The Mexican team played hard and put up a good game, though it seemed unable to make baskets. The store team played brilliant basketball, showing perfect team work. Jack Johnson was the star performer, making most of the store team's scores, some of them being long shots. Johnson and Porter were injured in the course of the game, but both showed grit, and played till the end. Wills, Porter, Kennedy, Christman and Johnson played for the store, and Foreman, Beels, Gross, Berg and Barquist, with Grandler substituting for Beels in the second half, played for the Mexican team.

The standing of the teams to date is as follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
Machine shop	3	1	.750
Mexican	2	2	.500
Store	2	3	.400
Cyanide	1	2	.333

NO BASKETBALL GAME UNTIL NEXT TUESDAY.

DOUGLAS, Jan. 21.—There will be no game between the Juneau and Douglas high school teams until next Tuesday. Two of the Douglas players have not recovered from injuries, and it is decided that the Douglas team cannot go to Juneau before next week.

The Douglas team will put the time in at hard practicing under the direction of Bob Schar.

DOUGLAS NEWS NOTES

DOUGLAS, Jan. 21.—There will be a social dance at the Treadwell club tonight. Some extra good music will be furnished by the Treadwell orchestra.

The Cyanide plant and machine shop teams will play basketball tomorrow evening at the Treadwell club.

The Ladies' League of the Congregational church will hold a tea in the parlors of the church tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. All ladies are invited.

The Alaska Catholic club met last night.

The Arctic Brotherhood had an interesting meeting last night.

The fire alarm startled the people of Douglas last night about 9:30 o'clock, and the fire laddies made quick time up to the boarding house, formerly owned by Mrs. Corbett. Upon arriving there it was found that there

ORPHEUM THEATRE.

At the Orpheum theatre last night "Billy the Burglar," the two-reel Vitagraph comedy-drama, was the special attraction and proved to be a most pleasing picture play. Paul Kelly, in the leading part of "Billy" the juvenile detective, did some clever work in his chase and capture of One-Eyed Jim, the Crook. A good picture with plenty of comedy.

"San Xavier Mission," is a scenic and educational picture of that beautiful institution at Tucson, Arizona. In connection with this is shown works of art, such as pottery-making and basket-weaving by native Indians of Arizona.

"The Artist's Romance," a beautiful and refined romantic comedy, was presented in photo-play by the Lubin stars, Arthur Johnson and Lottie Briscoe, in a splendid picture well worth seeing.

"The Hobo's Rest Cure," a dandy Selig comedy of tramp life, closed a good, enjoyable entertainment, which will be repeated this evening.

Remember "Kerry Gow," Thursday and Friday.

EXCELLENT SHOW AT GRAND TONIGHT.

"Toys of Destiny," a two-reel feature that is full of interest and heart-touching play. Don't miss this two-reel production.

"Indian Dances and Pastimes," interesting; "101 Bison" production—ways of the Indians.

"Cupid Finds a Way," a very good comedy. Come and enjoy our show tonight.

DOUGLAS COASTERS ARE INVITED TO TRY SLED

The Alaskan Hotel has extended an invitation to the visitors in the city from Douglas to try coasting on its sled which is making flying machine time on the Franklin street grade and down lower Front street. The sled is 20 feet long and accommodates 16 persons. It is alleged to have acquired a speed exceeding 75 miles per hour after getting under way and before the level ground is struck below the hill. It is equipped with electric lights, a fire bell, and is driven by a competent pilot. The guests of the Alaskan Hotel and their friends have been enjoying coasting on this distance annihilator for the last week.

BAILEY'S BAKERY SOLD.

Mrs. M. J. Hughes has purchased Bailey's bakery, located on lower

Front street. She took possession of the business today. Mr. Bailey will retain control of the building, however, and has determined to erect an addition to it that will provide suitable apartments for living purposes.

JUNEAU ELKS DEFEAT ELKS OF DOUGLAS

The Elks of Juneau defeated those of Douglas in a bowling contest at the Elks' club alleys in this city last night. The score was: Juneau, 2310; Douglas, 2111.

The teams were: Juneau—Haasch, Leafgreen, King, Carmein and Lukes. Douglas—Snow, Thelke, Terry, Bennett and Metz. The high score was made by Leafgreen, 202; and the high average by Haasch, 178.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lundstrom wish to tender their sincere thanks to their many friends for the kindness extended during their recent bereavement.

MARINE NOTES

The Al-Ki will arrive from the South tonight about 11 o'clock and will sail on the return trip at 7 tomorrow morning.

The Mariposa left Cordova at 3 p. m. yesterday and is expected to arrive in Juneau tomorrow noon.

The Northwestern sailed from Seattle last night and should arrive here Friday night.

The Humboldt should sail from Seattle January 30.

The Georgia left for Sitka today.

PERSONAL MENTION

Thomas E. Brandon, well known representative of the Watson-Moore company, left for Sitka on the Georgia today.

A. VanMavern, local representative of the West Coast Grocery company, is a passenger on the Georgia enroute to Sitka.

Prof. Jack Sumpf, formerly of Ket-chikan, has returned to Juneau and will locate here. It is his idea to open a music studio and also accept engagements in the musical line.
