WASKEY OPENS OFFICE AT MARSHALL CITY
 Frank H. Waskey, Alaska's first Delegate to Congress, who was recently appointed United States court commissioner for Wade-Hampton precinct, recently created by Judge J. Randolph Tucker, Jr., of Nome, has opened his office at Marshall City, in the Andreofsky district. The new precinct includes this new district, also the headquarters of the Kuskokwim.
 It is said that Judge Tucker gave the new precinct its name in honor of his wife's relatives.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MISS FORREST
 Mr. and Mrs. George F. Forrest last night entertained in honor of the birthday of their daughter Miss Rita. After the gathering at the Forrest home, hosts and guests repaired to the Gross hall and spent the balance of the evening in dancing. It was one of the most enjoyable social affairs of the season.

JUDGE BROWN HERE.
 Judge Fred M. Brown, of the Third Judicial Division, residing in Valdez, arrived in Juneau on the Mariposa last night and tried one case in the district court this morning in which Judge R. W. Jennings was disqualified but resumed his journey to the Westward on the Mariposa. It is expected that Judge Brown will return at some future date to try other cases in which Judge Jennings is disqualified.

LEWIS INDICTED ON A FELONY CHARGE
 "Red" Frank Lewis is now serving a term in the Federal jail under sentence from the commissioner's court for malicious destruction of property, was indicted by the grand jury for robbery.

JURY INDICTS FOR UNLICENSED LIQUOR SELLING
 Kitty Brown, one of the defendants against whom a secret indictment was returned, is under arrest on the charge of selling liquor without a license. This prosecution is a result of the grand jury's purpose to cause the abatement of the practice of selling liquor without license in the restricted district. It is recommended in its final report that the prosecutions continue until the practice is stopped.

TEE HARBOR CANNER ARRIVES IN JUNEAU
 R. E. Davis, head of the Tee Harbor cannery, arrived in Juneau on the Mariposa last night, accompanied by his family and they have taken apartments at the Hotel Cain. Mr. Davis says that he has come up now to stay.
 It is the intention to increase the capacity of the Tee Harbor cannery to double its present output and the work of making the necessary improvements must soon start in order to get the use of it during the coming season.

CHANGE NIGHT AT ORPHEUM
 The Orpheum theatre tonight will offer an entire change of program: "Pirates' Gold," a splendid Biograph dramatic picture story of the sea, eventful and exciting.
 "Desperate Chances," is one of the best and most thrilling railroad picture dramas shown by the Kalem Co.
 "Fooling Their Wives," is a dandy Lubin comedy.
 "Ma's Apron Strings," a Vitagraph force comedy, all for a laugh, with John Bunny and Kate Price as Pa and Ma.
