DOUGLAS NEWS NOTES

DOUGLAS, Feb. 3.—J. S. Mikove, the Douglas merchant, was a returning passenger on the Mariposa from Seattle to which place he went on business recently.
The Delhi arrived at Treadwell today and is discharging cargo there.
The Moose lodge had a good meeting last night.
The Juneau Elks will play the Douglas Elks on the Treadwell Club bowling alley tonight. The last game was played two weeks ago at Juneau and the Elks of that place won.

SAME GOOD PROGRAM AT THE LYRIC TONIGHT

DOUGLAS, Feb. 3.—The same excellent program that pleased the people so well last night will be shown at the Lyric tonight, as follows:
"Old Mam'selle's Secret," a good Reliance drama in two reels.
"When the Light Fades," a wonderful seamen's story by the American Co.
"Shocking Her Mother-in-Law," a comedy, very comical.

INTEREST CENTERS IN TREADWELL BASKETBALL

DOUGLAS, Feb. 3.—Interest at Douglas and Treadwell is now centering in the basketball game that will be played at Treadwell Thursday evening between the machine shop and the store teams. The game will be a good one.

HIGH SCHOOL CONTEST CLOSE.

DOUGLAS, Feb. 3.—The closeness of the last two basketball games between the Juneau and Douglas high school teams has a tendency to keep up the interest in that series notwithstanding that Juneau has a three to one lead. The game here Saturday night might well have gone to Douglas and made the series even. It was as nearly a drawn game as two teams could play.

MARINE NOTES

The Admiral Evans is scheduled to sail from Seattle Thursday.
The Jefferson should sail from Seattle Thursday, arriving here February 9th.
The Seward will sail from Seattle Thursday with coal.
The Princess Maquina is expected to arrive from the South tonight.
The Mariposa arrived from the South last night and left for the Westward about noon, stopping at Sheep creek to discharge freight.
The Delhi arrived from the South about noon and is discharging coal.
The Al-Ki will sail from Seattle next Monday, arriving here Feb. 13.

DRAMATIC SOCIETY IS ORGANIZED IN JUNEAU

The Alaska Dramatic Society was organized last night at the home of Rev. Geo. E. Renison. The Society, which is composed of local talent, proposes to put on a number of plays during the coming season, and expect to stage the first bill, which they are now rehearsing, sometime during the last week of the present month. Watch papers for date of first bill and for further particulars.

GRAND PICTURE SHOW TONIGHT

The program for tonight is as follows:
"Artist, Girl and Dog," Majestic drama.
"Another Man's Wife," society drama, by the American Film Co.
"Joe's Reward," interesting Reliance drama, very good.
"All Came Out in the Wash," Gaumont comedy, and "Beauties of Brittany," education.
Change tomorrow night

GEO. W. WICKERSHAM THE ONLY PESSIMIST

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The New York Sun contains an interview with Geo. W. Wickersham, former attorney-general, on President Wilson's message. He brands the President's plans as needless and impossible. Definition of crimes he calls futile, and sees clash with States and vast harm to private interests.

BANKERS DEFEAT LAWYERS IN BOWLING CONTEST

The bankers defeated the lawyers in an exciting and close bowling contest Saturday evening, though there were only four points between the contestants. The score was: bankers, 1341; lawyers, 1337. Guy McNaughton, J. R. Willis and Harry Lucas, who won the game from the "overdrafts," represented the bankers, and Judge John R. Winn, Judge John B. Marshall and N. L. Burton, represented the men of law.

Guy McNaughton made the high score, 187; and Judge Marshall the high average, 162.13.
Manager McNaughton, of the bankers, says they are ready for all comers.

White sheep give more wool than black sheep—there are more of them

REMINGTON stenographers do more of the world's work than other stenographers—there are more of them.
Nature only knows why there are more white sheep than black.
All the world knows why there are more Remington operators than others.
REMINGTON is the machine in which the most operators have confidence—and the machine which gives them the confidence to make good.

12,500,000 Remington letters
mailed in the United States every business day in the year

Isn't that the answer to the question, "which machine?" for your office?
Throughout the world Remington is a synonym for typewriter efficiency. It is the voice of the business world.
